STATISTICS OF OPENING GAME

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—The national commission announced that the total attendance at today's game was 20,511. The total amount of revenue taken in, not including war tax, was $38,774. The commission's share of this was given as $19,720, leaving the remainder to be divided as $38,906. Of this the players' share was given as $2,246.12 and the share of the two clubs and the leagues at $25,469.98.

BY GRANTLAND RICE

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Kindly insert this classic phrase on the sporting scroll of a warning season: Via, Boston may have her Ruth, but Cincinnati has her Reuther and between the immortal pair the Redland star is more Reuther than Ruth. It was Reuther who struck into the world series combat who struck off two triples and a single out of three trips to the plate. It was Reuther's willowy left arm that held the slugger Willy Sox to three clean blows and three flys, pale blue scratches. It was Reuther who stalked into the spotlight supposed to be held in close reserve for Eddie Cicotte and in the presence of 25,000 astonished persons held Collins, Jackson, Weaver and Fling to one scrappy, scratchy single.

FOR THE GREAT PART OF FOUR INNINGS

Eddie Cicotte, the American league premier, gave Reuther an even battle, but in the closing snafu of the fourth with the count even at 1 and 1, the Red attack broke down Cicotte's defense and drove him to the shower with one of the fiercest onslaughts that any single inning of a world's series has ever known.

Cicotte Handled Roughly.

Man by man the Red guard stepped up and drove the best that Cicotte had to give from one part of the field to another. But the big cave-in arrived when "Babe" Reuther stepped up with two on and hammered the first of his two triples far beyond Chicago's reach. This was the blow that broke up the battle, gave Cincinnati the jump game and turned the Reds from forlorn hope to Red hot favorites at 8 to 5. For of the 15 world series contests played to date, the ball club winning the opening scrimmage ultimately has triumphed on no less than 13 occasions. The only clubs that ever lost the first game and later finished on top were the Boston Americans of 1903, and the Philadelphia Athletics of 1911. On all remaining occasions the team that won the opener has galloped safely along to a certain triumph.

THE REDS NOT ONLY WON THE JUMP GAME TODAY

but they won it in the most decisive fashion that any first game has ever been won before. They won by a margin of 9 to 1 and they outplayed the White Sox in every department by this same margin. They not only slaughtered Ed Gleason's leg but within four innings, but they continued the merry jubilee of sweet against Wilkerson and Lodermler, running up a juicy total of 14 hits for 21 bases.

THE WHITE SOX WERE OUTBATTED, OUTPITCHED, OUT-FIELDED AND OUTFOURD, for after that first rugged Red attack the great Chicago machine lost all heart and faded from the field, dizzy and dazed, floundering and reeling, it looked like Willard in the second round, taking a world of punishment but offering nothing but feeble and forlorn thrusts in return.

SIX ARE OUTSLAUGHTED.

It is hard to imagine a great machine so hopelessly outclassed for seven one game. For after the Red tide began to surge forward in that fourth inning there was nothing left to the game but a red streak around the bases and a weary flutter of white legs up to the plate and back to the bench.

6000 PERSONS GO WILD WHEN SENATOR APPEARS AND ALL LIGHT WIRES IN BUILDING CUT.

ARDMORE, Okla., Oct. 1.—United States Senator J. A. Reed was egged from the stage at Convention hall here tonight as he was being introduced by the mayor in preparation for his speech against the treaty and the league of nations. The crowd, more than 6000 strong, went wild as Reed came on the stage, and all light wires to the building were cut. Pandemonium broke loose and cries of derision howled him down while the audience surged upon the stage. Reed attempted to hold the floor for a few minutes, but was forced to make his exit without beginning his speech.

AFTER SEVERAL MINUTES OF THE DEMONSTRATION A NUMBER OF WOMEN CLIMBED UPON THE STAGE AND QUIETED THE CROWD.

Reed could not be seen at his hotel here tonight, but it was announced that he would make no attempt to deliver his address.

