

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. PITCOCK... Published by The Oregonian Publishing Co., 133 South Street, Portland, Oregon.

The Oregonian is a member of the Associated Press... The local news published herein... are also reserved.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance: Daily, Sunday included, one year, $8.00... Weekly, one year, $2.50...

Portland Street Car Problem. The decision of the war labor board that wages of men employed on Portland street railways should be raised...

Seattle has tried to avoid raising fares and also to avoid the same system of public charges...

Economy Still Necessary. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year...

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms...

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area...

little given to self-laudation, and is quite likely to excite a restraining influence on those who are exceptions to the rule.

Against a few who may be supposed to have exhausted their emotional possibilities, we must set a great number in whom confidence will have been newly born...

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...

Those Who Come and Go. "When the lumber export trade really commences it is a question whether or not we can get the ships to handle the business," said J. R. Moorhead of Kansas City...

TOO MUCH MONEY. Our minds are so fixed on the high cost of living that we are apt to lose sight of the fact that probably half of it consists of the low price of money.

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...

More Truth Than Poetry. By James J. Montague. THE OWL. The owl that lives in the locust tree. He hasn't a friend in the world—not he.

TOO MUCH MONEY. Our minds are so fixed on the high cost of living that we are apt to lose sight of the fact that probably half of it consists of the low price of money.

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian of August 23, 1894. Local 221ks put on a big parade before 5000 persons last night by way of advertising their clam bake...

TOO MUCH MONEY. Our minds are so fixed on the high cost of living that we are apt to lose sight of the fact that probably half of it consists of the low price of money.

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...

Those Who Come and Go. "When the lumber export trade really commences it is a question whether or not we can get the ships to handle the business," said J. R. Moorhead of Kansas City...

TOO MUCH MONEY. Our minds are so fixed on the high cost of living that we are apt to lose sight of the fact that probably half of it consists of the low price of money.

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...

More Truth Than Poetry. By James J. Montague. THE OWL. The owl that lives in the locust tree. He hasn't a friend in the world—not he.

TOO MUCH MONEY. Our minds are so fixed on the high cost of living that we are apt to lose sight of the fact that probably half of it consists of the low price of money.

THE ULTIMATUM FROM SCIO. The public will be comforted to hear that the Scio Tribune, a staunch supporter of the president and his administration, boldly notifies Mexico...

ECONOMY STILL NECESSARY. Economy in consumption of wheat and flour is evidently imposed on us for another year, according to the survey of the wheat outlook by Wheat Director Julius H. Barnes.

Now the storm has broken. The geographical standstoppers of Tacoma have taken up arms. The News has interviewed sundry exasperated citizens and with one accord they bestow epithets on the Kiwanis club.

Chicago was a pioneer in this kind of settlement. A valuation of the street railways was agreed on in 1909. Betterments are added as they are made and after paying operating expenses...

That plan did not suit war conditions and, when Cleveland was confronted with the necessity of raising fares, it adopted a system by which net earnings above cost of operation are placed in a stabilizing fund...

When the question of fares was opened, that of uniform fares was also opened. Uniform fares work well in a city of moderate area, densely populated, but they do not fit a population that is thinly spread over a large area...