

P. M. BRANDT HEAD OF DAIRY COUNCIL

O. A. C. Department Chief Succeeds O. D. Center.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD

Edith Knight Hill, Re-elected Secretary, Reports on State Educational Work.

P. M. Brandt, chief of the dairy department of Oregon Agricultural college, was elected yesterday as president of the Oregon Dairy Council.

Professor Brandt fills the place on the board made vacant by the resignation of O. D. Center, director of extension at the college, who went east recently to reside.

R. L. Sabin was re-elected vice-president; F. L. Shull, treasurer, and Edith Knight Hill, secretary-treasurer. The election took place at the annual meeting of the council held in the Multnomah hotel.

Educational Work Shown

The secretary's report showed a large amount of educational work done in co-operation with the state superintendent of education, J. A. Churchill; the Oregon Parent-Teacher associations, the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, the home economics instructors, the principals, grade teachers, the agricultural college, Miss Ava E. Milam of Oregon Agricultural college, Miss Lillian Tingle of University of Oregon, Dr. David N. Rogers of the bureau of health, Dr. D. W. Mack of the Portland bureau of health, the dairy and food commission, the press and many other organizations and individuals of prominence.

The council, with the co-operation of the schools, is making a milk survey in the schools of the state, and in some towns it has been found that 20 per cent of the children are not getting milk in their diet. The follow-up work of the survey is done by means of lectures before parent-teacher and club meetings and through articles in more than 100 newspapers of the state.

The members expressed their satisfaction at the amount and character of the work. The council has two booths at the Pacific-International livestock show, and after the luncheon and business session of the show, all motored out to the show.

Music Is Rendered

After the election during the morning session, Miss Marnie Helen Flynn, pianist, and Albert Giletta, harpist, contributed some exceptionally fine musical selections. Professor George Bulkeley, director of the Pennsylvania state college, and A. M. Work spoke on the value of educational and extension work as a means of helping to make Oregon famous as a dairy state.

In the council's exhibit at the exposition there is one particularly feature showing the ingredients in milk that is most attractive to the visitors.

Among those who were delegates to yesterday's council meeting were W. K. Newell and K. O. Rice of Mount Angel; R. E. Cavett and C. P. Hulegaard of Eugene; W. K. Taylor, J. W. Quinn, P. O. Powell, J. D. Mielke, E. B. Fitts, P. C. Deckebach and P. Kinser of Seattle; E. G. McCoy, A. M. Work and A. F. Bird of Seattle; D. W. Mack, George S. Bulkeley, W. R. Cole and Wayne Dawson of Albany; A. N. and Ira Steigerwald and M. S. Schroek of the Dairyman's league; F. L. Shull and R. L. Sabin. Representatives were J. E. Dunne, George Weatherly, Monroe & Crissell, the Portland Flouring Mills, the Portland National bank of Newberg and several others.

ROAD WORK IS OUTLINED

COOS ADVISORY COMMITTEE CONSIDERS BIG PROGRAMME.

Matter of Proposed Bond Issue of $1,200,000 to Be Submitted at Meeting December 5.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—The Coos county advisory committee—in face of a vigorous organization, but leading citizens from the various road districts throughout the county, appointed by Judge C. R. Wade and the county court, to work out plan of road betterment—has concluded a tentative disposition of the proposed bond issue of $1,200,000, to be presented to another general meeting of advisory members and residents of the various districts to be held on December 5. The matter of how the question shall be placed before the people of the county has not yet been determined. In order to facilitate road construction, it will be necessary to vote at a special election that the bonds may be sold and the money made available for 1920.

DRIVES LOSE SCHOOL AID

Lewis County Officials Opposed to Wartime Practice.

CHERHALL, Wash., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Lewis county school principals and the superintendents of the various consolidated districts are opposed to further use of the public schools as an avenue for conducting various drives, according to resolutions recently passed. Red Cross and thrift campaigns are not barred, but the general plan that was worked out during the war, of using the organization of the schools over almost any kind of a drive, is to be halted.

BODY IS FOUND IN SNOW

Spokane Man Falls Over 50-Foot Precipice and Is Frozen.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 19.—C. R. Cobb, driver of a milk wagon in Spokane, who left on a hustling trip Monday, November 10, was found frozen in the snow Monday 11 miles from Orient, Ferry county. Cobb has been missing since last Wednesday and searching parties had been looking for him. He had fallen over a 50-foot precipice and it is believed he became so crippled he was unable to make his way back to the cabin of a trapper whose place he had left on Tuesday.

Fund to Aid Ex-Soldiers

SALEM, Or., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—In a legal opinion given by Attorney General Brown Governor Olcott is advised that when the condition arises the state emergency board will have authority to authorize a deficiency fund to care for the claims of ex-service men receiving benefits under the so-called soldiers' sailors' and marines' educational aid bill passed at the last session of the legislature.

Posthouse Request Approved

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Dr. E. E. Straw, city health officer Monday insisted at the city council meeting on having the posthouse renovated and placed in condition for the acceptance of patients. The council decided that one instance of prevention was worth the cost of maintaining a posthouse.

Officers Elected for Fair

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Stockholders of the Walla Walla stock and agricultural fair Monday elected James A. McLean president and F. J. Aldrich vice-president. These men, with the following, were elected members of the board of directors: H. H. Marshall, J. K. Paxton, H. H. Hanson, Dr. H. A. Trippier and Robert Lee. These directors will choose their secretary and treasurer.
