

SALEM GLOVES SHOP TO SEE STATE FAIR

Third Day's Attendance Breaks State Records.

HORSE SHOW REPEATED

Salem Elks to Be Host Today to Large Delegation of Lodges from Portland.

AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE GIVEN COUNTY EXHIBITS.

First district—Cooa, first; Tillamook, second; Clatsop, third; Tillamook, fourth.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 24.—(Special).—

Salem closed shop today and went to the state fair en masse. Late tonight when the last of the tired thousands had left the grounds and the army of auditing clerks had partly finished tabulating the receipts, officials announced that there was no doubt but that the third day's attendance at this year's fair had shattered all records in the history of the Oregon state fair.

As early as 8 o'clock this morning the roads leading to the fair grounds were congested with automobiles, while 40 or more street cars operating on a ten-minute schedule were crowded.

Livestock Judging Resumed. Judging of livestock was resumed in the pavilion at 9 o'clock, followed by a concert by Tommasino's Italian band two hours later.

More than an hour before the time set for the race, several thousand persons lined up in front of the grandstand and at 2 o'clock every available seat in the grandstand had been sold and standing room was at a premium.

Starter McNair, who has been in the judges' stand at the Oregon state fair for many years, was in a jovial mood and before the race started he and the hearing will probably be held early next month, although the date has not definitely been set.

FLYING ORDERS RECEIVED

Western Department Air Service Head Visits Forest Patrol Scout.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 24.—(Special).—Colonel H. H. Arnold, commanding officer of the western department air service, stopped in this city for a short time yesterday to deliver to Major Albert Smith final instructions for the flight to make map of the timbered areas of five states of the northwest next year.

DAM SUPPLIES CARED FOR

Fish Warden Reports Little Damage at Umpqua Hatchery.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 24.—(Special).—After investigating the report that materials for the construction of a dam and other improvements at the North Umpqua hatchery had been left in the hands of the contractor, R. E. Clanton, state fish warden, returned Tuesday morning to Salem, Ore., and nearly a week ago he ordered the superintendent of the hatchery to care for the exposed lumber until it is needed. He states that he expects work on the dam to start soon.

PHILOMATH OPENS 30TH

The enrollment will be greatly increased and will include students from Montana, Idaho, California, Philippine Islands, Washington, Oregon and Nebraska.

Miner's Injury Proves Fatal.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 24.—(Special).—The death of Fred Rehrbaum, a Mendota coal miner, who was injured a few days ago when he was struck by a huge rock, occurred Sunday in a Centralia hospital after an operation had been performed in an effort to save his life. Rehrbaum was 45 years of age and had been in the employ of the mining company for many years. His widow and three children survive.

PROPERTY OWNERS LOSE

COUNCIL DECLINES TO RESCIND PAVING AWARD.

Protest Urging Improvement by Municipal Plant Falls When Damages Are Suggested.

Effort of property owners in the Woodward avenue improvement district to rescind the awarding of a contract for the improvement of streets within the district failed yesterday, when city attorneys advised the council that the city would be liable for damages if the suggested action was taken.

The improvement district includes all streets from East Twenty-first street to Third Street, to Tigard street. Last week the city council passed an ordinance awarding the contract for the work to the Warren construction company and the following quotation from one of the speeches will give an idea of the general tone of the meeting:

"Following the award of the contract a letter was dispatched to the contractor by city Commissioner Barbus instructing the contractor to proceed with the work in order that the job might be completed before the winter rains began. As a result of this letter the contractor moved equipment to the district and began the preliminary work immediately."

Yesterday property owners appeared before the council and said that they were anxious to have municipal paving repair plants do the work. It was said that 70 per cent of the property owners desired the former action of the city council rescinded.

WATER RATE FIGHT NEAR

Roseburg Will Resist Proposal to Double Charges.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 24.—(Special).—Fighting to prevent increased rates for any of the local public utilities, the city council met Monday night to discuss the legal battle to be staged soon between the city of Roseburg and the Douglas County Light & Water company.

