FOREST RECEIPTS $754,000.—Revenue from the national forests of Oregon, Washington and Alaska, comprising this district, amounted to $754,000 during the last fiscal year, according to the report issued by the forest service administrators here. The revenues from the forests are obtained from the sale of timber, grazing permits and special uses. The forest service account for Oregon and Washington was transferred to the Portland branch federal reserve bank on October 6, according to an announcement of H. I. Loving, district fiscal agent. Remittances pertaining to national forest business in Oregon and Washington should be made to the Portland branch bank, it is announced.

EXTENDED SUGAR CONTROL FAVORABLE.—Continuation of government control of sugar for another year to prevent speculation and exorbitant prices will be urged on the Oregon delegation in congress by the Portland Grocers and Merchants' association. E. A. MacLachlan, secretary, Mayor Rowland Marvin, pastor, author, poet, born in Troy, N. Y., September 23, 1847; died in Albany, N. Y., July 12, 1918. His eyes shall see the king in his beauty.

ITALIAN PARTIES PLANNED.—Two Italian parties will be held this week at branch libraries. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the Daughters of the American Revolution will be hostesses to the Italian mothers and babies in Brooklyn district at the Brooklyn library. A musical programme will be given and refreshments will be served. An Italian history meeting will be held at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the South Portland branch. A cordial invitation is extended to all who speak or understand Italian language. The meeting will be conducted in that tongue. Brief addresses will be given by Ottavio Colistro, E. G. Fioralini, William Grano will preside. Signor Fioralini will speak on "Education" and Signor Colistro on "Italian Federation."

FORMER PORTLAND MAN HONORED.—Word was received here yesterday of the erection for the Albany rural cemetery, Albany, N. Y., of a beautiful memorial to Rev. Frederic Rowland Marvin, former resident of Portland and remembered here by many friends as the pastor of the First Congregational church for some years. Mr. Marvin died in Albany on July 12, 1918. The memorial consists of a reproduction of the famous sarcophagus of Scipio, the original now being in the Vatican at Rome. Upon the monument are inscribed the words: "In loving remembrance of Frederic Rowland Marvin, pastor, author, poet, born in Troy, N. Y., September 23, 1847; died in Albany, N. Y., July 12, 1918. His eyes shall see the king in his beauty."

FIRE HOSE PURCHASE DELAYED.—Purchase of 5000 feet of fire hose, required by the fire bureau yesterday at the suggestion of City Commissioner Bigelow, to await the outcome of the special mill tax levy election. According to Commissioner Bigelow, the fire bureau will require considerable additional hose, but with the original now being in the city revenue, no action will be taken until it is known how much money the voters will have. If the voters fail to approve the proposed charter amendment, Mr. Bigelow said that little new hose could be purchased for use next year.

HOSPITAL APPLICATION DENIED.—The application of George W. Deer for a permit to conduct a hospital for the treatment and care of users of narcotics was denied yesterday by unanimous vote of the city council. Several home owners in the district appeared before the council and protested against the permit for a hospital for this purpose in the center of an exclusive residential district. Mr. Deer said yesterday that he probably would seek another location in the city for the proposed hospital.

LIBRARY WORKERS' SCARCITY.—The shortage of library workers is nationwide, and in all of the libraries which were visited by Miss Margaret MacLachlan, head of the information department, of the Portland library, she found them confronting the same problem that is faced by the libraries on the west coast. Miss MacLachlan has just returned from New York, whither she went to meet her sister, Dr. Mary MacLachlan, who had just returned from overseas. Dr. MacLachlan will not return to Portland, but will remain in the east.

