

2000 PLATING STOCK SHOW NEWS

Exhibit Opens With Entries From All Over Northwest.

OREGON IS REPRESENTED

Premiums Totalling $4000 Will Be Awarded; Canadian Stock Also to Be Shown.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Nov. 9.—(Special.)—The 11th annual Northwest livestock show, which opens today with 75 carloads of cattle, horses, sheep and swine entered.

The exhibit is the largest and finest ever seen here. It includes exhibits from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, California, Illinois and all northwestern states.

Of the total of $40,000 in premiums, $20,000 will be awarded in this department, $11,000 for beef cattle, $6,000 for horses, $1,000 for swine and $2,000 for sheep and goats.

Many Districts Represented.

Among the cattle entries are: Herefords, H. Chandler, Baker, Or.; Edwin Benson, Cleveland, Idaho; Holsteins, Footfalls Farm, Carlton, Or.; Inter-mountain, Insular, Eastern, Western, Short-horns—G. W. Delaney, Hot Lake, Or.

Parishion horses—A. R. Hunter, Island City, Or.; S. Metz & Sons, Pendleton, Ore.

Clydesdales—J. E. Reynolds, La Grande, Or.

Swine exhibitors include: L. S. Ott, Filer, Idaho; C. P. Crains, Hermiston, Or.; W. L. Shepard, Dayton, Or.; Roy Fox, Lyons, Or.; T. B. Clark, Dayton, Or.; Emil Lee, Silverton, Or.; Ed Schell, Albany, Or.

Sheep entries: From School, Albany, Or.; L. T. Edwards, Kimberly, Idaho; I. G. Shubard, Mendocino, Or.; Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis.

The programme began with a sacred concert by the navy band and Salt Lake quintet.

Two thousand persons inspected the exhibits. Stock-judging teams from the agricultural colleges of Idaho, Montana, Washington and Oregon arrived today, and also the high school teams from the best of Oregon.

The teams will compete in the stock-judging contests.

The programme tomorrow will include a concert and an address by Harry Hiseham of Spokane on "Present Social Conditions and Our Responsibility." The schedule for the rest of the week will be as follows:

Tuesday—Armistice day celebration, patriotic concert, address by Governor Davis, American Legion banquet in honor of the governor in the evening, to be followed by grand livestock parade.

Wednesday—Judging of stock continued, concert, address by Northwest Short-horn breeders' sale, and address by Governor Hart in afternoon.

Thursday—Judging of stock, cattle breeders' sale, judging of stock, band, quintet, concert.

Friday—Swine and sheep sales, concert, annual banquet at night with F. S. Randall as toastmaster and five-minute talks by prominent dealers and business men. There will be other entertainment features as well.

GOVERNORS ARE TO BE FEED

Lewiston Plans to Entertain Two State Executives.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Arrangements are being made for the entertainment of Governors D. W. Davis of Idaho and Louis F. Hart of Washington.

Lewiston soon to attend the livestock show. Governor Davis will give an Armistice day address at the stock pavilion on the evening of the 11th and will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the American Legion. Governor Hart cannot be here for this occasion, but will arrive in Lewiston on Nov. 12.

The Clarkston (Wash.) Chamber of Commerce will assist in entertaining him.

Sixty-five carloads of stock arrived yesterday from Spokane, where the animals were exhibited at the West-coast Royal Livestock show.

Swine and sheep are also arriving from other points in the Inland Empire.

APPLE SPECIAL DELAYED

Hood River Shippers Have Difficulty in Obtaining Cars.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—D. W. Sullivan & Co., who expected to dispatch a special train of box cars of apples, equipped with heaters and accompanied by attendants, to the coast last week, have now received but 12 cars. These have been fitted with insulated floors and false walls and have been loaded. The company expects to receive additional rolling stock this week and plans on routing the special train soon.

The Apple Growers' association, which had planned a special box car train of 45 cars last week, is now loading all available rolling stock into this class for distribution in California and other southern points.

LOGGERS LEGION MEETS

Newberg Celebrates 100 Per Cent Membership With Programme.

NEWBERG, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—On Wednesday evening the members and friends of the Local Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen met to celebrate the 100 per cent membership of the local legion.

The main speaker of the evening was Colonel Abbey, manager and secretary of the local legion.

Protection of Roads Proposed.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—At a meeting held in the office of County Judge W. M. Bushey here Saturday plans were discussed whereby overloading of trucks traveling over the county highways may be stopped. Judge Bushey said overloading of the trucks will damage the roads and that unless the situation was abated the taxpayers would be forced to bear a considerable expense in making repairs. Definite action will be taken at another meeting to be held within the next few days, according to Judge Bushey.

