MRS. Sauvie Grts Decree.—With property rights settled out of court. Mrs. Thereas Sauvie yesterday re-ceived a divorce from Albert L. Sauvie on a cross complaint filed to her hus-band's suit, the decree being signed by Presiding Judge Gatens. Desetion was the grounds alleged in the answer and cross-complaint to which Sauvie did not reply. Mrs. Sauvie denied that her interest in residential property was worth $40,000 as intimated by her husband, saying it was not more than $10,000, and further worth at least $40,000 was valued at

LEGION MEN TO BE DANCE GUESTS .-Members of the American Legion will be guests of honor at a dance to be given Friday evening in the city audiorium by the War Camp Community Service. A special invitation also has been extended to members of the Canadian Veterans' association and all service and ex-service men. The guests are asked to bring their own dancing partners. Tickets for party may be obtained from the War Camp Community Service headquarters in the Northwestern Bank building or from Liberty temple. The tickets are free but admission to the dance depends on their presentation Friday evening.

Loss or $1300 REPORTED.—S. C. Rhodes, negro, of $20 Union avenue, made a report to the detective bureau late Monday night that someone had picked his pocket and robbed him of $1300. Rhodes drew $400 out of the bank Monday and he told the inspectors he had in addition $909, which he had been carrying around with him since his marriage. He said he had since his marriage. William Edmunds, who is extremely natural as an Italian and whose confusion of English wins numerous laughs. The other principals of the lively act are William Cotton, Hazel Boyne and Dorothy Shirley, all of whom win plaudits. The act is interspersed with catchy songs and lively dances and the big surprise in the finale causes an outburst of laughter and applause.

This show is pervaded with comedy, five of the seven acts of the bill making a great laughter appeal.
