TIMBER NETS $2,000,000

CALIFORNIA TRACT INVOLVED IN PORTLAND TRANSACTION.

One of Largest Deals of Year Consummated by Manistique and Tionesta Companies.

One of the largest timber deals of be year was consummated in Port-and last week, when the Manistique umber company and the Tionesta imber company, both firms conrolled by eastern capital in which cortland men are interested, sold a pody of 70,800 acres of timber in northern California to the Pickering and & Lumber company of Kansas

The territory involved in the deal was craised by the firm of Brown & Brown of Portland and an estimate of 1,000,000,000 feet of timber, mostly sugar pine and California white pine.

was returned. The consideration thus averaged $2 a thousand feet. A. Pickering, the executive head ng the property and closing the deal he company operates extensively in outsiana and Texas, but is obtainapid exhaustion of the middle west-chased is adjacent to the Pitt river and probably will be milled from klamath Falls, Or. A branch line of railroad will be constructed, it is tated, when the new owners are and, while the remainder of the stock is held by eastern capitalists. J. E. Wheeler was out of the city last night, and L. R. Wheeler declined to state the extent of the interests of the Wheeler family in the transaction, although admitting that a block of the other than the safe state to the wholes of the content of the conten tock of the company making the sale
