

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. PITCOCK. Published for the Oregonian Publishing Co. by HENRY L. PITCOCK, Proprietor.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $4.00.

Advertising Rates—In Advance. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $4.00. Daily, Sunday included, three months, $1.25.

How to Remit—Send postoffice money order, express, or registered mail.

REMARKS FOR THE TENDER-HEARTED. I don't believe I'd have done it, if I thought I'd have done it, if I thought I'd have done it.

DRINK'S FINAL EFFORT. Notwithstanding the stringency of the federal prohibition law, manufacturers, purveyors and consumers of intoxicants in Massachusetts seem to have a faint hope.

NEXT WAR ON THE PACIFIC COAST. There is small cheer for the pacifist in two articles by Lieutenant Frank W. Harris, of the United States army engineers, which are published in the September and October numbers of the Overland.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY. The bare announcement in the news that more than one hundred bachelors of arts are enrolled as student candidates for higher degrees at the University of Oregon.

A STUDY OF DEATH. "We have no fear of honest agnosticism, of dilettantism, or even of infidelity," wrote Henry Mills Alden, in a study of death.

Those Who Come and Go. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

BARGAINS FOR FRENCH, NOT FOR AMERICANS. More evidence has been produced of the care taken by Secretary of the Interior to protect the market for food and clothing in the United States last spring when prices were mounting.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS. D'Annunzio, Distorted and Misshapen, Has Charming Personality. "An underized little fellow, bald-headed, about 55 years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a long, thin white chin pencil on the right side."

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

PARASITISM. The three main objects of the memorial fund to honor and perpetuate the memory of Theodore Roosevelt are: (1) To erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt at Washington, the nation's capital, to be a shrine of Americanism for Americans.

denied such knowledge." To the question, often asked, "Can it be conceived that we have no knowledge of a previous existence shall preserve our individualities consciously in a future state?" he would have this answer:

Suppose we were permitted to resume a position at a point of time before the appearance of the earth. By making use of the existing form of inorganic life help us to an imagination of physiological embodiment? Science confesses its inability to answer this question.

To prove that his theory that germs do not cause disease, Dr. H. A. Zettel, electrophath of St. Paul, has challenged an opponent, Dr. E. Frazer, of the office of the Minnesota Public Health association, to a duel to the death with germs.

Angered at President Wilson's opposition to Italy's claim to Fiume, the Italian-born citizens of Middletown, Conn., turned against the democratic candidate at the municipal election, and gave the old city a republican government for the first time in thirty years.

These are the days when the flies hang numb to the ceiling in the morning to be swept to their doom. Those that escape romp in the dining room later as the day warms.

A bargain sale of a whole town is one of the novelties produced by the new Nitre plant. It is estimated that a town of 100,000 people, at 10 per cent of its cost, something should be done toward a cure of rent profiteering.

American girls may suspect that Japanese woman-doctor who says for the romance leading up to American marriages, because Japanese matches are matter-of-fact affairs.

Hogs dropped to $11.80 in Chicago yesterday and the end of high-priced pork draws near. Perhaps the fellows who make ham and bacon will hear of it.

The spectacle of a king paying homage to the memory of a president is enough to make the monarchs of the holy alliance turn in their graves.

A Boston doughnut has been found to have 256 calories, according to a report which has only 189, according to Dr. F. G. Benedict, of the nutrition laboratory of the Carnegie Institute.

Capablanca, the chess champion, is not content with winning one game at a time. At a recent contest in London he took on 40 opponents. The players were lined up in a row and Capablanca moved from board to board, taking in the situation at a glance and making his moves.

The death of Adeline Patti reminds a New Yorker of an incident which occurred in the Dutch town of Maestrict in 1869. He relates it in the New York Sun. As the prima donna of 1869 was at the height of her career the director of the local theater where she was to appear in "Lucia di Lammermoor" for one night only was compelled to pay her a considerable sum, and to reimburse himself with triple the amount.

Abby Scott Baker, representing the national women's party, arrived at the Multnomah yesterday from Washington, D. C., via California. She is in Portland for the purpose of looking into the interests of that organization.

UNITED STATES NOT THE BOSS. League Very Bad Because Other Nations Are to Be on Council With Us. PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—(To the Editor.)—The conclusions in my letter to the Oregonian on the honor to publish October 21 were drawn from the league of nations covenant, viz.: Excerpt, Article 1—Any member of the league may at any time withdraw from the league and its obligations under the covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of such withdrawal.

