REV. A. BEERS HONORED.
While in Chicago at the executive board meeting of the Free Methodist church, Rev. Alexander Beers, former pastor of the First Free Methodist church in Portland, was chosen to serve as superintendent of the world's evangelistic campaign on the Pacific coast.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE.
First Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city announces three free lectures on Christian Science, by George Shaw Cook, C. S. B., member of the board of lecturership of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass. Lectures to be delivered in First Church edifice, corner of Ninth and Everett streets, Sunday afternoon, November 16, at 2 o'clock, and on Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 17 and 18, at 8 o'clock. Doors open one half hour before the lecture. The public is cordially invited to be present.

WOMAN HELD AS MOONSHINER.
Mrs. M. J. Conroy was held in the federal grand jury yesterday as an alleged moonshiner following a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Frank Bell on motion of Assistant United States Attorney Roames, Everett N. Lowther, an alleged accomplice, admitted nothing to do with her operations and was in no way connected with her alleged whiskey manufacturing.

T. A. WOODRUFF TO APPEAR.
T. A. Woodruff, former Southern Pacific special agent who was convicted of the theft of $25,000 in goods from trains enroute in interstate commerce by a federal jury Thursday, was granted two weeks in which to perfect an appeal to the circuit court when he appeared yesterday for sentence. On motion of United States Attorney Goldstein his bond was increased to $25,000 pending the appeal.

WITHOUT A PLACE TO SLEEP.
This may be the case with a number of people that are planning to attend the Pacific International Livestock exposition, if the citizens of Portland do not help and co-operate by listing their vacant rooms in their homes. Call the housing bureau at the Liberty temple and list your room, Main 212. Comfortable rooms at reasonable prices requested.

LEAGUE TO HEAR GRAND OPERA.
The programme of the Oregon Civic League at the Benson hotel at luncheon at 12 o'clock today includes two musical numbers by the Portland Grand Opera association. "The Duke," from Lucia, Frank Branch Riley will talk on "Industrial Prosperity in the East." The doors will be closed during rendition of the musical numbers.

AWARDED $2400 FOR INJURIES.
Elizabeth Helmick, who was injured in an elevator in the Corbett building when the boiler in the basement of the structure exploded last March, received damages of $2400 by verdict of a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Gantenbein yesterday from E. R. Corbett, Hamilton F. Corbett and Henry L. Corbett. She asked $25,000.

MILWAUKEE GEORGE TO MEET.
A home-coming meeting of the Milwaukee grange will be held all day today at the grange hall. The afternoon session will be open to the public. Mrs. Edith Toxier Weathered will be one of the principal speakers. Pioneer members of the grange from all parts of the state will attend the session.

STOCKHOLDER ASKS MANDAMUS.
With the assertion that he believes the Washington-Idaho Water, Light & Power company is being mismanaged, W. H. Wehrung filed a petition for a writ of mandamus in the circuit court yesterday by which he demands a right to examine the books of the concern. The action is filed against A. Welch, general manager, and A. Prichard, assistant secretary. Wehrung also asks a writ of mandamus compelling Prichard, secretary of the Knappton Electric company, to allow him to examine the books. The petitioner claims to be a stockholder in both companies.

EXTRADITION TO BE ASKED.
Andro Pelipenko, arrested in Sacramento, Cal., on an indictment charging larceny by bailer will be returned to Portland for trial. Extradition papers were prepared by Deputy District Attorney Dempsey yesterday and Deputy Sheriff McDonald will leave tomorrow. Pelipenko bought an automobile from the Marlen automobile company, making one payment and leaving the city, it is charged.

MAXIMUM PLAN TRIP.
The Mazamas will make a trip to Bull Run-Aims tomorrow under the leadership of Harry Wolbers. The party will leave First and Alder streets at 8:45, buying round-trip tickets to Bull Run, from which place they will follow a circuitous course through Aims, toward Walker's prairie and back to Bull Run. They will return to Portland on the train leaving at 5:30 P. M.

RICHARD FOSTER IS ARRESTED.
Richard Foster was arrested at Fourth and Salmon streets yesterday by City Inspectors Morak and Coleman charged with larceny by embezzlement, on a warrant sworn out by his employer, Conrad Weldenkelter. According to the complaint of Mr. Weldenkelter Foster embezzled $140.75 with which he was intrusted. Foster put up $500 bail.

MISSING PERSON.
S. P. Pickett, colored, 549 Pettygrove street, failed to appear in municipal court yesterday to answer to a charge of larceny and consequently forfeited $10 bail. Pickett was charged with taking gold from the Willamette Fuel & Supply company and hauling it to his home in a wheelbarrow. Warrant for his arrest was signed by George N. West of that company.

WOMAN LOSSES $100 AT MARKET.
Mrs. E. Irvin of the Wheelodan apartments reported to the police yesterday that she had lost her purse containing about $100. Mrs. Irvin said that she laid the purse down at left 411 in the Yamhill market and left it all night. She belongs to S. Tokota, who told the police that two women took the purse and walked off.

VERDICT CHANGE ASKED.
A motion to amend a technical flaw in the $61,740 verdict received by Spokane county in its suit against the Pacific Bridge company was filed in the circuit court yesterday supported by the affidavits of jurors. The original verdict did not have the word "hundred" written in where the amount of damages was spelled out.

VERDICT OF $1000 GRANTED.
Stacy S. Potter, 19-year-old boy, who while playing was run down by an automobile truck of the East Side Transfer company, received a verdict of $1000 damages from a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Bell yesterday.
