

COAST GRANDRAGES TRIANGULAR AFFAIR

Oregon, Washington and Pullman to Decide Title.

TWO TEAMS ELIMINATED

Aggies and California Put Out of Running and Little Chance Is Accorded to Stanford.

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON. Although Leland Stanford Junior University's 14-to-6 victory over Oregon State Agricultural college at Corvallis Saturday was the biggest surprise dished up as a result of play in the Pacific coast intercollegiate conference, the 26-to-0 score piled up on Whitman college by the University of Washington at Seattle caused fans all along the circuit to sit up and take notice.

Two eleven that looked mighty good on paper were eliminated in the race for the coast title. Stanford is to meet the best eastern college team at the Tournament of Roses, Pasadena, Cal., New Year's day. They are the Oregon Aggies and the University of California.
