FADIST TRENCH OF SCHOOLS CRITICISED

Low Teaching Wage Blamed for Unsound Doctrines.

EASTERN EDUCATOR HERE

Dr. A. E. Stearns, of Phillips Academy, Declares Problem is Vital to Future Generations.

Patriotic Americans must take notice of the influence of public schools and other educational institutions of the United States as to the results of low wages for instructors and must remedy conditions if they wish to save the future generations from unsound doctrine being inculcated in the minds of pupils...

"Small pay for teachers, Dr. Stearns pointed out in detail to those present, has driven out the old-style patriotic, sound American-principled teacher and has permitted to be installed in their stead a new type, many of whom have no special ideas of Americanism and large numbers of whom are mere fads, desiring only employment of themselves merely for a while...

"In the years gone by," said Dr. Stearns, "the teacher was expected to join a labor union, would have been insulted. They would not have listened to such an appeal. They were of the type who taught because they felt it to be a patriotic duty and their teachings were along sound American lines...

"Small pay, however, has finally worked to the disadvantage of righteous Americanism and to the advantage of the socialist, anarchistic-inclined person, and at the present time in many of our public schools and our higher institutions of learning we find that the old type of patriotic man and woman instructor has been replaced by agitators, who are using their high positions to poison the minds of their pupils by the teaching of unsound, dangerous ideas, many of them brought over from the old world...

Dr. Stearns came to Portland yesterday morning in the interests of his own academy, which, by the way, is one of the oldest endowed boarding schools in the country, that 9000 graduates throughout America and is just now interesting them and their friends in an effort to obtain $1,500,000, the major portion of which is to be used in increasing the pay of its teaching staff and the balance to be used in a memorial to the 33 gallant boys who gave their lives for the cause of freedom during the world war...

Dr. Stearns was entertained by local men, ex-Phillips boys. He is one of the foremost educators in the United States and has made a special study of the problems now confronting the country along the lines upon which he talked yesterday. He left last night for Seattle.

Sherman R. Hall, chairman of the local district for the Y. M. C. A. drive, presided at the luncheon. Already $500,000 of the total amount has been pledged.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—"Bill" Brennan, Chicago heavyweight, outclassed Andy Schneider of Omaha to such a degree in their scheduled six-round bout tonight that the referee stopped it in the fourth round.

Too much Turkish or Just enough Turkish?

of cigarettes per day, they can cut down on the proportion of Turkish in each cigarette. smokiers so kindly. The Turkish is so perfectly "balanced" by the other tobaccos in the blend that Fatima smokers never have any worry about smoking "too many."

THEY can do this by switching from straight Turkish to part Turkish, or "Turkish blend," cigarettes. The first Turkish blend cigarette ever made—and the one which has always held first-rank importance—is Fatima.

Perhaps this is the main reason why so many smokers of straight Turkish cigarettes keep switching to Fatimas.

DOES not Fatima's record seem to prove that this is the one cigarette containing just enough Turkish? Not too much nor too little Turkish, but just enough. Make a test for yourself.

Lightly and gracefully.

Contains more Turkish than any other Turkish Blend.

Day in Harness 40 Years. Joe Day, acting night captain of inspectors, yesterday celebrated the 40th anniversary of his debut as a policeman.

"Don't Cheat Yourself" says the Good Judge. There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobaccos lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through. Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.

THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW put up in two styles. RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco. W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco. Weyman-Dutton Company, 1107 Broadway, New York City.
