in the making. Not her destiny alone, but the destiny of all nations, is centered in the progress of the world's premier project of genuine democracy.

WOMAN'S INEQUALITY. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman's Suffrage association, has issued a prediction.

THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT. The suffrage amendment will not doubt be ratified and it is not the purpose herein to question the accuracy of Mrs. Catt's prophecy.

THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT (Continued). Here in Portland, an illustration has just been given. Question has been raised as to the eligibility of a woman to hold office in the court of domestic relations because of her alienage.

THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT (Continued). On the other hand a man may have a wife in Europe, but that fact is no bar to his naturalization.

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). D'Annunzio's expedition to Fiume should arouse the peace conference to the fact that the habit of settling quarrels by force has taken strong hold of the world.

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). Those old dynasties never give up. The Hapsburgs were no sooner driven out of Hungary than they began scheming to get back.

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). If the womenfolks of the presidential party brought from Europe "presents" of value, why make a big fuss because they are allowed to have evaded pay duties?

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). John Barrett is resigning as head of the Pan-American Union. He has held important office since he quit reporting on the Telegram nearly thirty years ago.

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). There is a nice question of responsibility opened in the arrest of the San Francisco police officer.

PRUSSIANISM STILL RAMPANT (Continued). The kind of public spirit that made the whole town of Sheridan turn out to gather fruit is the kind that wins and makes a town grow into a city.

THE GOLDEN CITY (Continued). Where the streets are a-flow and a-glitter and enrapture with sound and sight.
