MASCOTT-PAUL BOUT TO BE HARD FIGHT

Denver Bantam Arrives for Wednesday Battle.

OLD RIVALS CONQUERED

Billy Mascott, Western Bantamweight, Signed to Meet Clever Fighter—Weight Is Reached.

When Billy Mascott, king of the western bantamweights, climbed through the ropes with Harry Paul the Denver bantam, who arrived here yesterday, at the Helix theater next Wednesday night, he will face one of the best little fellows of his weight this side of the Mississippi.

Professionals Are Met. Shortly after being proclaimed bantam champion of Colorado, Paul decided he would take a whirl at the professional boxers who were invading Denver and placing himself under the direction of Jack Kanner, he was started in an 8-round go with Jack Bratton, one of the hardest hitting little fellows that every donned glove holding him to a draw.

After standing Bratton off for eight sessions, Paul was paired off against Jack Doyle, George Brannigan and many of the smaller fry about Denver, Boulder, Trinidad, Albuquerque and Las Vegas, N. M.

He had started in some 40 battles when Jack Kanner decided to match him with Jack Douglas, one of the toughest bantamweights in the business. After jumping this hurdle, Paul was mated with Joe (King) Leopold and suffered his first setback, but immediately regained his last prestige, for he obtained another go with Leopold and had little trouble in winning the award over the boy, who has battled Pete Herman, Kid Williams and every other bantam of note in America.

Benny Chavez, that crack Mexican bantam, was the next opponent of the little fellow who has been called Mascott. Denver fans were of the opinion that Paul was being rushed too fast, but he upset the boy and Chavez as well. Following his match with Chavez he took on that great little St. Paul bantam Mike Ertle three times.

Jack Doyle Stopped. After his go with Ertle, Paul stepped over to Boulder last Monday night to battle Jack Doyle, a rival of earlier days, in four rounds. The little visitor is already down to the required weight, and as he had done considerable fighting of late, feels that he will need but little training before entering the ring with Mascott.

Harry Paul was instructed by Jack Kanner to tell Benny Chavez that he expects to use Joe Gorman in one of his future bouts at the stockyard stadium with some eastern star in the near future. It is known that

Evans had been dickering with eastern promoters for some time and that he planned on making a tour of the middle west with Mascott, Gorman, and one or perhaps two other northwest boxers, and the information from Denver leads to the belief that Evans has progressed further with his plans than he has led any one to believe.

As Joe Gorman is slated for the main event for November 19 with some good Californian, it is likely that Evans and his two stars will be the home-town folks adieu shortly after that date if both of his proteges win their coming bouts.

It seems that the matchmaker of the Bend, Or., boxing commission is having his hands full in obtaining boys to meet in their headlines. Bend is perhaps the best boxing city in the entire outside of Portland, and as the fighters draw well, should have no trouble in getting good boys to go up the benches, even if they are willing to allow the boxers a fair share of what they draw at the gate.

Ray Rivers, the California lightweight, no relation to Joe Rivers, who has been boxing in the west for the last four or five years, has been matched to box Gene Delmont in Arizona the latter part of November.

Sammy Gordon, the clever Portland bantamweight, has been matched to fight George Thompson at Tacoma on November 11.

The dates of the respective hearings have not yet been set. Attorney-General Brown today received a copy of an indictment against N. C. Hanson, charged with unlawful filing in Tillamook county, together with a request for an opinion as to whether the case should be appealed. Following the returning of an indictment against Hanson, the attorneys for the defendant filed a demurrer to the complaint on the grounds that it did not constitute a cause of action, and the contention was sustained by the trial judge. In his letter to the attorney-general, L. H. Goyno, district attorney of Tillamook county, said the judge was in doubt as to whether the facts connected with the case were sufficient to warrant trial, and a legal opinion on this question is sought.

Clatsop county and Astoria are endeavoring to protect their property in their history, according to Sam A. Koser, assistant secretary of state, who returned to Salem today after a two weeks' vacation. On his way home Mr. Koser stopped over in Portland, where he visited his friends and relatives. He was accompanied by Mrs. Koser.

Newton VanDalsen, in charge of vocational training in the Oregon schools, returned here today after a couple of days spent in Portland conferring with educators of that city. Mr. VanDalsen says competent teachers are in great demand throughout the state, and because of the low wages paid in this line of industry, many of the instructors are engaging in other activities.

Joseph L. McAllister, assistant secretary of the desert land board, left for Portland today, where tomorrow he will marry Miss Alma Haines, a prominent young woman of that city.

A carpenter can make a piece of furniture that may look well and last for years. But the furniture that we prize most, the pieces that have been handed down through generations as heirlooms, is the work of real cabinet makers—men who knew wood, how to season and work it according to the grain, and how to join it so the joints would hold.

So good clothes are the product of good tailors—STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES, the product of the best tailors. Every operation, from the shrinking of the woolen to the fastening of the buttons, is the work of an artist in his special field—each doing his bit for the ultimate accomplishment of the perfect whole.
