

REPUBLICANS WIN
BATTLE IN CONGRESS

Governor is Re-elected With Large Plurality.

KENTUCKY VOTE SURPRISE

Morrow, Republican, Elected Executive — Party Reported
Leading in Maryland.

(Continued From First Page.)

Theodore Roosevelt, who, following his father into public life, was sent to the assembly from New Jersey, was elected by a large plurality.

Ohio and Kentucky. The only two states holding elections yesterday in which prohibition was a direct issue, both enrolled themselves in the army of voluntary abstinence, on the face of partial returns tabulated at midnight.

More than half of the state reported. Secretary of State Smith predicted it would be found Ohio had voted dry on all four prohibition proposals submitted to the voters and that the majority would be approximately 75,000. One of these proposals was offered in the form of referendum on the 18th amendment to the federal constitution. Another proposal also a referendum dealt with the prohibition enforcement act adopted by the state legislature. The other two proposals were constitutional amendments touching on prohibition.

Kentucky Goes Dry.

In Kentucky it appeared that the state-wide prohibition had been carried by a large majority.

In New Jersey, which was one of five states holding gubernatorial elections, prohibition was an indirect issue. Despite the assertion of State Controller Newton Boardman, a republican candidate for governor, that prohibition was an accomplished fact because it is incorporated in the federal constitution, Senator Edward I. Edwards, the democratic candidate, made it an issue by declaring that he will use all the legal machinery of the state to make New Jersey "as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

While the result of the New Jersey gubernatorial election was in doubt early today, Edwards was leading his opponent by 17 votes. This, however, was being increased sharply as returns poured in from democratic strongholds, the last to report.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The state committee (official) gives for Governor: Coolidge, republican, 317,765; Long, democratic, 193,614.

The vote for Coolidge was the largest ever received by a candidate for governor in this state.

The "law and order" slogan of Governor Coolidge, based upon his stand against the striking Boston policemen, brought out a heavy reserve republican vote.

The democratic also worked hard to bring the voters to the polls, with the result that the total vote was one of the largest in this state.

Returns from 677 precincts out of 974 from 21 cities and towns out of 353, outside of Boston, indicated that Coolidge, 185,138; Long, 92,065.

Other Republicans Elected.

In Boston Long's plurality of nearly 19,000 last year was cut to less than half that of Coolidge.

Fred J. Burrell, republican candidate for state treasurer, and the other nominees were elected by a vote were elected by large pluralities.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 4.—Edwin F. Morrow, republican, today was elected governor of Kentucky, over Governor James D. Black, democrat, by a large majority.

Jefferson county, including Louisville, completely republican, gives Morrow, republican, the majority majority of 9058. The same county two years ago gave Stanley, democrat, a majority of 4657.

Black's defeat conceded.

Morrow's majority is estimated at from 18,000 to 20,000. Haynes Carter, personal manager for Governor Black, in a statement made at Black's defeat by from 8000 to 10,000.

Unofficial returns from eastern Kentucky, where it was expected that the democratic nominee would cut normal republican majorities, showed Morrow holding his own and in some cases exceeding it.

In the western end of the state there was a considerable falling off of democratic normal majorities. While in Jefferson county the republican candidate not only overturned a majority of 4657 for Stanley, democrat, two years ago, but turned it into a republican victory by approximately 8000.

Prohibition Probably Won.

Figures on the two constitutional amendments seemed to indicate that the state-wide prohibition amendment had carried by a large majority. Tabulators had few figures on the amendment which would remove offenders who failed to protect prisoners from mobs.

The issues in the campaign were local.

During the campaign Governor Black made speeches favoring the league of nations. Mr. Morrow was silent on the subject, but his managers, in published statements, asserted he opposed it.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The result of today's election in Maryland was in doubt at midnight. With less than one-half of the city of Baltimore heard from, Attorney-General A. C. Ritchie, democratic nominee for governor, was leading his republican opponent, Harry W. Nice, state attorney of Baltimore, by about 1000 in Baltimore city.

Returns Not Definite.

Based on these figures the democrats were claiming that Mr. Ritchie would carry Baltimore by about 1200. Few definite returns had been received from the counties, however, and it seemed probable that the result would not be known for several hours.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 4.—Nebraska voters today selected 100 delegates to the state constitutional convention which meets in Lincoln the first Monday in December. All the candidates ran on a non-partisan ticket, and there was less interest, the only issue being an alleged effort by the non-partisan league to elect enough members of that organization to control the convention.

Returns indicate there will not be to exceed 20 non-partisan league delegates, perhaps not half that number.

In Lincoln interest centered in propositions of the city to take over the street railway company under municipal ownership and to issue bonds for municipal extensions of the water and lighting plants. Early indications were that the bond propositions carried.

PARADE PLEASSED AT TRAY STATE

Democratic Leaders Desire Defeat in Massachusetts.

COAL STRIKE INVOLVED

Re-election of Governor Coolidge Viewed Indorsment of Firm Policy in Miners' Walkout.

PORTLAND INDUSTRIES ELECT PERMANENT OFFICERS.

Robert H. Hughes Heads Organization Aiming to Employ Waste Materials to Relieve Needy Ones.

ALDERMAN VOTE CLOSE

Hearst Attack on Governor Smith Conceded as Factor in Result of Gotham Balloting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Tammany Hall apparently went down to defeat in the municipal election today.

Three of its candidates for the supreme court bench seemed to have lost.

With returns lacking from 223 districts out of 948 in the first judicial district, Justice J. E. Newburger, who was denied a renomination by the democrats and then placed in the field by the republicans, had 125,713 votes while Irwin Untermyer, 33 years old, his opponent, had 83,071. Major Philip M. Black, the other anti-Tammany candidate, had 107,326 and Justice Robert L. Luce 94,193.