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

Thomas McPhan, who plays the role of Tom Burke, the leader of an underworld gang in "The Miracle Man," now in its second week run at the Majestic theater.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES People—Bryant Washburn, "Why Smith Left Home," "Sirand—Tom Mix, "The Speed Maniac," "Liberty—Neil Shipman, "Back to God's Country," "Columbia—Marguerite Clark, "Lunch in Paris," "Majestic—George Loane Tucker, "The Miracle Man," "S&W—Crawford, "Hal and Yvonne Drive," "The 13th Chair," "Sunset—Douglas Fairbanks, "Headin' South," "Circle—Lillian Gish, "True Heart Susie."

W ITH houses every bit as full as when the picture first opened, George Loane Tucker's "The Miracle Man" is now well under way in its second week's run at the Majestic theater.

Acting that in its very simplicity is magnificent and a theme that is both spiritual and open to the appreciation of all make this production one of the best seen in Portland in recent months.

There is nothing spectacular about the production. The cast is comparatively small. The scene is no more wonderful or unusual than hundreds of other pictures one might see.

It is the story that is the feature of this picture. It deals with a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself. It is a story of a man who is equally true to no one except to himself.

NEW WORLD ENJOYED BY HERMITS

Koss Boys, 9 and 10, Learning Speech for First Time.

WORDS OF SAVAGES USED

Brothers Taken From Isolated Hut Amused, by Electric Lights; Brains Found Normal.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—When someone knows today at the University of Washington that Herbert Koss, 10, and Elmer Koss, 9, were in the hospital here, a discussion of the case led to a suggestion that philologists or others interested in the science of linguistics make a study of the boys.

The children, say the physicians and nurses who have examined and studied them, simply have never been taught to speak. Their hearing is good, their vocal cords are normal, and Dr. D. A. Nicholson, expert on mental conditions, declares them possessed of brains of normal size and of ordinary potentialities.

Father Is Eccentric.

The father, who is more than 60 years old, is an eccentric individual, who speaks only when compelled to, and the boys were reared by a sister who is said to be deaf and dumb.

The mother lives some miles from Ballard, a logging town in the Green river valley, and the Koss hat lies across Green.

Three years ago Mr. Burrows first learned of the children. Occasional letters were received from the mother and father, but they were never permitted to visit the house.

Recently it became known to him that the children were normal, and then under the law that permits the county to assume authority for the care of neglected children, he was brought to Seattle.

Following examination at the school clinic by Dr. Ira Green, the children were sent to the orthopedic hospital and will remain there under care and instruction until such means of final disposition has been found.

Children Like Hospital Life.

Residents about the district at Ballard, where the children were first taken, have warned persons to go away and threatened to shoot them if they encroached upon their premises.

He makes his living from his garden and by his gun, it is said.

The children are having a unique, and so far as can be learned, "glorious time." They seem to have no fear of anything or anyone.

Electric Lights Amuse.

Electric lights mystified the boys and a globe gave them much amusement. Elmer appears interested in anything mechanical and a spring-operated donkey held his attention for several days.

Herbert already knows his name and will repeat a single word, but appears to be unable to master two words in succession. In queer gutturals, not human in tone, he repeats slowly and distinctly "boy" and "daddy" and "good," followed later with "bye."

The photographer's flashlight amused the boys and they clapped their hands and communicated with each other in some queer, quick sign language.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

EDGAR S. PAXSON DIES

NOTED WESTERN LIFE PAINTER-SUCCESSORS AT MISSOULA.

"Custer's Last Fight" One of Best-Known Works; Early Career Marked by Indian Wars.

MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 9.—Edgar S. Paxson, Montana pioneer, Indian fighter and distinguished as a painter of western life, died at his home here today after an extended illness of several months.

He was nearly 68 years old.

"Custer's Last Fight" was perhaps the best work of Paxson's paintings. Another was entitled "From the High Plains They Watched the Tide of Emigration." He painted his pictures largely to depicting the American Indian and historic incidents connected with the Indian and pioneer life.

He took part in the Nez Perce war of 1877-1878, served 10 years in the Montana national guard, rising from private to second lieutenant, and was a first lieutenant in the First Montana infantry at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war.

He had been in feeble health for several months. His death came as a shock to those who had known him intimately for more than a quarter of a century.

Mr. Paxson's final illness was due to an accident which occurred on a shipboard while he was returning from service with the colors in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war.

Mr. Paxson was born in East Ham-burg, N. Y., April 25, 1852, receiving his education in a local school house and later for a year at the Friends' institute. He married Laura Millicent Johnson in 1874.