FRENCH VESSEL DISABLED

C-41 Being Brought to Coos Bay in Tow of Tug Samson.
MARCHFIELD, Or., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—The steamship City of Topeka this afternoon encountered the French steamer C-41, a merchant ship, off the coast between here and the Umpqua river. The French vessel was disabled and asked for a tow into Coos bay. The Topeka took the crippled craft in tow and wirelessly to the tug Samson, in this port, which went out and relieved the Topeka. The French vessel had sent no wireless about her condition when the "Topeka" came across her and afterward made no attempt to communicate with the shore. The C-41 was steaming southward from north to south port.

MARCHFIELD, Or., Oct. 1.—The tug Samson brought the merchantman up to the bar this evening at 7:30 o'clock, but the pair was not able to get into port before midnight, owing to a strong ebb tide. No further reports have been received from the C-41, and nothing is known about her condition.

BANK ROBBED OF $10,200

Safe Wrecked; Money Overlooked on Vault Floor.
LEWISTON, Idaho, Oct. 1.—Robbers last night, Wash., six miles from Lewiston, Idaho, blew the safe of the private bank of Baumelster, Vollmer & Scott, and obtained $10,200 in cash and $7200 in liberty bonds. Entrance to the bank building was effected through the Specker & Wegner store adjoining. A hole was blown through the brick wall, and the vault floor. Tools used in working through the brick wall had been identified as those stolen from a bridge construction crew at Astoria a few days ago.

WAR POSSIBLE OUTCOME

Failure to Use American Influence Now May Result in Amateur Conflict, Writer Asserts.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—(Special Cable.)—This city, which fundamentally is neither Polish nor Russian, and has retained just enough of its original Lithuanian character to be useful, is the listening post for all this troubled and confused frontier. It has a mass of strange and interesting things to recount, some of which the American people have decided are none of their business; but just let them listen a moment and they may no longer be so sure. It tells, for one thing, how Germany is planning the conquest of Russia. It tells how Germany sees before it opportunities of empire that were beyond its wildest dreams when it started the war. It tells of German leaders by the score, each with a large armed following, nominally, perhaps actually, independent of the Berlin government, but who are carrying on as they are because they are Germans, and are doing what they are doing for the glory of Germany.

German Army Remains.

It Tells of 'The Old Faith'.

General von der Goltz, leaving Mitau, says, "What can I do? The Germans who are in arms east of Prussia refuse to come back when I tell them to." And it tells of an army of 40,000 Germans sitting back inside the border waiting. Are those 40,000 Germans a nucleus of the warlike spirit of Prussia which is gathering? Are they waiting for that long scathed, ragged army of General Ludendorff to get into even worse straits than we have left it in, and when it is given an unexpected (perhaps not even a very hard) blow by the Red army, to come to its rescue?

A big game is being played up here, a foxy game. I have long known it and this is not the first time I have written about it. But I have never before had so advantageous a listening post.

It is a situation the American people cannot neglect. It only needs an intelligent hearing. It does not rest.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION EXISTS AS TO DANGER OF SERIOUS DISTURBANCES IN GERMANY.

Arrival of Cold Weather Sends Members of Cult Indoors; Berlin to Dance for Warmth.

BY CYRIL BROWN.

(Copyright by the New York Herald Company, Published by Arrangement.)
BERLIN, Oct. 1.—(Special Cable.)—A cold wave has hit Germany and incidentally has called a halt on the "altogether" cult of some of the Teuton tourists in the Bavarian highlands.

With post revolutionary abandon big parties of men and women have indulged in the fad of mountain climbing, all in extreme highaltitude, only found wearing one-piece bathing suits. In many cases even this garment was considered superfluous and was abandoned. Some of the parties increased the picturesque of the cult by wearing carrying caps, and in some instances by other carnival stunts during their mountain climbing, greatly to the shock and anger of the moral native mountaineers. The indications are that despite the coal shortage this cult of the nude will persist as indoor sport.

