DIOGESE SESSION CALLED

EPISCOPAL CLERGY AND PAR. ISH CHAIRMEN TO MEET.

Consideration of Nation-Wide Campaign Scheduled for Wednesday; Bishop Sumner to Speak.

Decision to call a conference of all clergy and parish chairmen in the nation-wide campaign of the Episcopai church was made yesterday by the diocesan committee of the Ore-gon diocesa meeting in a session spe-cially called by the Right Reverend Walter T. Sumner, bishop of Ore-The conference was called for next Wednesday. It will last all day and will culminate at a public mass meet-ing at the Pro-Cathedral of St. Stephen the Martyr that night, when there will be present the massed choirs of all the churches in the Arrangements are being made for three stirring addresses in which the nation-wide effort of the church and its every-member canvass will be pre-diocese to be addressed by Bishop Sumner only.

The diocesan committee at its meeting reviewed the progress of the campaign to date and expressed a general approval of the work that had been carried on. Bishop Sumner presided and told of the effect on the general conference at Detroit of the nation-wide campaign.

LOS ANGELES MAN TAKEN

ERNEST STOCKDALE ADMITS OFFENSE IN SOUTH.

Charge of Forgery Is Made Here, and California Officers Want Him on Similar Count.

When Ernest Stockdale was taken to the police station by Inspector Horack yesterday on a charge of forgery he encountered Inspector Pat Moloney, said to be the best man in the department for identifying men Moloney regarded Stockdale a mo-

'You are Stockstill," declared the inspector, "wanted in Los Angeles for forgery."

Stockstill, according to inspectors, "wilted" and admitted the charge.

Stockdale is said to have attempted to purchase an automobile from G. N. nith, Third and Glisan streets, with check for $400 on a Los Angeles bank. Mr. Smith communicated with the Los Angeles bank and discovered that the check was no good, he says. Stockdale is said to have purchased an automobile in a similar manner from a Los Angeles man, giving the name of Stockstill. The inspectors found on his person a number of checks, some of them made out. Stockdale said he was a chauffeur and 28 years of age.

He declared he was operating and would continue to operate as the resuit of a too severe sentence he had received in the Arizona state peni-tentiary a number of years ago, ac-cording to inspectors. He said he was given a five-year sentence for a minor offense and at that time resolved that

BEGGAR MUST GO TO JAIL

Policeman Gives 25 Cents and Makes Arrest on Vagrancy Charge. Vernon Brandwick, 19-year-old beg-gar, who begged 25 cents from In-spector Morack Wednesday night to buy something to eat, received a day sentence in municipal court yes terday. After Morack had given the quarter he arrested Brandwick on a vagrancy charge.

At the police station the inspector discovered that the boy had a quantity of imitation diamonds which he had apparently intended to sell, bill with the diamonds showed that had purchased them for $1.75 a

BOND HEARING SOON DUE

Supreme Court Advances Multno mah Case to November 21.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)— The case brought by C. A. Pullen et al. against school district No. 3 of Multnomah county to concel $20,000 worth of bonds issued by the district and sold to Koeler Bros., and to restrain the district officials from levying an assessment to meet the obl gations resulting from the sale of the bonds, has been advanced on the supreme court calendar, and will be heard November 21. The action was originally tried in the circuit court of Multnomah county, where it was held that the bond proceedings were

It was charged by the plaintiffs that the defendants conspired to issue the bonds by falsely reciting in the records made by the school election board and school district that the bonds had been authorized by a majority of the voters.
