CONTRACT VIOLATION CHARGED

Frank and Marie Colfelt and Alfred Mauz entered into a contract to sell for $5000 timber on a tract of land in Deschutes county on which a $12,000 mortgage was held by a Eugene bank, according to the complaint of the Deschutes Lumber company in a suit filed in the circuit court yesterday.

TRUCKS COLLIDE; ONE MAN HURT

A. H. Harding, an employee of the Union Oil company, suffered a wrenched back and general bruises yesterday when a Union Oil truck on which he was riding collided with a truck of the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company at Twenty-second and Thurman streets.

WHO NEEDS THIS MAN?

Business men frequently complain that it is hard to secure the services of men who are energetic, reliable and competent. I can prove that I answer these qualifications, but have still found it impossible to secure satisfactory employment since being discharged from the army.

THIEF OF BOOKS ALLEGED

J. A. Casto, 536 Front street, yesterday swore out a warrant charging Marvin L. Pardee with larceny. Pardee, who has been making his home with Mr. Casto since his discharge from the army, is said to have taken five textbooks belonging to Mr. Casto's son and to have sold them at a second-hand store.

FIRE STARTS ON ROOFTOP

Two joints of stovepipe tied together with a piece of cloth caused a fire in the New Star Restaurant, 206 Burnside street, about 3:30 yesterday afternoon. Fire Lieutenant Robertson estimated the damage at $50. The cloth attaching the two joints of pipe first caught fire and this was communicated to the wall of the place and a lively fire was in progress when the fire department arrived.

"BARNACLES" LECTURE TOPIC

"Barnacles" is the subject of a lecture to be given tonight in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. by Byron J. Clark, under auspices of the association service department. In another section of the lecture "Y. M. C. A. to be formed tonight and any wishing to join this feature will be welcomed.

PUR TRAPPING BEGUN

Pur trapping in Oregon will be done this season more extensively than ever before, it is anticipated by State Game Warden Carl D. Shoemaker, who says that high prices will be a special inducement. Already 618 licenses have been issued and this is probably less than half of what will be sent out this winter.

AUTOBYS BLOCKING STREET FINED

War was declared yesterday on motorists who persist in parking their machines in such a manner on Second street between Oak and Pine streets as to block the entrance to the fire house there. Police Sergeant Ervin arrested two drivers who were fined by Municipal Judge Rosman. John Hazlett was fined $5 and Harry Schmidt $2. Sergeant Ervin said a great deal of trouble has resulted from blocking the entrance to the fire house and that in future such offense would result in arrest.

Grand Jury Waits on Harvest.

HOOD RIVER, Oct. Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Because of the rush of apple harvest, Circuit Judge Fred W. Wilson, here yesterday to convene the grand jury, postponed the regular session of trial court called for next Monday until Monday, December 1. As Judge Wilson points out, most of the jurymen are orchardists now engaged in the bushest harvest they have ever had.

Thrifty Spending

Many people have the idea that THRIFT means keeping your money. Thrift means spending your money wisely, and getting full value for it. Thrifty spending makes wealthy people.

But—thrifty spending does not mean spending for unnecessary trifles; it means saving with some big object in view, and when that object is achieved, starting in again.

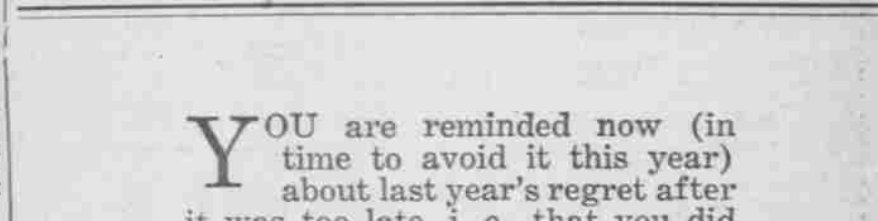

There is where the home savings bank comes in; two varieties may be gotten at this bank; one for dimes alone; the other like the illustration, for all coins, and bills also.

The monthly Thrift Letter issued by Ladd & Tilton Bank sent to you on request.

No safer way to invest your saved dollars than in a bond obtained through the Bond Department of this bank.
