BY HARRY M. GRAYSON. Vernon's Tigers retained their one-game lead over the Angels yesterday when they took the second game of the series Score—Vernon 5, Portland If Wade Killefet's outfit wish to keep the Bengais from increasing their margin this week it had better keep its head up against Sacramento for if the Beavers win one game this week Walter McCredie will turn all his pockets inside out looking for horseshoes. Lefty Schroeder invaded the Tigers' den and outside of the sixth inning pitched air-tight baseball. If that fatal cainto could be erased from the day's calendar the athletes might be going yet. The Albins phenom was touched for four hits and three runs during this heart-breaking round-up, before this heart-breaking round-up, belove which he was sailing along prettily with a one-run lead. Schroeder was taken out in the eighth when Billy Speas hit for him. Harvey Sutherland chucked the closing stanza.

Mitchell Enras Victory. Southpaw Willie Mitchell, formerly a star with the Cleveland and Detroit Americans, made his debut here and in view of the fact that he allowed but two hits and struck out eight the great portsider deserved his victory. Mitchell walked three as against one for walked three as against one for Schroeder. Like the young Portland star Mitchell would like very much to forget about one inning, that session being the first in his case. In the initial period he issued two of his three bases on balls to Rader and Wisterzil, the first two men to face him. Schaller's sacrifice hit advanced the pair and Lew Blue punched the two Portland runs across on the one real bonest the roadness. on the one real honest-to-goodness Beaver hit—a solid crack to center.

The only other bingle chalked up against Mr. Mitchell transpired when Siglin scratched a hit to Johnny Mitchell at shortstop.

Beavers Make Little Fuss. Beavers Make Little Fuss.

The locals were retired in order in every inning save the first, third and seventh. It was Mitchell's third and last base on balls in the third inning which gave Rader life for the second time, and he reached the keystone on Wisterzil's sacrifice. Siglin's dinky hit in the seventh spoiled another perfect inning for Mitchell. Only these fect inning for Mitchell.

two Mackmen reached first base after the opening stanza.

Concerted hitting in the sixth won-for the enemy. Chadbourne doubled to the right field wall, and when Meusel the right field wall, and when Meusel repeated the performance the former counted and registered himself a moment lafer on Borton's home-run. Rader's error, Brooks' infield out and Pitcher Mitchell's single scored the first Tiger run in the third with another being added in the eighth on Meusel's single, Borton's sacrifice and Fisher's second hit of the day.

Bobby Meusel scored two runs and made three hits out of five times up. Cheer up, gents, we still have Deacon Jones and Lieutenant John Carolina Oldham. The scores:

KINGSBURY POPULARITY has many causes

YOU will admire your Kingsbury for the simple elegance of its case design. Or you may want the Kingsbury for the bedrock guarantee of quality that's back of itor because of the reputation of the house which makes it.

But its great appeal is tone.

Kingsbury tone is sweet, sustained and singing, alluringly dainty in its treble, dominant and ringing in its bass. There is no other tone just like it.
