Senate Hurries Consideration of Proposals.

HOUSE OFFERS TO APPEAR

sharp Debate Takes Place Upon Question of Sending American Troops to Silesia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—After a brief debate and without the formality of a record vote, the senate today threw out two more of the amendments written into the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee.

The two amendments had been introduced by Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, and had as their common purpose curtailment of the power of the American representatives on the reparations commission, an international body set up by the treaty to find and collect Germany's reparation bill.

Work is hastened. The vote came sooner than expected, the leaders agreeing to it as a part of a plan to complete the consideration of amendments as soon as possible so that the senate might get down to the real work of drafting a ratification resolution.

Action on the two Fall amendments came near the end of a session which had been enlivened by a sharp debate over the dispatch of American troops to Europe for service in connection with the Silesian plebiscite and by a new move from administration quarters to meet the objections of Irish-Americans to the league covenant.

In anticipation of a rollcall, both sides had mustered their forces in the senate chamber as the time for action on the Fall amendments was approached. As the question was put, however, Senator Hitchcock asked Senator Fall whether it was his purpose to request a rollcall, and the New Mexico senator replied that it would be useless, since the objections measures would be beaten.

Troop Movement Attacked. The only speeches made on the amendments were by Senator Fall, by Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, who argued that the purpose could be served sufficiently by reservations. During the course of the day various other features of the treaty and the peace negotiations were discussed.

Senator Nelson interrupted to suggest that the amendments be put to a vote without a rollcall. He said that the dispatch of this force was due to some arrangements made by the American peace commission at Paris. It was intimated also that the authority for sending them springs from the fact that technically, we still are at war with Germany.

It was intimated also that the authority for sending them springs from the fact that technically, we still are at war with Germany.

Borah States Opposition. Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, interjected that the statement of Senator Hitchcock gave the fundamental reason for his opposition to the treaty. "American troops will be constantly crossing the ocean if it is ratified," said he.

"I believe that if the treaty is ratified and the league of nations put into effect, retired Senator Hitchcock, there will be no question of armament and maintenance of the world peace."

ELECTION TO BE NOV. 12. (Continued From First Page.) by officials as proof that the voters are not being asked for something which is not necessary.

When the election was first discussed it was thought that 12 mills would be sought, and that the entire levy would not be utilized unless necessary. Upon the advice of Mayor Baker, the council reconsidered this proposal, however, and decided upon a request for just the amount needed.

Campaign to Be Launched. Members of the city commission plan to organize a whirlwind campaign, in which each member of the council will take an active part. City employees will also be asked to participate in the campaign, and it is expected that speakers, orchestras and societies to explain the necessity of approving the proposed amendment. The city commissioners will occupy pulpits in churches, where

BABY HOME AGAIN CAN RECEIVE WARDS

Waverly Ban Lifted by Child Welfare Commission.

CLOSING CAUSES PROTEST

Reopening Allowed After Improvements Are Made in Accordance With Demands.

At a meeting of the child welfare commission yesterday permission was again extended the Waverly baby home to receive babies into its care, the prohibition against acceptance of infant wards, in effect since the epidemic of dysentery at the home last spring, being rescinded. It was indicated that the home has complied with the "essential" recommendations made by the commission.

Attention was called to the fact that the baby home was still profiting from receiving charges when public protest was made by some of the home officials on Wednesday. In day members of the protest yesterday afternoon the child welfare commission stated that the application of Wednesday had not been called into the attention of any one of them.

All members of the commission were in attendance at the meeting yesterday. They are Chairman E. W. DeBusk, Secretary Millie R. Trumbull, Dora B. Schilke, R. G. Hall and J. D. DeWansy.

Over their signatures the members gave out this order and statement: At a meeting of the child welfare commission Friday afternoon, the permission to receive children was granted the Waverly baby home.

"Upon what pretext in this formula proposed? In order that we might be milked in damages of all advantage that might otherwise accrue to us?"

"I do not attempt to say that unions have not sometimes violated their contract, but not often that the employers have violated their agreements with their workmen."

When Mr. Gompers concluded, Mr. Lorie said that he had referred inadvertently to the war labor board when he meant the war labor council, and the action he had referred to he said labor wrong undue concessions during the war.

Bartering Cannot Be Dealt. View. John Sparro, a member of the public group, broke into the discussion to assert: "The right of collective bargaining was won in the United States many years ago and no action in conference can take can deprive labor of that right."

BROTHER JOINS SEARCH

Cottage Grove Man Leaves to Scour Woods Near Sutherlin.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Harry Culver of this city was called to Sutherlin Tuesday to assist in the search for his brother Leonard of Portland who is believed either to be lost or to be the victim of some accident in the woods near there. He was out with a party of hunters who returned Monday without him. Culver is about 25 years of age. He had become separated from the party. He disappeared soon after the party started hunting Sunday afternoon and when they returned Monday they thought it quite likely that he had made his way home ahead of them, but he did not appear at home by Tuesday morning, searching parties began scouring the woods.

This is What a Skid Does! It actually grinds away the tire's tread—stretches and weakens the fabric—causes inevitable punctures and blowouts.

Every time you skid you grind off miles and miles of tire service and no matter how careful a driver you may be, when roads are wet and slippery it is next to impossible to avoid skidding unless your tires are equipped with WEED TIRE CHAINS.

WEED TIRE CHAINS

For Protection and Preservation Weed Chains insure safety, economy and tire protection—Always put them on "At the First Drop of Rain." Weed Chains are also made to satisfactorily meet the demand for an efficient traction and anti-skid device for trucks equipped with single and dual solid tires or with the very large pneumatic tires. They satisfactorily meet the requirements of heavy truck service in mud, sand or snow.