SIX CEMENT WITNESSES ON STAND.—Six witnesses were on the stand yesterday in the federal court in the case against R. P. Butchart and Clark M. Moore, president and sales manager of the Oregon Portland Cement service administrators here. The agreement with California and Washington cement concerns to divide territory and fix prices. The witnesses yesterday were: F. M. Wolfe, J. G. Bennett, W. E. Hacker, F. T. Crowe, J. W. Farrington and F. A. Coast. The government contends that conspiracy existed among the cement manufacturers to parcel out the Pacific coast states, for among things that the Washington companies kept out of Oregon and left this field to northern California companies and the Oregon company. The local concern, by the agreement, according to the government, was swayed in its market to this state.

CASES REPORTED NOT INFLUENZA.—Cases of influenza which have appeared in Oregon this fall are not the epidemic type reported to David N. Roberg, state health officer, who has just received replies to queries on that disease sent to physicians in various sections of the state. His queries were sent to physicians who reported cases of the disease following a general breakdown Tuesday night. Mrs. Roberg said that the replies show that some of the cases were not influenza at all, but diseases preliminary to other infectious diseases.

FLORISTS TO CLOSE SUNDAYS.—Whoever would send his sentiment via a bouquet of cut-flowers on Sunday, is advised henceforth to do his floral shopping on Saturday. At a meeting of local florists held last night, unanimous action was taken to close all florists' shops on Sunday, beginning with the next fortnight. Florists say that they believe their employees are entitled to the week-day holiday. The action of the local organization is in conformity with the verdict of the National Florists' association, which met at Detroit in September and enacted a resolution on the subject of Sunday closing of florists' shops.

ACTION ON THEATER SIGN DELAYED.—Action on an application for the erection of an electric sign on West Park and Washington streets was delayed yesterday by the city council until investigation could be made. It is the plan to place the sign across Washington street, directing the public to the location of the theater which is on West Park, between Washington and Alder streets. Mayor Baker said that he favored electric signs as it tended to brighten the city. Mrs. Roberg said that she favored the granting of the petition would set a poor precedent.

THIRTY-SIX SUSPECTS BOUND OVER.—Dan Hudson and John Burns, arrested on a charge of burglary by a post office in the city, were held in custody yesterday by Municipal Judge Ross. Bail was placed at $1000 each. The men were charged with the robbery of the home of G. E. Watts, 555 East Sixteenth street, where they are said to have obtained a quantity of jewelry and a revolver. The inspector took a quantity of jewelry and a revolver from the man's room following the arrest.

BRITISH WOULD HEAR RILEY.—Frank Branch Riley, who will give his famous lecture on "The League of Nations" at the Central Library, Northwest, Friday evening, recently received an offer to take his lecture through England. Every morning brings to Mr. Riley various requests for his lecture to be given before eastern audiences on his next trip east. Mr. Riley's lecture will show many local people beauty spots in the northwest which they probably would seek another location in the city for the proposed hospital.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET.—The 21st annual meeting of the Oregon Historical society will be held next Saturday, at 2 P. M., in room E, second floor of the public auditorium. After the annual reports are submitted, officers for the ensuing year elected and such other business transacted as may be necessary, the annual address will be given by Dr. J. Earl Bates of Forest Grove. His subject will be "The History of Pacific University." Pioneers and the public generally are invited to attend.

POLICEMAN ASLIEP ON BEAT.—After the members of the police efficiency board were informed yesterday morning that Patrolman C. D. Davidson had been found asleep on his beat, the board permitted him to resign. Sergeant Crane testified that he had found Davidson asleep on his beat.

TEACHERS TO HEAR ADDRESS.—Charles B. Stillman, president of American Federation of Teachers, will address the high school teachers after the annual reports are submitted. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the high school teachers' union.

PORTUNE LEFT TO RED CROSS.—A final account was filed yesterday in the estate of the late Charles S. Stillman, of the Portland district, estimated at approximately $20,000 to the American Red Cross.

WHEELER OPTICAL CO. Second Floor Oregonian Bldg. A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND. Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare. In 1835 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form. In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar. This product HORLICK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age. Ask for HORLICK'S—Avoid Imitation.