The winter's pest of barefoot dancers has broken out again and crowded houses applaud the showing of "plastic studies" which added several new styles in dearth of costumes. A Berlin critic says: "The first dance proved the necessity of a relief action for a good cause" and he forecasts "that the dance fashion for this winter will be drop damies in helplessness, three-quarter nakedness, prancing about the stage." Berlin will try to keep warm by dancing and the indications are the public will follow in the licentious suit of the stage styles. The public ball season opened tonight with the "doll baby" ball, at the Reingold hall and prizes were offered for the "finest babies." Bathing costumes balls and similar saturnalia are also in the winter vogue.

Berlin's new night life, however, menaced by the coal shortage, and the authorities announce the police hour and sharp lighting restrictions will be rigidly enforced.

NEGROES FIRE ON POSSE.

Advice here said the trouble had its beginning when the posse was fired upon by a crowd of men, said to have been negroes, at Elaine. The fire was returned, it was said, and in a few minutes firing became general in the streets.

Blacks Put in Jail.

An engineer of the Missouri Pacific railroad who arrived in Helena tonight said he pulled a steel gondola loaded with women and children out of Elaine late today and that the train was fired upon by negroes from trees along the track. The white prisoner was brought to this city late tonight with a group of 15 negroes who were placed in the county jail. Each white man is alleged to have been the leader of a population of 10,000, a large proportion of which are negroes.

The situation at Elaine is critical and growing more so, according to a message received here tonight from Joseph Meyers, who is heading the posse. Meyers is quoted as saying he expected another clash at any moment and requested that additional reinforcements be sent. Five hundred soldiers from Camp Pike, Ark., are due to reach Elaine at midnight.

GOVERNOR EMBOURG AT LITTLE ROCK communicated with Secretary Baker over long-distance telephone this afternoon and obtained the order for the sending of the troops.

As soon as the report of the assault was made the troops threw a cord around the entire district and refused to enter.

GOVERNOR SENDS TROOPS

Whites Searching for Slayer of Railroad Agent Attacked in Street; Situation Tense.

HELENA, Ark., Oct. 1.

To white men, Clinton Lee and J. A. Tappen of Helena, and seven negroes are known to be dead at Elaine, near here, as a result of clashes today between a posse searching for the persons who last night from ambush fired upon and killed W. D. Adkins, railroad special agent, according to reports reaching here tonight. A third white man, Ira Proctor, and a number of negroes are known to have been wounded.

Tappen, who was a prominent business man here, succumbed at a local hospital to the wounds he received in the morning's fighting in the streets of Elaine.

Proctor, who also was brought here, is not expected to live, according to physicians. The body of Lee, who died from his wounds at Elaine, also was brought to his home here. Lee is said to have been shot accidentally while Tappen and Proctor were wounded during the fighting. Charles Fratt, deputy sheriff, who was with Adkins when the latter was killed last night, was wounded in the knee. Lee, Tappen and Proctor are members of the local post of the American Legion and were deputized by Sheriff Kitchens with a number of other civilians when he received word that the situation at Elaine was getting out of control.

500 Soldiers Sent.

More than 100 negroes and a white man who is alleged to have had possession of a quantity of questionable literature had been arrested by posse operating in Elaine and vicinity when he left, according to former Sheriff Jarman, who arrived here late today. A number of the prisoners have been brought to Helena and others, according to Jarman, are on the way under heavy guard.

Women and children of Elaine and vicinity are being brought to Helena on a special train for safety, it is reported here. The local situation is tense, but no trouble has broken out here. Armed men patrolled the streets tonight.

Negroes Fire on Posse.

Advice here said the trouble had its beginning when the posse was fired upon by a crowd of men, said to have been negroes, at Elaine. The fire was returned, it was said, and in a few minutes firing became general in the streets.

