LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 2.-Transylvania day brought out the largest crowd of the Ketucky Trotting Horse-breeders' association meeting and the race, while it ended after three heats under the three-heat rule, was an ex-citing one. In the first heat Prince Lores, after trailing his field into the stretch, came like a shot at the fin-ish and, covering the inst quarter in :29, won by a length from Hollyrood Kate. The second choice, Royai Mac, went to a wild break on the back stretch and finished last after trot-ting a half in one minute to save his distance.

The second mile found Royal Mac in the lead at the quarter with Prince Loree trailing, the last named coming through the stretch as he did in the first and winning. In the third and final heat, Tommy Murphy went away in the lead and, closely pressed by Easton, held his position to the wire. Easton, however, was passed by Prince Loree, but the latter could not get up being strung to his limit. and was declared the winner only be-cause of the conditions which ended the race after the third mile.
