Rev. H. K. Walker, Los Angeles, Occupies Pulpit Here.

DEMOCRACY THEME USED

Visitor Who Will Leave Portland This Week Says Autocracy Prevails Only in Business.

Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, occupied for the second consecutive time the Portland First Presbyterian pulpit yesterday.

In his sermon Rev. Mr. Walker said: "Isaiah is the most modern of the old testament prophets. He describes in prophetic language the beauties and the glories of the new earth created by the ideals of the one whom he delights to call the wonderful counselor and prince of peace."

"There are those today who reject the message of Jesus," he said, "and the builders rejected will yet crush them to powder. Jesus' social system was, and is, founded upon truth, and truth must and will prevail."

RELIGION OF HEART NEEDED

Dean Hicks Says Search for God Made in Wrong Channels.

Modern religion fails because it is of the intellect and not of the heart, said the old-time religious thinker, Dean Hicks, in a sermon preached by him at the St. Stephen's pro-cathedral yesterday morning.

PHILIPPS IN CHURCH OPPOSED

"With such examples in mind, the church certainly has a right, but it is no one's duty to do, all which her dreamers and prophets have talked and labored for so many ages."
