

WILSON'S IDEALISM WAIN, SAYS JOHNSON

Disappearance of "Fond Hopes" in League Observed.

WORLD POLICING SCORED

1000 San Francisco Women Hear Senator Plead for Change in Peace Treaty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—President Wilson's idealism statements and work credited to the president at Paris and Washington and quotations from the president's speeches in San Francisco, Salt Lake City and elsewhere on his recent tour of the country in behalf of the league of nations covenant were used as topics by United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson in an address here today to combat the peace treaty and league in their present form.

The address was made to an audience of more than 1000 of San Francisco's most prominent women, delivered at a luncheon of San Francisco center, a woman's club, before which the president appeared in half of the league two weeks ago. It was an enthusiastic audience, judged from applause, which frequently compelled Senator Johnson to pause in his address.

Senator Johnson concluded his visit here tonight. Tomorrow he will appear before a luncheon audience and a night mass meeting at Los Angeles to continue his fight against the treaty and league. These, it was said, will constitute his only addresses in Southern California. He is scheduled to speak at Portland, Ore., Tuesday night; at Tacoma, Wash., Wednesday afternoon, and at Seattle, Wash., Wednesday night. His itinerary following Seattle has not been decided.

Idealism Declared to Vain.

"I have looked forward with the fondest hope to the accomplishment in the great world arena of the idealism announced by our president in the principles of his peace, and which with burning words he had told us must be written into the treaty," Senator Johnson said. "With sinking heart, I observed his initial surrender and as the days passed and we observed, one by one, every idealistic principle abandoned, every altruistic purpose surrendered, our fondest desires for a new world order destroyed, we held a sad intellectual inquest over a dead hope."

The president, he said, had declared the Shantung decision "shameful"; in Washington, he had been "detestable," and in San Francisco had justified the decision.

Troops in Russia Opposed.

The California senator also continued before the women his fight against article 10. He attacked the stand taken by President Wilson on amendment to the article in speeches at Salt Lake City and Pueblo. Use of American troops in Russia and at Trau, Dalmatia, also were attacked by the speaker as being ordered by foreign leaders. He said that use of American troops wherever the council of the league designated countries today, without occurrence without action by the American congress or people.

"Today the league of nations is being declared," he said, "in Paris now, just exactly as the same men, or representatives of the same men, will sit in secret at Geneva hereafter. . . . And the president, when he says to you that khaki-clad boys will no longer be sent beyond the sea, speaks apparently with a lack of knowledge of the facts that now confront us. You don't want boys sent across the sea. I, in my narrow view of Americanism, do not want American boys to police the world. And the struggle we are maintaining in this country today, whether American boys shall police the world."

BEND FIREMAN FINED $25

Assistant Chief Taylor Loses Liquor and Fears Wife.

BEND, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Admitting that three quarts of whisky found under his house in Bend were his own personal property, Assistant Fire Chief J. H. Taylor pleaded guilty in police court to the charge of having liquor in his possession, and was fined $25 by City Judge Peoples today. The money will go into the municipal fire fund.

Taylor declared that he had obtained the whisky four months ago and was saving it for medicinal use in case an influenza epidemic should break out. He had hidden it under the house to keep it from his wife, he said.

"What I get in police court won't be in a circumstance to what I'll get at home," he assured the judge.

MOUNTAIN STORMS EARLY

Deschutes Grazing Examiner Returns From McKenzie.

BEND, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Unusually heavy storms for the early fall are reported in the mountains by Grazing Examiner Jack Horton of the Deschutes national forest, who returned today from a three-day trip to the headwaters of the McKenzie River.

Whitened peaks visible from Bend testified this morning to the extent of the storm.

PLANE'S FLIGHT DELAYED

Martin Machine Forced to Wait Another Day in Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 2.—The Martin bombing airplane making the flight "around the rim" of the United States was unable to leave Spokane for Seattle today. Inability to obtain in time a supply of high-test gasoline caused postponement of the flight until probably tomorrow.

Bend Woman to Get Reward.

BEND, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Because of her part in effecting the capture on August 27 of David Brichoux, escaped convict, Mrs. M. Keeney of this city will receive the $75 reward offered by the state, it was learned today. Brichoux was taken after he had been hiding out for two weeks near Bend. He had gone to keep an appointment with Mrs. Keeney, believing that he might receive assistance, but instead finding himself surrounded by a posse.

Aberdeen Students Drill.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Two companies, one known as A company, with a roster of 110, and B company, with a roll of 124, have been formed by Military Instructor H. B. Short at the Weatherwax high school here. Company A is composed of students who had military drill last season. Company B includes those who are drilling for the first time. Competition between the two companies for prizes which are offered is expected to be keen.

State Capitol Notes.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Governor Olcott today received a copy of a western magazine containing a lengthy article by Tom Marshall telling of his observations while on a recent visit to Crater Lake National park. Mr. Marshall, who is widely known throughout the United States as authority on trapshooting, is a cousin of Mrs. Olcott and was a visitor in Salem last week. He is a weekly contributor to the sporting pages of The Oregonian.

Volney Richmond, superintendent of the Northern Commercial company, at Fairbanks, Alaska, and Robert D. Menzie, also a resident of the far north, were callers at the governor's office today. Governor Olcott, while in Alaska in 1894, 1895 and 1896, became well acquainted with Mr. Menzie and during their chat here today they recalled many interesting incidents of the long ago. The governor also knew Mr. Richmond, although their acquaintance was not of an intimate nature. Mr. Richmond and Mr. Menzie recently arrived in Seattle from Alaska and are now en route to San Francisco by automobile. They do not expect to return to Fairbanks until next spring.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, passed yesterday in Portland visiting with friends.