An application to double water rates was recently presented by the company and the hearing will probably be held early next month, although the date has not definitely been set. The city has retained four attorneys and stands ready to appropriate even the public money to pay expenses of the expected fight.

ETHEL CLAYTON'S

Beautiful Complexion

That splendid actress now appearing under the Paramount banner in London for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the use of a simple toilet article called Derwillo.

Derwillo is a simple toilet article of face powder, stays on better, as perspiration does not affect it, and it instantly beautifies the complexion. One application proves it. If you want a soft, white, velvety skin every day, get a bottle of Derwillo today. You will be delighted. Derwillo is the favorite of business men in Germany. Be sure to read large announcements of Miss Clayton's soon to appear in this paper. It tells how instantly have a beautiful complexion and, in answer to a letter offering them a machine for the manufacture of bottles:

"Mr. H. C. Scherrer, Amsterdam.—In reply to your letter and circular re the Schiller machine, we beg to say that we are a German manufacturer and it made good instead of bottles, we would not touch it. We also add that the machine is a German one and this fact known throughout the trade."

"We do not know who you may be, but you cannot be much better than the man who writes me, for you would not try to assist such a nation of liars."

Travel in Germany all last winter was anything but an agreeable experience. The delivery of 15,000 locomotives to the allies immediately after the armistice temporarily paralyzed transportation facilities. Then all the old, wheezy locomotives that had been laid up in the yards were got out and put to use. The number of trains was cut down to one-fourth and strikes and the coal shortage still further reduced the service. During the spring and winter there were only two trains in Germany that had restaurant or sleeping cars—the so-called "Parliament train" to Weimar and the train operated between Berlin and Spa under the auspices of the armistice commission.

In spite of the difficulties of travel the trains were always crowded. I stood up all the way on a night trip in January from Bremen to Berlin with Gordon Stiles of the Chicago Daily News, the journey which ordinarily takes a little over three hours, lasting from 10:30 at night till 9 the next morning. We stood with our backs propped against the wall in a crowded corridor without a ray of light and the thermometer near zero, and in the draft from a broken window.

Women Like Husbands. Later I had many amusing experiences on trips through Germany. One night I had to take the train from Berlin to Danzig. When I arrived at Charlottenburg station half an hour beforehand there was already a dense crowd on the platform that literally stormed the train the minute it pulled in. Men and women fought and pushed; elbows were brought into play and even the most picturesque admirer of a man just in front of me, who kicked with a double action, forward and backward, into my compartment, where I had a seat only because I had hired two porters, one to carry my bags and the other to get through the window and take possession till I came. I fought all night long with a Hun, and on going to sleep and falling over on me, I put my typewriter between us, whereupon she called everyone to witness that I had placed a trunk on the seat, and she was only silenced when I reminded her that I and my trunk together weighed 150 pounds.

He Gets Even. On my way back from Russian Poland, going from Koenigsburg to Danzig, I was approached by a fellow traveler, a man from Saxony. He asked me to give him a ride in my typewriter into my ribs every few minutes.

Americans Are Quoted. Americans were made to furnish most of the propaganda material for the pamphlets distributed at the door. One of the translators was a young Jennings Bryan's "English Rule in India." Another was "American Opinion in Danzig." The Danzig office, where I was in charge, was a headquarters of the allied commission, where the Danzig office was a long way by telegraph. It was a roomy way to the Danzig office, where I was in charge, was a long way by telegraph. It was a roomy way to the Danzig office, where I was in charge, was a long way by telegraph.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single hair and make no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces will last you a long time. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

Here Your Dollars Do Double Duty!

To Keep Down the Cost of Living, We Are Doing for Pianos Here

What the government is doing for food now—only we put it specifically—25% lower than the local market prices on new models and, after securing the Eastern piano factories the past few months, we have made it possible for you to sidestep the recent advance in prices by securing many calendars of new samples, wholesale stock pianos, discontinued models and used pianos.

CUT OUT THIS PRICE LIST. Take it up with dad, husband, son or daughter, determine then and there whether you will pay the advanced prices or take advantage of this rare opportunity at lower prices.
