BANK DELEGATES HOME—More than 650 delegates attended the national convention of the American Institute of Banking in New Orleans, October 7, 8 and 9, is the report of T. F. Dunn of the United States National bank, A. T. Matthews of the Bank of California, National Association, and A. L. Fraley of the Northwestern National bank who represented the Portland chapter. T. H. West of Ladd & Tilton bank was also a member of the party, being a member of the national executive committee. The institute has a nation-wide membership of more than 35,000 bank men. Interesting details of their activities will be told the local chapter at an informal reception to be held tonight on the eighth floor of the Oregon building. The principal speaker will be E. G. Crawford, vice-president of the United States National bank.

SPECIAL SPRAY COURSE—Because of an insistent demand by men who are in the auto repair business, the Y. M. C. A. has put on a special course in sanitation, starting and fighting, and this will open tonight in the "Y" automobile school at Sixth and Main streets. It is a course for men who are engaged in the automobile business and have had considerable experience in repair work. The course will cover 10 weeks and the class will meet two times each week. R. L. Simmers, shop superintendent for a large Portland firm, is the instructor. A special certificate will be issued to each man whose attendance and work is satisfactory and who passes the final examination.

WILLIAM SCHOTT DEAD—William Schott, merchant of Tekon, Wash., passed away Sunday at his home after an illness of several months, according to word received by relatives here. He was 51 years of age and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Schott. Mrs. Schott is a sister of Mrs. A. C. Schott, wife of A. C. Schott, president of the Northern Grain and Warehouse company, and of Lee Boyer, secretary-treasurer of the Northern Grain and Warehouse company. Mr. Schott was prominent in Masonic circles in his section. The body will be brought to Portland for burial.

FINES GO TO NURSERY—The bottle at the police station that contained the petty fine which will be turned over to Mrs. R. E. Bondurant for the nursery fund of the Pacific Coast Remedy and Protective society and when the money was counted it was found that the babies were better off by the sum of $45.05. Sergeant Tully and Lieutenant Lewis of the force have been much interested in the cause of the nursery. Mrs. Bondurant declared that the society hopes to have its plans drawn up and ready to start building in about two weeks.

ROOSEVELT'S MEMORY HONORED—In memory of Theodore Roosevelt the Oregon Republican club held a luncheon and meeting at the Oregon hotel yesterday noon, with a large number of prominent local republicans present. Charles H. Lockwood, president of the club, acted as chairman of the day, and appreciative addresses on Colonel Roosevelt were given by E. Solis Cohen, William D. Fenton and Arthur I. Moulton. A number of Roosevelt's favorite songs were sung under the leadership of Walter Jenkins.

PAVING BIDS TO BE CALLED—Multnomah county commissioners yesterday decided to advertise for bids for the paving of the east approach to the Burnside bridge. A hard-surface will be laid at a cost estimated at $2783.24. To redneck the bridge with wood blocks would cost about $2743, according to estimates considered by the commissioners, and would not be as satisfactory. Planing would cost but $2000, but would last not more than a year, it was figured.

AVIATOR'S ESTATE $15,000—Edward Everett Wilson, aviator, who was killed in Tacoma, Sept. 11, left an estate in Multnomah county valued at $15,000, according to a petition filed in the circuit court yesterday by his brother, Sinclair Albert Wilson, executor. He is survived by a mother and three brothers, Mrs. Annie Jane Wilson, Sinclair Wilson, David McK. Wilson and Charles E. Wilson, all of Linton.

VIOLIN RECITAL TONIGHT—An important musical will be Robert Louis Barron's first violin recital of the season, which will take place tonight in the ballroom of the Multnomah hotel. Mr. Barron was formerly director of the violin department of the University of Oregon and since his arrival in this city has played at a number of recitals with success. His piano accompanist is Miss Ida May Cook.

SHORT WEIGHT IS CHARGED—For offering butter weighing 14.95 and 14.90 ounces to the pound, instead of the required 16 ounces, J. L. Woodlawn, dealer in dairy produce at the public market, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by E. L. Melton, deputy food and dairy commissioner. "Short-weight butter is a very common method of profiteering," remarked Mr. Melton yesterday. "A merchant can afford to charge less if he is dealing out a product two or more ounces under-weight and it is difficult to detect the fraud at time of purchase."

JOB QUIT FOR FISHING—Which is the more lucrative profession, that of expert machinist or fisherman? Fred B. Barreau quit a $50 a week job to go to southwestern Oregon and fish, asserting that he found more money in fishing than in a machine shop, according to Amy A. Barreau, who filed suit for divorce in the circuit court yesterday, on grounds of cruelty. Blanche Gilbert filed suit for divorce from Jack Gilbert yesterday on grounds of desertion.

ROTARIANS TO HEAR BARBER—Commissioner A. L. Barber will address the Portland Rotary club at its noon luncheon today in the crystal room of the Hotel Benson, on the necessity of the additional two-mill tax measure which will be presented at the November election. The navy programme, previously announced, has been postponed and will be held at an early date.

LIVINGSTON LOSES SUIT

Court Holds Trust Company's Water Franchise Perpetual.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The decision of the United States district court of Montana holding that the Montidah Trust company of Livingston, Mont., held a perpetual franchise to operate the waterworks of that city was affirmed by the United States circuit court of appeals here today.

Bonds to build a municipal water plant valued at $225,000 were recently issued at Livingston, and the city declared the Montidah company's franchise vacated. The Montidah company asked for and received an injunction restraining the city from asserting any claim over its plant. The circuit court's action, in effect, makes the temporary injunction permanent.
