WAR SHOWN IN PICTURES

RARE EXHIBIT PROMISED AT CENTRAL LIBRARY. Camp, Trench and Battle Scenes, Work of Fred Strickland of Portland to Be Displayed.

How Fred Strickland, with the Canadian engineers, saw the war from camp to trench and through battle into German territory, is chronicled in a series of sketches in pen and ink, pencil and water color, which has been lent by him to the Central Library and prepared by Miss Eleanor Statter, head of the art department, for an exhibit to begin Wednesday.

The collection is unique, owing to the fact that many of the sketches were made in districts where military regulations barred cameras. Mr. Strickland was continually facing the double problem of securing sketching materials and of getting his sketches past the censoring eyes of military censors, but he worked unceasingly and the result is a pictorial diary that is immensely fascinating.

who will lead the people to nobler conceptions of civic duty.

"No one claims that the league covenant is perfect or that it will effectively prevent all wars. But it is humanly the best thing that has ever been put on paper. It is the only thing that has ever been put on paper that is not rejected as Senator Johnson has demanded. Misrepresentation and flagrant exaggeration of its defects in the present juncture merits nothing but condemnation.

From what the people of the country know of Hiram Johnson they would not want him as president, for he would be certain to rattle the saber and beat the tom-tom until he had all nations hostile, with him as president we may safely count on foreign wars. Whatever may be the feeling in California, the Oregon people are not eager for another war.

"If the league of nations is adopted with mild reservations, as now seems likely, it will not do to put in the people of Oregon that favor the where he would have the power to cripple and hamstring it.

It is possible that I may be a candidate for delegate to the next republican national convention, being somewhat addicted to the habit, but if I do want to adopt as my ballot motto or slogan 'Not for Johnson, or Too Much Johnson,' or some such careless trifle. Anyway, if I do want to vote their convictions, Senator Johnson will not be Oregon's choice for president."

CHARLES H. CAREY

Slogans Are Prepared.

The executive committee held a conference yesterday afternoon to see if it was possible to get up a list of slogans for the republican convention. Mr. Carey prepared a series of slogans for banners, but the committee had not decided what should be done with them. One of the slogans read: "We want nothing—more than the league of nations."

There's some objection to this," admitted Mr. McCusker, "as it may not be grasped readily. You see, the league is authorized to spend as much as it wants for the league of nations."

The banner with the strange device may make its appearance on the walls of the auditorium tonight.

GAMES AT FAIR RAPPED

PURE-BRED LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION ON RECORD.

Resolutions to Be Presented to State Fair Board; Undermining of Institution Charged.

Resolutions condemnatory of games of chance operated on the state fair grounds at Salem during the recent fair, and calling for future reform, have been passed by the Oregon Pure-Bred Livestock association, as presented by a special committee of investigation. Members of this committee were Edward Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyman, R. W. Hoop, Mrs. Frank Laughry and N. C. Maris.

This committee reported that one member counted over 70 concessions dealing in the sale of chance at various lotteries during the recent state fair, and that some of these games offered the slim margin of one chance out of 125 for the player to win.

Other alleged gaming concessions, it is charged, to evade the law gave prizes of $1000, $500 and $250, and taken. The committee reported that country boys and girls gamed their savings away at these various devices without receiving any real value in return, and that in one instance a youth spent $15 without drawing a single prize of any worth.

Whereas, the Oregon Pure-Bred Livestock association believes that the foundation of a pure-bred livestock industry is educational and that the conduct of fairs of this nature is a public interest, and that the prevalence of the livestock and agricultural exhibits and concessions should carry with them a moral and educational character, and that the Oregon state fair board and the Oregon state fair are unwelcome and demoralizing and in some cases disgusting beyond description, and are especially detrimental to the boys and girls of the best crop grown on the Oregon farms—therefore, be it

Resolved, That this association hereby expresses its absolute disapproval of the state fair board and the Oregon state fair on the north Pacific coast for the grounds of gambling devices and questionable amusements; and that the Oregon state fair board in making the same improvements for the comfort and convenience of the exhibitors and visitors, especially appreciating the livestock section, which is an absolute necessity for

ASK FOR and GET Horlick's Malted Milk

The Original Malted Milk For Infants and Invalids Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

The success of our fair and which has been erected at great cost, much of the funds having been provided personally by members of the fair board, is due to the fact that for lack of public funds our fair board has had to use its own money in the purchase of the fair grounds, and to be safe in reimbursing themselves they have felt justified in accepting concessions that no doubt they would have excluded except for the financial stringency.

Resolved, That we declare our earnest desire to support the state fair in every way possible, but insisting that it must be kept clear of these gambling devices and immoral shows, the president of this association is authorized to appoint a committee of five members to take this matter up with the state fair board, and to assure them that in case we can be assured of a clean fair we will use every possible endeavor to secure from the legislature sufficient financial support that the fair board will be independent of all questionable sources of revenue. The committee is authorized to attend the meeting of the north Pacific fair circuit managers, if considered necessary.
