Portland Fireman Says Spouse Would Not Go Out With Him, Swore When He Took Another.

"I tried to make up with him and live happily, but he does me," Judge said Mrs. Ella James in her divorce suit before Presiding Judge Gatens yesterday. Her first attempt to live peacefully with C. J. Williams began 2 1/2 years ago and lasted for a year when she divorced her husband because it cost so much more to live than he would be married to her before, she said. He became disgusted with her because she was often sick, and abused her.

"I took a girl friend of wife's cousin to bed," she said. "I do not know she called me the name," explained W. A. Nessler in his divorce suit before Judge Gatens yesterday. The plaintiff, who is a Portland fireman, received his decree.

Several days after the marriage of Everett T. Miller last March his wife, Jeannette, handed him a divorce and told him she was "nothing but a little cur" and that she would have nothing more to do with him, he testified in his divorce suit before Presiding Judge Gatens yesterday.

"A very bad effect; I didn't like it at all," responded Miller, seriously. "I found she had another husband at Marcelline, so I left her," explained Cash R. Lane, who was divorced in his marriage to Margaret M. Lane he announced. It was.

"He said I was too good for him, but he couldn't help leaving me for a younger woman," explained William D. Willard about William Willard.

When her 18-year-old son got up in the morning about 6 o'clock to go to work in the shipyard, my wife refused to get him ready for school," complained Charles E. Jones. He further declared that Caroline Jones had cooked him a meal in a year and a half and kept late hours, refusing to tell her husband her whereabouts. He described his married life as "rocky."

Other divorce cases were: Ethel L. from R. E. Dundas, Ivy from James E. Billy, Margaret from Ralph W. McKie, Emma from C. Shiao A. Wong, and Elizabeth from Hazel T. from William Dodson. MUCH LEGISLATION TENDS TO CUT DOWN REVENUES.

The general run of legislation tending to decrease the revenue of the city and increasing the cost of the operation is largely the reason for the present financial plight of the city of Portland, according to City Commissioner Barbur, who has materially increased the city's revenue in the former position. Mr. Barbur had opportunity of keeping careful check on the city's income and expenses. The tendency of recent legislation enacted by the legislature is to reduce the city's revenue from sources other than taxation and to increase the expense of conducting the city," said Commissioner Barbur. "This is responsible to a large degree for the present financial stress of the city. It is necessary to do everything and the decreased revenue has brought the city up to a point where revenue received does not equal the amount of service. It is to relieve this situation that the special election has been called for November 12."

Warm Weather Breeds Disease Germs

Deadly disease germs breed, thrive, and spread by the thousands in warm weather. A serious epidemic spreading throughout your entire organization could easily start from a cuspidor, toilet-room, or some dark corner not properly disinfected.

Take precautions against this constant, invisible menace now, and continue to do so all through the summer. Prevent a big sick-list. Protect yourself and your associates from serious contagious illness.

Lysol Disinfectant

Lysol Disinfectant at the moment of application kills all germ life, or prevents its creation. At the office: Order Lysol Disinfectant used regularly in cuspidors, toilet-rooms, dark corners, on floors, rugs, and all surfaces. In the home: Have a solution of Lysol Disinfectant sprinkled regularly in sinks, drains, toilets, garbage cans, and wherever flies gather. A 50c bottle makes five gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes two gallons. For large institutions use Lysol F. & F. Disinfectant. Remember, there is but one genuine Lysol Disinfectant—made, bottled, signed, and sealed by Lehn & Fink.

RAINBOW HELD PORTENT

LIVESTOCK SHOW SALESMEN HAIL IT AS GOOD SIGN.

Exposition Pavilion Inspected by Men About to Make Drive to Place $100,000 in Stock.

An incident of happy portent yesterday gladdened the hearts of the 73 crack salesmen from the allied civic clubs who will take the field next Tuesday for an intensive three-day drive through which they expect to place $100,000 worth of stock to finance the completion of the Pacific International Livestock exposition's new pavilion at North Portland.

The sales force mobilized by Campaign Manager Milton R. Klepper and Finance Director John L. Etheridge had completed an excursion through all departments of the big 7 1/2-acre pavilion and emerged from the front entrance of the building about 1:30 P. M., just as the sunshine burst through the clouds and a brilliant rainbow appeared through the misty rain. The beautiful bow hung over the big pavilion, where 200 workmen and a noisy donkey engine were busily at work springing up the completion of the structure. A shout went up from Klepper and his enthusiastic army of salesmen as the rainbow was discovered and announced by O. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International.

TAKE A BLOOD TONIC BEFORE WINTER

Revitalize your blood and put your system in condition to resist the hardships of winter. It is the strong-bodied men and women who are vigorous and healthy in winter, and who are not troubled by the cold, wet days. Wet feet don't bother them, sudden changes cause no inconvenience, and even when a cold is "caught," it is a day or two. This highly desired state of health is brought about by having rich, pure blood, uncontaminated by impurities of any kind. You may possibly think your blood is all right—you are not troubled by it—you are not "caught," but you are tired and languid, you have lost some sleep or had some minor ailments at times, but you regard yourself as in "fairly good condition physically." This may be true, but you should take nothing for granted, you should "quess" that you are all right. The thing to do is to make yourself fight by taking a good blood tonic and invigorator, such as S. S. S. It is the best known blood tonic on the market today. There is hardly a man or woman in this state who has not heard of it. It has helped to restore many a people who have been brought relief in thousands of cases of blood disorders during the past few years. S. S. S. is a standard treatment for all blood disorders. It is a true blood purifier, and it gives you a new vigor and new life to the blood stream. It is guaranteed to be purely vegetable, to contain no mercury or other mineral drugs, and to be made from herbs and roots carefully selected for their known medicinal properties. For chronic sore throats, catarrh, rheumatism, eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, tetter, acne and other skin diseases are due to impoverished blood, and S. S. S. acts promptly and satisfactorily. It counteracts the germs and poisons, cleanses the system of unhealthy accumulations, generally washes all foreign matter from the blood and renews its life-giving properties. Be sure to take S. S. S. this winter. The renewal of vigor that it will give you will be well worth while. One thing you can be sure of and that is if you take S. S. S. you will be benefited. Get it today at your drug store—use a reputable one. For medical advice address Swift Specific Co., 416 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