He began his career as an artist with a painting in Deer Lodge, Mont., four years later.

At a meeting called by Mayor G. McNell, a five-member committee was headed by the mayor. Other members are Rev. Arnold B. Derfield, secretary; T. E. Brockhaus, E. H. Davies and W. Jenkins.

The committee will have charge of all coal delivered in Prosser during the shortage.

Preparations for handling the crowds who will be here to attend the Pacific International Livestock exposition, which opens today, are being completed by the housing committee and by the association of hotel men organized to receive the delegates.

Large hotel will have 10 smaller hotels in its charge and when its own buildings are completed convey patrons to the smaller ones.

Letters are being sent to all persons who have been invited to the Rose Festival visitors and others and a plea is being made to public spirited citizens to rent rooms.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

MILL TOWN HAS PASTOR CASCADE LOCKS TO OPEN COMMUNITY CHURCH.

Rev. G. L. Tufts, Prohibition Leader, to Conduct Services; All Denominations Are Welcomed.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—The residents of Cascade Locks have established a community church and have called Dr. G. L. Tufts, local rector and known throughout the state as a prohibition leader, as their pastor.

Although the town has a population of from 500 to 700, it has had no regular pastor for the last year. Two church buildings have been erected there, one constructed as a community church, but used until last year by the Methodists.

The new community church invites the attendance of all denominations of Protestants, and Catholic communicants, as well.

Mr. Tufts, who has been in Hood River for several years, has shown us that all religions have their good points. Closer contact of the different faiths, he believes, has taught us that we are all pretty good fellows working toward the same end.

With Manager Ellsworth of the Wind River Lumber company co-operating with those promoting the new church, Dr. Tufts' plans have been initiated for establishing a boys' club at the mill town.

PROSSER SHORT OF FUEL More Than 20 Families Reported Wholly Without Coal.

PROSSER, Wash., Nov. 9.—(Special.)—More than 20 families here are without coal as a result of the shortage and the number is growing daily. None of the local dealers received a supply last week and although all have orders placed, nobody knows when the situation will be relieved.

Should some relief come there would be much suffering.

At a meeting called by Mayor G. McNell, a five-member committee was headed by the mayor. Other members are Rev. Arnold B. Derfield, secretary; T. E. Brockhaus, E. H. Davies and W. Jenkins.

The committee will have charge of all coal delivered in Prosser during the shortage.

Preparations for handling the crowds who will be here to attend the Pacific International Livestock exposition, which opens today, are being completed by the housing committee and by the association of hotel men organized to receive the delegates.

Large hotel will have 10 smaller hotels in its charge and when its own buildings are completed convey patrons to the smaller ones.

Letters are being sent to all persons who have been invited to the Rose Festival visitors and others and a plea is being made to public spirited citizens to rent rooms.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

The sign language, according to the nurses, is not the ordinary "deaf and dumb" alphabet. Instead it seems to be an improvised sign language.

There were, it is believed, six children in the family. Four of the children, Mrs. Burrows thinks, were boys, and two were girls.

Profiting by PROSPERITY

IN THE 17 days—October 17th to November 5th—363 new Savings Accounts were opened in the Savings Department alone of the Northwestern National Bank, making the total number of Savings Accounts carried here on that date—13,604.

We're aiming to increase that total to 15,000 by January 1st—and thus better the prosperity of that many more depositors.

Northwestern National Bank

Northwestern Bank Building Portland, Oregon

Delta Delta Delta, national women's sorority, who has returned after completing war work in France, will come soon to Eugene to make her home. She will bring her mother and sister.

Does catarrh ruin your appetite?

Is your breakfast spoiled by a hacking cough, a stuffed head and a bad tasting mouth? Start the day right with a clear head and a wholesome breakfast. Kordon's has helped thousands and should do the same for you.

Advertisement for Kordon's Catarrh Jelly, including a list of distributors and a coupon for a free trial.

MINISTERS HOLD MEETING

Portland Congregationalists Gather With State Delegates.

A special meeting of the Portland Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers was held at Oregon City in conjunction with the state meetings.

Four More Popular New Records

- List of new records including "Sahara" (We'll Soon Be Dry Like You), "Nobody Knows", "Carolina Sunshine", "Golden Gate", "The Hand That Rocked My Cradle Rules My Heart", "My Baby's Arms", "When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget", "Weeping Willow Lane".

Sherman, Clay & Co

Sixth and Morrison Streets, Portland (Opposite Postoffice) SEATTLE-TACOMA-SPOKANE