More Truth Than Poetry. By James J. Montague. A LONG LIFE AND A MERRY ONE. (Statistics from the penitentiaries of the country prove that convicts live much longer than people out of prison.—News item.)

THE FAVORITE STORY. By Grace E. Hall. Sing it to the song bird swinging on the bough, Flash it to the eagle on the mountain crest.

IN OTHER DAYS. From the Oregonian of October 23, 1914. The Oregon Baptist anniversary will be observed by sessions in Portland on the remainder of the week, starting tomorrow at the Second Baptist church.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26. The last heard from him was in the Oregonian under the name of Fred C. Ragan, dated August 30, 1915.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

BARGAINS FOR FRENCH, NOT FOR AMERICANS. More evidence has been produced of the care taken by Secretary of the Interior to protect the market for food and clothing in the United States last spring when prices were mounting.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS. D'Annunzio, Distorted and Misshapen, Has Charming Personality. "An underized little fellow, bald-headed, about 55 years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a long, thin white chin pencil on the right side."

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

PARASITISM. The three main objects of the memorial fund to honor and perpetuate the memory of Theodore Roosevelt are: (1) To erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt at Washington, the nation's capital, to be a shrine of Americanism for Americans.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS. D'Annunzio, Distorted and Misshapen, Has Charming Personality. "An underized little fellow, bald-headed, about 55 years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a long, thin white chin pencil on the right side."

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

PARASITISM. The three main objects of the memorial fund to honor and perpetuate the memory of Theodore Roosevelt are: (1) To erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt at Washington, the nation's capital, to be a shrine of Americanism for Americans.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS. D'Annunzio, Distorted and Misshapen, Has Charming Personality. "An underized little fellow, bald-headed, about 55 years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a long, thin white chin pencil on the right side."

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

PARASITISM. The three main objects of the memorial fund to honor and perpetuate the memory of Theodore Roosevelt are: (1) To erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt at Washington, the nation's capital, to be a shrine of Americanism for Americans.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS. D'Annunzio, Distorted and Misshapen, Has Charming Personality. "An underized little fellow, bald-headed, about 55 years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a long, thin white chin pencil on the right side."

THOSE WHO COME AND GO. "People will certainly howl at the highway commission this winter," predicted Commissioner R. A. Booth.

UNITED STATES NOT THE BOSS. League Very Bad Because Other Nations Are to Be on Council With Us. PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—(To the Editor.)—The conclusions in my letter to the Oregonian on the honor to publish October 21 were drawn from the league of nations covenant, viz.: Excerpt, Article 1—Any member of the league may at any time withdraw from the league and its obligations under the covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of such withdrawal.

More Truth Than Poetry. By James J. Montague. A LONG LIFE AND A MERRY ONE. (Statistics from the penitentiaries of the country prove that convicts live much longer than people out of prison.—News item.)

THE FAVORITE STORY. By Grace E. Hall. Sing it to the song bird swinging on the bough, Flash it to the eagle on the mountain crest.

IN OTHER DAYS. From the Oregonian of October 23, 1914. The Oregon Baptist anniversary will be observed by sessions in Portland on the remainder of the week, starting tomorrow at the Second Baptist church.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

UNITED STATES NOT THE BOSS. League Very Bad Because Other Nations Are to Be on Council With Us. PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—(To the Editor.)—The conclusions in my letter to the Oregonian on the honor to publish October 21 were drawn from the league of nations covenant, viz.: Excerpt, Article 1—Any member of the league may at any time withdraw from the league and its obligations under the covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of such withdrawal.

More Truth Than Poetry. By James J. Montague. A LONG LIFE AND A MERRY ONE. (Statistics from the penitentiaries of the country prove that convicts live much longer than people out of prison.—News item.)

THE FAVORITE STORY. By Grace E. Hall. Sing it to the song bird swinging on the bough, Flash it to the eagle on the mountain crest.

IN OTHER DAYS. From the Oregonian of October 23, 1914. The Oregon Baptist anniversary will be observed by sessions in Portland on the remainder of the week, starting tomorrow at the Second Baptist church.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.

MISSING SOLDIER. LACAMAS, Wash., Oct. 21.—(To the Editor.)—Would be very grateful if you could get an article published regarding Fred C. Ragan, Evacuation Ambulance Co. 26.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. Many more letters are offered for publication on this page than can possibly be accommodated in the space available.