

CHURCH CALLED ON TO DOOM THE RADICALS

Rev. Gill Outlines Duty in Labor Crisis. ... Evangelical Churches of Oregon Are Represented at Sessions in Oregon City This Week.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Declaring that the church could awake to the need of aiding the solution of industrial problems today, Rev. R. S. Gill, of Portland, addressed before the state conference of Congregational churches here today.

There are two elements, he declared, "the radicals and the conservatives. The former is represented by Reds and that class which believes in the destruction of property and an overthrow of government. We must draw a strict line of demarcation between these two elements. It is the duty of the church to help in every way the conservatives, those who are seeking to better themselves by peaceful means. And it is the obligation of the churches and church people to combat the obstructionists."

Ministers' Duty Shown. The church, he said, passed a great many good resolutions bearing upon an industrial situation, but resolutions never followed up with any constructive, active work. It was the task of the minister, he pointed out, to bring before the people of his church the full realization of the tremendous problems that confront the country. In this way the church people could be enlightened as to these problems, and thus clear the way for possible adjustments.

Rev. Arthur J. Sullens, state superintendent of home missions, spoke of the progress that is being made in the inter-church movement. He gave an illustration of the full realization of church conditions in Montana. Many cases of overlapping churches were pointed out, and he stated that a conference of national and state denominational leaders, neglected churches, he said, were placed in the care of one or the other of the denominational bodies. Speaking of the action of the National Council of Congregational churches to raise $5,000,000 among churches of the country, he said that the money will be used for religious work at home and in foreign fields. Educational institutions, he stated, would come in for a large share of financial aid.

Women elect officers. Rev. Robert Fry Clark of Pacific university, moderator of the church, went upon the need for a greater cooperation between the church and university, in an address at the morning session.

The following officers were elected by the Oregon Woman's Home Missionary union: Mrs. A. J. Sullens, president; Mrs. W. H. Handwerker, first vice-president; William McElven, second vice-president; Mrs. O. E. Avery, third vice-president; Mrs. Whitcomb, fourth vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Blair, fifth vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Doane, corresponding secretary; Miss Grimshaw, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. M. Coley, secretary of literature; and Mrs. P. Powellson, auditor.

silver. Her veil was of tulle held in place with a coronet of point lace and she carried lavender orchids. Mrs. Larratt Worthington Smith as matron of honor was gowned in orchid colored chiffon trimmed in silver lace and carried Ophebia roses.

Women's Activities. IT was the most artistic programme of the Council of Jewish Women ever has presented. This was the verdict pronounced by the many women who attended the meeting of the council held yesterday in the B'nai B'rith hall. Mrs. Henry William Metzger arranged the afternoon's features which included some beautiful tableaux representing famous women in Israel.

Do You Look As Young As You Feel? MAYBE because you feel fine you fail to notice as others do the little lines stealthily forming in your face. Take care of your skin now. Just try this simple formula—

CREME ELCAYA. A little CREME ELCAYA does a great deal. It is a skin cream, a skin softener, a skin beautifier. It is a skin cream, a skin softener, a skin beautifier. It is a skin cream, a skin softener, a skin beautifier. It is a skin cream, a skin softener, a skin beautifier.

The Beauty of The Lily can be yours. Its wonderfully pure, soft, pearly white appearance, free from all blemishes, will be comparable to the perfect beauty of your skin and complexion if you will use GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream.

The older the tea-leaves, the more heavily they are loaded with tannin. Tannin is sharp, puckery, hard on the digestion. You don't want that, do you? The young, tender tea-leaves, have the most real tea flavor, and almost no tannin.

That's the tea you want—the cup that cheers, invigorates. Schilling's is that fine tea and it costs only 1/3 cent per cup. It is the cheapest drink next to water.

SHINOLA HOME SET makes the daily home care of shoes a matter of seconds. Genuine bristle dander cleans around soles and applies polish thoroughly.