Late today a telephone message was received from Elaine stating that the posse had taken 125 prisoners and was bringing them to Helena. The number wounded was estimated at between 10 and 25.

FOREST PATROL FLYER WILL USE 90-MILE CURTIS PLANE.

First Lap Will Be From Eugene to Olympia, Thence to Boise, Helena and Cheyenne.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 1.

(Special.)—Returning from the deer country east of Tillamook last night, where he spent a week hunting and enjoying an outing, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, Forest Supervisor S. C. Harrington and his wife, Dean Eubar, Major Albert Smith of the army airplane forces will leave for Eugene Thursday morning and from there expects immediately to undertake a flight over five northwest states.

The first lap of the flight, which is for purpose of locating airplane and obtaining data to be used in forest patrol work next year, will be from Eugene to Olympia, Wash., and from the Washington capital to Boise, thence to Helena and Cheyenne, according to a statement made today. Major Smith will use a Curtis plane. The machine now is awaiting his arrival at Eugene. The plane is equipped with a 150-horsepower engine, and is capable of making 90 miles an hour. Major Smith stated that he prefers this type of machine for the class of work he will engage in during October because it can be landed on plains that would be impossible for a De Havilland.

Major Smith expects to finish his flight by October 20, when he will report at Sacramento.

METAL TRADES ON PARTIAL STRIKE

Wage Demands Extend to Machine Shops.

2 WOOD SHIP PLANTS CLOSE

"Unfair" Material May Hit Steel Shipyards.

WALKOUTS QUIETLY MADE

Two Firms Concede New Scale and Continue Work—Drydock Closed to Emergency Fleet.

With two wooden shipbuilding plants shut down, the Port of Portland drydock closed to emergency fleet vessels, two metal working shops striving to operate in spite of a walkout, and two others having conceded to the strikers, the Portland prolonged strike of metal workers, the continuation of which will mean the closing of all the shipyards and a general strike in all the metal trades.

The immediate cause of the entire disturbance is an agreement entered into August 15 by shipbuilding employers and employees of the Columbia river district, providing for an increase in wages of eight cents an hour and the establishment of a 44-hour week. The new scale was made effective October 1. A strike threatened the shipyards when an order was received September 15 from the home office of the emergency fleet corporation that the fleet corporation would not sanction the agreement or permit employers to pay the increase of eight cents an hour.

Order Comes Late.

The strike, which was scheduled for midnight Tuesday was averted at the last moment by a new interpretation of the emergency fleet order transmitted from a conference of effective October 1. A strike threatened the shipyards when an order was received September 15 from the home office of the emergency fleet corporation that the fleet corporation would not sanction the agreement or permit employers to pay the increase of eight cents an hour.

Progressive Strike Instituted.

A progressive strike was instituted yesterday by shipbuilders, however, which had not adopted the agreement, which number included all shops in this district. Calling at various plants, a committee from the metal trades council presented a copy of the agreement to the manager, and William F. Gralik, president of the union workmen in the plant.

In this manner the Peninsula Shipbuilding company, Coast Shipbuilding company, Smith & Watson iron works, Hesse-Martin iron works, South Portland Repair shop and McDonough Overtrave plant were "quilled." Because of the close of the day the Smith & Watson iron works and the South Portland Repair shop signed the agreement and the men on strike in each of these places went back to work.

The hope of the strikers, as expressed by the publicly committee of the metal trades council, is to secure the adoption of the agreement throughout this district without calling a general strike in the industry. They hope to attain this object by going quietly to one plant at a time instead of calling them all out together.

The chief weapon of the strikers is a clause in the agreement adopted by the steel shipbuilders which specifies that men will not be required to work unfair material. If the strike continues for a week or more and contract shops succeed in operating with non-union labor, the product they send to the steel shipbuilding plant will be declared "unfair," and, according to union officials, the workmen in the steel yards will refuse to touch it. The result of such a development could mean only a general strike in the steel shipyards.
