and Clark streets, Brooklyn, last night for women. It will give them nerves of steel and will also tend to increase the growing spirit of independence of the sex. It will not be dangerous because we will allow no girl to leave the ground who is not fully expert in the art of flying. It will take sev-eral months to teach the girls how to fly, but when they learn they will be, no doubt, as expert as are the women chauffeurs, who handle cars as well

The unusually remantic feature of the engagement is that Miss Lind and Mr. Twohy met for the first time but ten days before the little blind god bound the bargain. They had many mutual friends, and Miss Lind's brother-law, Charles A. Shea of this city, is associated with the Twohy interests in their shipbuilding project at Seattle. And thus, quite by chance, came the introduction on the occasion of a recent visit of Mr. Twohy to Portland.

There are two tastes in tea: the tea-flavor and tannin.

The tea-flavor brings enjoyment, rest, cheerthat is what you want.

Tannin is harsh, bitter, injurious. Tannin, you know, is used to tan leather and make ink; it is not meant to put into the stomach. It is bad for the digestion; it is hard on the nerves. Nobody wants tanninit isn't even good to taste.

Get Schilling's Tea and enjoy the real tea-flavor and steer clear of tannin. There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast, All one quality. In parchmyn-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.