O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, left here today for Marshfield and other Coos Bay points, where he will look after business matters connected with his official duties.

Wallace Benson, son of the late Governor Frank W. Benson, was a visitor in Salem yesterday. He called at the capitol and enjoyed a brief visit with a number of the state officials.

Mrs. Maud McPherson, until recently in charge of the Seattle branch library at the University of Washington, will arrive in Salem later in the week to relieve Miss Cornelia Marvin, who will depart next Tuesday or Wednesday for a tour of Japan and the Orient. Miss Marvin is state librarian. The tour will cover a period of several months and Miss Marvin expects to assemble considerable information which will prove valuable in her work here.

Willard Marks, Albany newspaper man, passed the day in Salem yesterday while en route to Roseburg, where he is attending the annual teachers' institute for Douglas county. During his stay at the capitol he was entertained by F. E. Carlton of the state superintendent's office.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, has gone to Roseburg, where he is attending the teachers' institute there.

A. L. Carlton of Portland arrived here last night to pass a few days.

F. W. Connor, deputy state fire warden for Wheeler, Grant, Morrow and Umatilla counties, arrived in Salem today and will pass a few days conferring with State Forester Elliott. Although there were a number of fires in the eastern Oregon forests during the past summer, the aggregate loss was nominal, according to Mr. Connor.

Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, returned to the capitol this morning from Astoria and other Columbia river points. Mr. Nunn drove his automobile from Astoria to Portland in six hours, despite the many improvements in progress on the highway at this time.

The government of Formosa is planning the establishment of one of the greatest hydroelectric plants in the far east, capable of supplying 120,000 horse-power and serving the entire island.

RACE WAR RESUMED; 6 SLAIN AT ELAINE

Negroes Fire Upon Governor of Arkansas.

CORPORAL DIES; ONE HURT

Helena Councilman, at Head of Posse, Killed; 500 Troops Patrol Densely Wooded Arcas.

ELAINE, Ark., Oct. 2.—Governor C. H. Brough and Colonel Isaac Jenks, commanding the troops here, were fired upon by the negroes here; O. L. Johnson, a white real estate dealer at Helena, was shot three times and probably fatally wounded; Dr. D. A. Johnson, a negro druggist of Helena, and his three brothers were all killed and one corporal was killed and another seriously wounded in the renewal of race trouble here shortly before noon.

O. R. Lilly, member of the city council of Helena, was killed at Hoop Spur this morning.

Governor Brough, accompanied by Colonel Jenks, was on a road near Elaine when they "flushed" four negroes. The negroes fired at them and then ran. Neither was struck. The corporal killed was a member of the 14th infantry.

Four Negro Brothers Slain.

A posse headed by Mr. Lilly caught a band of negroes led by the Helena negro druggist. They started to take the four negroes, all brothers, to Helena. They had gone but a short distance when Johnson jerked a revolver out of Mr. Lilly's pocket and shot the Helena real estate man through the body, three times.

Others in the posse turned their guns on Johnson and his three brothers and killed them all. Two negroes unidentified were killed on the streets of Mill Grove, Elaine, last night.

The two negroes, both armed, paraded the streets making remarks about what they expected to do to a resident of Elaine. Officers and residents who had organized, shot them to death. The two had been in the negro section of the town endeavoring to organize the negroes.

Governor Accompanies Troops.

Five hundred regular army troops from Camp Pike, most of them overseas veterans, accompanied by Governor C. H. Brough, arrived here at 8 o'clock today and immediately threw a cordon around a densely wooded area in which 150 armed negroes are hiding. The troops have been ordered to kill any negro who refuses to surrender.

One negro, who surrendered this morning, said the negroes organized at a meeting last Sunday to "battle for our race." He said some of the leaders, most of them ex-soldiers, would fight to the last.

The race trouble started with an attack Tuesday evening upon W. A. Adkins, a special railroad officer, Charles Pratt, a deputy sheriff, and a negro trustee who had gone by automobile to Elaine to arrest a suspected bootlegger and who were fired upon by unidentified persons. Adkins fell dead and Deputy Pratt was wounded. The negro escaped and advised the sheriff's office here by telephone.

Prisoners Taken to Elaine.

A posse was immediately sent to Elaine, where it was fired upon, it is said, by negroes. The riot followed. Meanwhile the posse men sent appeals for reinforcements, which were soon forthcoming. When the situation became dangerous the governor was asked to send troops. As there is no national guard in the state Governor Brough, communicated by telephone with the war department at Washington and obtained permission for troops to be sent from Camp Pike. A large number of negroes were

CIGARETTE TITLE GIVEN

10,000 Signatures Needed to Place Measure on Ballot.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Atorney-General Brown today completed the ballot title for the so-called cigarette measure which will go before voters of Oregon at the general election, to be held in November, 1920. The bill was initiated by D. E. Frost of Oregon City and was filed recently with the secretary of state. It will be necessary to obtain about 10,000 signatures to the petitions before the measure can be formally placed on the ballot.

STOLEN BONDS EVIDENCE

Men Charged With Burglary Have Missing Securities.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special).—Any doubt which might have existed in the minds of police that Frank Barnett, Albert Meadors and James Tait were the men who blew open the safe in Walter Kallunkis' store on the night of August 15 has been removed by a telegram received by Sheriff Nelson from the chief of police at St. Joseph, Mo.

At the time of the robbery several thousands of dollars in liberty bonds were stolen. The telegram says that
