LEAGUE HELD INDEPENDENT Irish Party Claims No Special Favor From Lloyd George.
DUBLIN, Aug. 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—Sir Horace Plunkett, one of the directors of the Irish Dominion League, referring to a published statement that the League was "Lloyd George's inspired," said yesterday.
"There is no foundation, I regret to say, for the suggestion that the prime minister has directly or indirectly given more encouragement to the League's propaganda than to the aim for which Lloyd George's policy appears, the film is far more likely to feature partition rather than unity of Ireland, which the League is convinced can be best secured on the dominion plan." The Irish dominion League is composed of men who believe that an Irish republic is unattainable and undesirable, but think that a prompt measure of home rule on the fullest colonial lines is urgently necessary. It was formed in June last.
