

U. S. SOVEREIGNTY IS SAFE, SAYS WILSON

Veto Given by League's Rule of Unanimous Vote.

MONROE DOCTRINE UPHELD

Recognition Given Instrument for First Time, Asserts President in Spokane Speech.

AMERICA HAS ABSOLUTE VETO

Largely a "debating body" the president said today that the veto would have been absolute under the rule requiring a unanimous vote.

There was only one case in which the assembly could decide an important question, he said, and that was when such a question was unanimously referred to it by the council.

THIS FACT OR WAR, IS CHOICE

President Declares Germany Wants America Out of League.

COEUR D'ALENE, IDAHO, SEPT. 12

A world again aflame with war unless the peace treaty is accepted was pictured by President Wilson in an address here today.

AMERICA WAS FACE TO FACE

With a decision as to whether she would adhere to the world's peace treaty or not, he said.

WAR INSURANCE WANTED

Repeating many of his previous declarations regarding the treaty's provisions, the president asked the crowd at the Helig Hellig theater here today whether they would not think some insurance against war was better than none and there were cries of "yes, yes," followed by cheers.

SOVEREIGNTY KEPT SAFE

Taking up the proposed reservations to article 10 the president said the vote of the United States would be required to insure any decision of the league council.

WAR POWER LEFT WITH CONGRESS

It had been proposed at Paris, said the president, that the covenant provide that the members should automatically be at war with a covenant breaker.

DOMESTIC QUESTIONS RESERVED

Domestic questions, too, the president said, were fully reserved to national decision.

In the number of things that men know are not so. "But the Monroe doctrine—I must admit to you, my fellow-citizens, I don't know how the Monroe doctrine could be made any more explicit except that it was in the covenant of the league of nations. It says that nothing in the covenant shall be interpreted as impairing the validity of the Monroe doctrine. What more could you say? I did try while I was in Paris to define the Monroe doctrine and get it written into the document, but I will confess to you in confidence that when I tried to do it I found that it escaped analysis. And that all you could say was that it was a principle with regard to the interference of foreign powers in the politics of the western hemisphere, which the United States felt at liberty to apply in any circumstances where it thought it pertinent.

BRITAIN AND JAPAN HIT

Spoils Protection Is Held Aim of League; Monroe Doctrine at Other Powers' Mercy.

ST. LOUIS, SEPT. 12

When Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California stepped onto the stage of the Coliseum tonight to plead for the defeat of the league of nations covenant in its present form, he was given an ovation that lasted 18 minutes.

DOMESTIC AFFAIRS EXCLUDED

"But there is the question of domestic affairs, the interference with domestic policies, immigration, naturalization, tourists—matters of that sort. There again I can't understand or feel the weight of the difficulty, because the covenant says that the council of the league of nations, if any international difficulty is brought under discussion, one of the parties claims and the council finds that it is a matter of domestic jurisdiction, shall cease to discuss it and shall make no recommendation."

LIBERTY ALLEGED IN PERIL

"The 'right' of the citizen today stands between you and your liberty," said Senator Johnson in beginning his address.

PEACE TREATY MUST BE SEEN THROUGH

Says Wilson at Rathdrum.

RATHDRUM, IDAHO, SEPT. 12

America is "bound in honor" to see the peace treaty through, President Wilson told a crowd at Rathdrum after returning to his train from Coeur d'Alene. This was the third platform talk the president has made on his trip.

AMERICA HELD HONOR-BOUND

There is one thing sure, the people of the United States will not be quitters," he said, and the crowd cheered.

smiles frequently, the smile being reflected by Mrs. Wilson, sitting at his side. And of all the audience, none is more attentive to the president than the president's secretary, Mr. Tumulty. No other statement of the president met such acclaim as when he declared: "I'm ready to fight till the fight is taken out of me by death to redeem the faith and promise of the United States." Another impressive statement was: "If we fall them—Europe—God help the world!"
