Increased Power and Easier Road in Life Is First Consideration of Working People.

Arno Dosch-Fleuret, who was in Russia during the war and sent the first news from Petrograd of the revolution that dethroned the czar, has for the past several months been investigating conditions in central Europe...

MINSK, Lithuania, Sept. 23.—(Special Cable).—The proletariat of western Europe does not lack class-consciousness. Seventy years of socialist propaganda has had that result at least.

As I have lived under the bolshevik rule and have seen industry "nationalized," it is almost impossible for me to remain serious while discussing the industrial ruin of Russia. It is all but too fantastic for serious consideration.

These labor syndicates had before them figures which proved bolshevism an industrial failure. They studied the figures and they were not surprised to find that the bolsheviks had declared war on Germany, and it was the most natural thing in the world.

Soviet Idea Attracts.

They have been, and still are, mightily allured by the one new political formula the Russian revolution produced, the soviet, but they have not swallowed the bolshevik claim that theirs is the "government of the soviets."

Stampede Is Fought.

The spartakists failed in Germany because the independent socialists, who held the balance of power, demanded a more scientific program.

PLANE PATROL EXTOLLED
