

RETAILERS UNWILLING TO AID

Campaign to Raise $5000 is Outlined.

CHARLES BERG CHAIRMAN

Individual Captains Named for Each of 150 Lines of Trade; Work to End Monday.

RETAIL COMMITTEEMEN OF MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN SUMMONED TO REPORT.

Chairmen of the various retail divisions of the Roosevelt memorial fund campaign are requested to report this morning at 10 o'clock at the headquarters, second floor of the Elks' building, for detailed instructions and the assignment of quotas.

Captains Are Chosen.

Chairman Berg plunged at once into the task of organization, and in conference with his chief aide, Mr. Plageman, and the executive committee outlined an exclusive list of retail business, appointing individual captains for each of the 150 lines of trade.

DEPOSITS SENT TO FARGO

Other Banks to Hold Money Until Scandinavian-American Reopens. FARGO, N. D., Oct. 23.—Approximately $35,000 in "deposits in trust" were sent yesterday by O. E. Lofthus, in charge of the Scandinavian-American bank, closed recently by order of the state banking board.

STRIKE ENDED BY THREAT

Hines Would Put Troops to Work if Pressmen Did Not Return. NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A threat by Director-General Hines to discharge 10,000 striking employees of the American Railway Express company and send troops to drive the wagons, today ended the strike which had seriously hampered business and travelers in New York City since October 11.

LONDON AWAITS ALFONSO

King of Spain to Arrive Tomorrow for Indefinite Visit. LONDON, Oct. 22.—The king and queen of Spain are expected to arrive here Thursday for an indefinite visit. The king prefers to play the part of a private individual rather than of an official visitor during his London sojourn and will stay at the Ritz hotel.

"SUPER MOST" IS FOUND

Berkeley Student Decried Superior in Athletic Prowess. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The most super of the five supermen at the University of California has been discovered. The person to be so decreed by Professor Frank Kiesberger, director of men's athletics, is Bryan Sprott, a junior in the college of education.

CITY LEADERS JOIN ROOSEVELT DRIVE

Intensive Campaign to Reach Every Nook of Portland.

HIGH IDEALS ARE LAUDED

Support to Memorial Movement Held Citizenship Lesson to New Generation.

TALENTED ACTRESS TO APPEAR IN COMEDY TONIGHT AT THE HELIX.

Mildred Evans, in "Tea for Three." "Tea for Three," which is heralded as a delightful comedy, will open tonight at the Helix theater with Norman Hackett and Mildred Evans playing the leading parts.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE ASKED

Ex-President Taft Issues Roosevelt Birthday Appeal. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Former President Taft has appealed to the clergy throughout the country to hold exercises in churches and schools Monday and Tuesday to commemorate the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, which occurs Monday.

ARMISTICE FEE DORMS

COMMITTEE PLANS BIG DAY FOR NOVEMBER 11. Parade, Community Sing, With Various Entertainments Planned to Celebrate Peace.

PLANS MADE TO CITIZENS.

"Every loyal American who loves his country and desires the Stars and Stripes to continue to float over a free people should join in the great memorial proposed by Theodore Roosevelt, whose name will go down in history along with Washington's and Lincoln's, as the embodiment of true Americanism."

7 SCHOOLS TEACHERLESS

Lane County Buildings Closed Because Pay Is Too Small. EUGENE, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Seven rural high schools, all closed because the boards of directors are unable to pay the teachers. The Union high school at Florence is not yet open because no one seems to want to teach them.

MONMOUTH VOTES WATER

Charter Amendment Meets With Approval of Resident. MONMOUTH, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—A special city election was held yesterday in the city of Monmouth for the purpose of getting an expression from the people on the question of amending the charter to provide for the establishment of a water supply system.

OBITUARY.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The funeral services for the late Mrs. Viola E. Engle, wife of W. H. Engle, prominent resident of Clackamas county, whose home has been at Molalla for the past 60 years, were held from the Adams cemetery, Molalla, Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

COULGE PASSES THE RESOLUTIONS

Majority of Senate Supports Expressions on Treaty.

ARTICLE 10 IS INCLUDED

Reservation Differs Little From That Which President Said He Would Consider Rejection.

MAJORITY BEHIND PROPOSALS.

The ten reservations covered by the withdrawal from league membership were: national supremacy over domestic questions; the power of congress to determine conditions of trade with foreign nations; and the right to increase armament in certain circumstances.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

For the Monroe doctrine reservation, Senator Hitchcock presented a substitute providing that no question depending upon or relating to the Monroe doctrine should be referred to arbitration or inquiry by the league, and that the doctrine should be preserved "entirely unaffected."