Squires Leads Dowling.

In the second judicial district with today the police, William H. Squires, republican, had 124,564 and George S. Dowling, democrat, 110,323.

An official count probably will be necessary to determine whether Robert L. Moran, Tammany candidate, or R. H. La Guardia, republican nominee, has been elected president of the board of aldermen.

With 123 districts missing at 12:48 A. M., Moran with 350,000 votes was leading by 300 votes. The election of the republican candidate for justice of the supreme court in the first and second judicial districts apparently was assured.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

GRAFT CASES ABANDONED

OAKLAND POLICEMEN TO BE RESTORED TO POSITIONS.

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 4.—District Attorney Ezra W. Decoto abandoned the graft cases today.

The cases involved former Chief of Police John H. Neederman, former Corporal Thomas O'Neill and David Cook, indicted as an alleged racketeer, together with several other officers and men.

It was announced by the commissioner of the police force, from which the officers were dismissed in Decoto, making his motion for a final judgment, that he had found it "impossible to obtain a jury sufficiently sympathetic and disinterested to obtain a fair and impartial trial."

He was arrested for impersonating a naval officer.

His arrest was followed by a search for a yacht and his uniform with wound and service stripes and told me if I didn't wear it, she'd leave me.

Joy was taken to a police station at the instance of a naval intelligence officer. He is 20 years old.

MARRIAGE HELD FORCED

Young Japanese Woman Seeks Divorce, Among Others.

There was no conversation touching on matrimony, no agreement or arrangements for marriage prior to the nuptials in the case of Michiko Kawahara and Genjro Kawahara at Vancouver, Wash., October 23, 1919, declares the young Japanese woman in a suit filed in the circuit court yesterday seeking annulment of the marriage.

For the first time since he has been in the White House, President Wilson was unable to go to his home in Princeton, N. J., to cast his ballot.

Secretary Tumulty said the president was "in fine shape" this morning and would be permitted to receive the election returns, "provided they are good."

The house of representatives was not in session, having recessed so members from states where elections were being held could return home, the senate however, conducted its discussion of the peace treaty.

GERMANS ANSWER DEMAND FOR VESSELS SOLD TO HOLLAND.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 4.—Germany has replied to a note intimated yesterday that she would be willing to accept the surrender to the allies and associated powers of German ships held in Germany.

German ships held in the Netherlands and which are at present in German ports, Germany offers to arbitrate the question.

"We are ready to submit," says the German note, "an arbitral decision based on an agreement between the allies and associated powers and the Netherlands, even should this decision be contrary to our views."

TAMMANY LOSES IN NEW YORK CITY

Three Judicial Candidates Seem to Be Beaten.

ALDERMAN VOTE CLOSE

Hearst Attack on Governor Smith Conceded as Factor in Result of Gotham Balloting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Tammany Hall apparently went down to defeat in the municipal election today.

Three of its candidates for the supreme court bench seemed to have lost.

With returns lacking from 223 districts out of 948 in the first judicial district, Justice J. E. Newburger, who was denied a renomination by the democrats and then placed in the field by the republicans, had 125,713 votes while Irwin Untermyer, 33 years old, his opponent, had 83,071.

Major Philip M. Black, the other anti-Tammany candidate, had 107,326 and Justice Robert L. Luce 94,193.

Squires Leads Dowling.

In the second judicial district with today the police, William H. Squires, republican, had 124,564 and George S. Dowling, democrat, 110,323.

An official count probably will be necessary to determine whether Robert L. Moran, Tammany candidate, or R. H. La Guardia, republican nominee, has been elected president of the board of aldermen.

With 123 districts missing at 12:48 A. M., Moran with 350,000 votes was leading by 300 votes. The election of the republican candidate for justice of the supreme court in the first and second judicial districts apparently was assured.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

TAMMANY LOSES IN NEW YORK CITY

Three Judicial Candidates Seem to Be Beaten.

ALDERMAN VOTE CLOSE

Hearst Attack on Governor Smith Conceded as Factor in Result of Gotham Balloting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Tammany Hall apparently went down to defeat in the municipal election today.

Three of its candidates for the supreme court bench seemed to have lost.

With returns lacking from 223 districts out of 948 in the first judicial district, Justice J. E. Newburger, who was denied a renomination by the democrats and then placed in the field by the republicans, had 125,713 votes while Irwin Untermyer, 33 years old, his opponent, had 83,071.

Major Philip M. Black, the other anti-Tammany candidate, had 107,326 and Justice Robert L. Luce 94,193.

Squires Leads Dowling.

In the second judicial district with today the police, William H. Squires, republican, had 124,564 and George S. Dowling, democrat, 110,323.

An official count probably will be necessary to determine whether Robert L. Moran, Tammany candidate, or R. H. La Guardia, republican nominee, has been elected president of the board of aldermen.

With 123 districts missing at 12:48 A. M., Moran with 350,000 votes was leading by 300 votes. The election of the republican candidate for justice of the supreme court in the first and second judicial districts apparently was assured.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for Mayor Hylan and there has been no break between them, although the city administration has remained at peace with the reformer.

The socialists had predicted that James F. Neill, socialist candidate for alderman, would poll more votes than Morris Hillquit did in the majority contest in 1917, but they failed to substantiate their claim, although he had 112,241 in 2310 districts out of 2657.

The democrats conceded that one factor in the judicial election was the hearing of the "W. G. Hearst" upon Governor Smith and the Tammany candidates.

Hearst is believed to have secured a majority for