

LANE'S DRIVE QUOTA ASSURED AT START

Model Method Used in Roosevelt Memorial Campaign.

10 CITIZENS SIGN PLEDGE

Personal Responsibility to Raise Fund Assumed—Work of Mrs. W. W. Calkins Praised.

A plan adopted by Mrs. W. W. Calkins of Eugene, chairman of the Roosevelt memorial drive for Lane county, to insure the complete subscription of the local quota and to expedite the attainment of the goal, has received warm praise at state headquarters.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN.

Roosevelt Memorial Committee, Judge Jacob Kaizer, Multnomah county chairman, Press Club, Elks' Building, Portland. Dollars I desire to give... Cents...

The Roosevelt Memorial association has been organized to raise a $5,000,000 fund to be utilized as follows: (1) To erect a monument to Theodore Roosevelt in Washington, D. C.

Lane county, is a model in method for those to follow who take up patriotic or public activities," said Edgar E. Poirer, state campaign manager.

Union Comment Makes Progress.

From Union county came a message from Bruce Dennis, county chairman, advising that a large part of the local quota had been raised by purely voluntary subscription and asking if an active personal campaign should be launched to clear away the remainder.

Campaigns Not Relaxed.

"Two counties which have already established their Americanism in patriotic drives," said a headquarters official, "are Clatsop and Umatilla—both extremely active in the memorial tribute to Colonel Roosevelt."