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

Regarding domestic questions, Senator Hitchcock and Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, the former proposed that the league be excluded from any jurisdiction over domestic questions, which should remain solely within the jurisdiction of each member nation.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

After that was voted down, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, moved substitution of the article 10 reservation drafted by Charles E. Hughes and Senator Smith, democrat, Arizona, proposed one under which the United States would be bound upon its own judgment, in raising military forces "to meet any of the conditions which may arise" in the article.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A letter from former President Taft expressing the belief that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe was received today by Louis Friedlander, a local merchant. Mr. Taft expressed his opinion that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

COULGE PASSES THE RESOLUTIONS

Majority of Senate Supports Expressions on Treaty.

ARTICLE 10 IS INCLUDED

Reservation Differs Little From That Which President Said He Would Consider Rejection.

MAJORITY BEHIND PROPOSALS.

The ten reservations covered by the withdrawal from league membership were: national supremacy over domestic questions; the power of congress to determine conditions of trade with foreign nations; and the right to increase armament in certain circumstances.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

For the Monroe doctrine reservation, Senator Hitchcock presented a substitute providing that no question depending upon or relating to the Monroe doctrine should be referred to arbitration or inquiry by the league, and that the doctrine should be preserved "entirely unaffected."

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

Regarding domestic questions, Senator Hitchcock and Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, the former proposed that the league be excluded from any jurisdiction over domestic questions, which should remain solely within the jurisdiction of each member nation.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

After that was voted down, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, moved substitution of the article 10 reservation drafted by Charles E. Hughes and Senator Smith, democrat, Arizona, proposed one under which the United States would be bound upon its own judgment, in raising military forces "to meet any of the conditions which may arise" in the article.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A letter from former President Taft expressing the belief that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe was received today by Louis Friedlander, a local merchant. Mr. Taft expressed his opinion that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

COULGE PASSES THE RESOLUTIONS

Majority of Senate Supports Expressions on Treaty.

ARTICLE 10 IS INCLUDED

Reservation Differs Little From That Which President Said He Would Consider Rejection.

MAJORITY BEHIND PROPOSALS.

The ten reservations covered by the withdrawal from league membership were: national supremacy over domestic questions; the power of congress to determine conditions of trade with foreign nations; and the right to increase armament in certain circumstances.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

For the Monroe doctrine reservation, Senator Hitchcock presented a substitute providing that no question depending upon or relating to the Monroe doctrine should be referred to arbitration or inquiry by the league, and that the doctrine should be preserved "entirely unaffected."

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

Regarding domestic questions, Senator Hitchcock and Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, the former proposed that the league be excluded from any jurisdiction over domestic questions, which should remain solely within the jurisdiction of each member nation.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

After that was voted down, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, moved substitution of the article 10 reservation drafted by Charles E. Hughes and Senator Smith, democrat, Arizona, proposed one under which the United States would be bound upon its own judgment, in raising military forces "to meet any of the conditions which may arise" in the article.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A letter from former President Taft expressing the belief that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe was received today by Louis Friedlander, a local merchant. Mr. Taft expressed his opinion that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

COULGE PASSES THE RESOLUTIONS

Majority of Senate Supports Expressions on Treaty.

ARTICLE 10 IS INCLUDED

Reservation Differs Little From That Which President Said He Would Consider Rejection.

MAJORITY BEHIND PROPOSALS.

The ten reservations covered by the withdrawal from league membership were: national supremacy over domestic questions; the power of congress to determine conditions of trade with foreign nations; and the right to increase armament in certain circumstances.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

For the Monroe doctrine reservation, Senator Hitchcock presented a substitute providing that no question depending upon or relating to the Monroe doctrine should be referred to arbitration or inquiry by the league, and that the doctrine should be preserved "entirely unaffected."

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

Regarding domestic questions, Senator Hitchcock and Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, the former proposed that the league be excluded from any jurisdiction over domestic questions, which should remain solely within the jurisdiction of each member nation.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

After that was voted down, Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, moved substitution of the article 10 reservation drafted by Charles E. Hughes and Senator Smith, democrat, Arizona, proposed one under which the United States would be bound upon its own judgment, in raising military forces "to meet any of the conditions which may arise" in the article.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A letter from former President Taft expressing the belief that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe was received today by Louis Friedlander, a local merchant. Mr. Taft expressed his opinion that Germany was not ready to acquire sufficient prestige to protect abused people in central Europe.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The United States assumes the obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations under the provisions of article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose unless in any particular case the congress shall by act or joint resolution otherwise provide.

MONROE DOCTRINE PRESERVED.

NEW YORK,