of that fair city being enforced hosts in lieu of the derailment of a freight train which held up the choo-coo carrying the Mackian machine to Los Angeles.

A double-header was scheduled to be played between "our boys" and Vinegar Bill Essick's trained Vernon Tigers. It was Admission day in California and with a holiday declared the pastimers would have drawn thousands of paid admissions. Then too, the men will now be forced to play a double. of paid admissions. Then too, the men will now be forced to play a double-header on Saturday in addition to the one already on the bill-of-fare for Sunday, which crowds the tossers of the stitched Reach and tends to make them stitched Reach and tends to make them exceedingly peevish.

It was, however, the loss of the holiday crowd which undoubtedly made Walter McCredle and Fatty Arbuckle dance the can-can, Judge William Wallace McCredle, president of the Portland baseball company, immediately upon hearing of the postponement threatened to raise the rent of all his tenants. It looks like a hard winter. With the Southern Pacific company's tracks cleared away, the Portland-Vernon series will be the attraction at Washington park Los Angeles, this afternoon. Walt's walters may give the ernoon. Walt's walters may give the ernoon. Walt's waiters may give the southerners a battle for their beef, for the laddles showed a wee bit of class against Bill Rodgers' speed merchants last week and may be off on another abbreviated drive.

Los Angeles did not gain further on Vernon yesterday, for the best they could obtain was an even break with Oakland while the Bengals were watchfully waiting for the Mackmen to put in an appearance.

President James Brewster of the Se-attle club, who is in California with his payroll, has started his hunt for a 1920 training camp. By so doing Jim becomes the pioneer for next year in that line. The Siwashes went to Taft last spring and made a serious error.
