Evangelist Dickson in Stirring Address Explains Armageddon As Future World War.

"A few years ago should one have eriously mentioned international haos he would have seemed to be, and would have been classed as, an altarmist—a radical in thought and expression. Today it is the most level-leaded members of society who are peaking in such tones and who are nanifesting the most anxiety regard-ng that which now confronts the Only the trresponsible and world. Only the trresponsible and thoughtless are unconscious of a vast peril which is lurking under the thin upper crust of modern civilization. Practical men, with their feet planted solidly on the earth, are looking into the future as into an immeasurable darkness; and they are not sure whether there is solid ground in front of them or whether the next few steps may bring them to the brink of a precipice," said Evangelist L. n the address was "Is International Chaos Impending?" and it was based upon the second chapter of Daniel and ther prophecies of the Bible, includ-ing the sixteenth chapter of Revelation, where is found the only text in the Bible which speaks of Armageddon. Mr. Dickson declared that the great Image seen in the vision of Nebuchadnezzar, as recorded in Daniel, the second chapter, was a comprehensive outline of the history of the world from the time of Babylon to the end of the world. The evange-list said in part: st said in part:

WORLD'S HISTORY IN NUTSHELL. 'In the dream of the great image "In the dream of the great image of Nebuchadnessar was shown the entire course of this world's history. The history of more than 2500 years was revealed by God in one night, and offers undeniable proof of the linspiration of the Scriptures. The parts of the image, of various metals from head to feet, represented successive empires, beginning with Babylon; and the kingdom of Babylon, represented by Nebuchadnessar, was the head of by Nebuchadnezear, was the head of gold. The image was made up of ust four metals. Accordingly, then, ust four universal empires were to exist in the world from the time of Nebuchadnexnar to the end. The last of these was to be divided into ten smaller kingdoms, and these were to be in power when the kingdom of heaven, represented by the great stone cut out of the mountain without hands, was to take the place of all dy kingdom

"Christianity is not ascetic; it is hield."

"List is still in the future, and is a picture of the crumbling of the nations in the dream of Nebuchadnessar. The vast and unparalleled preparation for war which is now going on among the nations of earth, the awakening of the heathen amid the plans and cries for international and permanent peace, are but omens of the rude awakening ahead for those who have been lulled to sleep by the present-day Utopist's subtle, sentimental music.
