DEWEY'S TEAM GAME ONE Lack of Practice Shows in Work of Contestants—Forward Passes Figure Big in Result.

Franklin high school and Columbia University ushered in the 1919 Portland intercollegiate football season on Multnomah field yesterday afternoon, the Quakers locking the prep school gridiron 17 to 7.

Columbia staged a brilliant rally during the final quarter, but the punch was produced too late and one touchdown was the limit. Referee Earl Harmon's final whistle sealing the northeast side boys' fate.

Columbia started off with a rush again in the second quarter. Half-back McCluskey tore off a 36 run, but Coach Reibben's youths soon got the ball and started for a touchdown.

Thomas Makes First Score. Yardage four times in succession by Franklin paved the way to the first score.

The second touchdown of the winners was scored in the fourth quarter when Thomas shot a pass about 15 yards into the waiting arms of Cook who raced ten yards to a touchdown.

Forward Pass Works. The second touchdown of the winners was scored in the fourth quarter when Thomas shot a pass about 15 yards into the waiting arms of Cook who raced ten yards to a touchdown.

King, Poulson, Thomas, McCallum, York and Cooper played stellar ball for Franklin, with the whole team working as a unit. Bert Jacobberger, "Budd," Doug Hargis and Charlie Lake and Tony Dwyer stood out for Columbia, although all played exceptional football for the amount of practice the team has had an opportunity to get.

Arrangements have been made by the directors of the Portland Intercollegiate League whereby the participants in football games are protected by the National Hospital Association. A doctor will be on duty for every game and in case of injury X-ray examinations and hospital service will be provided.
