

THE officers and ladies of Vancouver barracks will be hosts for a reception and dance this evening. A number of Portland people will motor over to Vancouver to attend.

Mrs. John Leader of Eugene will be in town this week end, the guest of Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Lacey Johnston, who has been the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Smith, will leave today to spend the winter in southern California.

The musical and social world is looking forward to the opening performance of "Marilyn," to be given by the Portland Opera association at the city auditorium this evening. The MacDowell club and the Monday Musical club have selected whole blocks. There also will be many fine parties. This is the sixth year of the Portland Opera association and much of its success is due Mrs. L. E. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feldman announce the birth of their second daughter, who will be named Elise Caroline.

This morning Dr. George Rebec will give the third of his lectures, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., at the First Presbyterian church house, at 11 o'clock. This morning Dr. Rebec will speak on "The Secular Spirit in Morale."

The young women of the Altar Guild of Piedmont Presbyterian church will give an entertainment, with refreshments this (Friday) evening at the church, corner Jarrett street and Cleveland avenue. Pleonous. Several surprises are said to be in store for those attending.

The O. W. R. & N. Employees' club will have its November dancing party this evening at Cotillon hall. The affair will be informal. The committee in charge is George F. Kock, chairman; Misses Raymond, Herbert, Edna Hupp, Irene Gray, Audrey Gentry, Ruth Smith, Amy Clum, Myrtle Holton, Ann Herman, Julia Smith, Elizabeth Ritchie, Catherine Muchnick, Mrs. Theresa C. Dupuy, Mrs. N. M. Kinard, Marie Tydman, Bertha Morris, R. W. Birgfeld, Joe N. De Brauwere, L. W. Hobbs, Charles Hofeloff, Ralph Lacey, Frank Laubach, James W. Petham, H. H. Swint, George D. Schade and Lloyd Buckow.

Junior members of the Portland Heights club will enjoy a party at the clubhouse tonight. Dancing starts at 8:45. The patronesses are Mrs. H. W. Bates, Mrs. C. C. Overmire, Mrs. E. E. Hendershott and Mrs. H. G. Thompson.

The Acme Social club, I. O. O. F., will give its opening dance and card party this evening at Masonic temple, West Park and Yamhill. All Oddfellows, Iobekahs and their friends are invited. Praps's orchestra will provide the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Windler, 1002 East Sixteenth street, South, will give a smart homecoming party on the arrival of a baby girl, born armistice day.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Irene Strawbridge and Harold E. Wheeler, which will be a smart homecoming party at the home of the bride's parents in Irvington. Miss Strawbridge will be attended by Mrs. Charles C. Petheram (Virginia Wilson) as matron of honor and Edwin Strawbridge, brother of the bride-elect, will be best man. Tomorrow the bride and groom will entertain with an informal sewing tea in honor of Miss Strawbridge.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Miss Anne Raymond, visiting delegate from Delta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta at the University of Boston, spent the past week as the guest of the local chapter. She was the honor guest at the founder's day banquet last Tuesday.

The annual co-ed ball was an event of Friday evening. It was held in the men's gymnasium, which was decorated with fir trees for the occasion. The upper class women acted as escorts to the freshmen. There were songs, dramatic sketches, and several readings, and Miss Wanda Rosenstock of Manila, P. I., sang a group of songs.

The color scheme of orange, carried out in such a way as to suggest Thanksgiving, was noticeable in the programmes which were on golden colored paper, and in the refreshments. Patronesses were Dean Mary E. Fawcett, Dean Ann B. Millam, Mrs. Ida A. Kiddle, the Misses Helen Lee Davis, Edna A. Cook, Laura E. McGaugh, Helen McPaul, Norma Olsen, Sarah L. Levan, A. Grace Johnson, Sybil Hadwin and Mrs. Katherine Haight.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained with a pan-hellenic dinner last Thursday evening. Those present were Dean Mary E. Fawcett, Miss Anne Raymond of Boston, Thelma Dykes, Raymond Holme and Bernice Haynes, all of Portland; Marian Barnum of Medford, Ruth Steele of Creswell; Helen Hobson of Grants Pass; Deldre Carney of North Powder; Lola Freeman of Central Point; Emma Beals and Grace Smith of Corvallis.

The informal dance to be given Friday night, November 21, at Vancouver barracks, will be in the Red Cross community house at the barracks.

Mrs. James O'Brien was a charming hostess for dinner at the Benson hotel last night, followed by a box party at the horse show, in compliment to some of the out-of-town people who are here for the show. Mrs. O'Brien's guests included Mayor and Mrs. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pierce, Mrs. J. A. Cranston, Mrs. P. J. Flinn, Mr.

WOMEN, SAVE $10 BY DRY CLEANING

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home. You can dry clean, brighten and renew children's coats, suits, caps, wools, sweats, lawns, organdis and children dresses, ribbons, satins, lace, silk, waxes, draperies, rugs—everything that would be ruined by soap and water.

Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or wash boiler, put in the things to be cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new.

Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. No pressing needed. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap with directions for home dry cleaning costs little at any drug, grocery or department store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.—Adv.

JUDGESHIP IS IN DOUBT
E. V. Littlefield Mentioned as Successor to C. U. Gantenben.

No inkling is being given by Governor Olcott as to the man he has in mind to fill the position in the circuit court caused by the death of Judge C. U. Gantenben. Among lawyers it is rumored that E. V. Littlefield may be the appointee. Judge Littlefield was on the bench when Judge Gantenben stepped off to go to the training camp at the Presidio. When Judge Gantenben decided to return to Portland, Judge Littlefield surrendered the place to him according to an agreement made with Governor Withycombe. There is also some doubt whether Judge Littlefield would accept as he has re-established his law practice.

Others mentioned as possibilities are W. M. Davis, who was the choice of several of the circuit judges for judge of the court of domestic relations; John C. Shiloh, J. J. Crossley and John McCourt, former United States attorney. Walter H. Evans, district attorney, is among those discussed. Mr. Evans has not decided whether to be a candidate for reelection and has intimated that his candidacy was dependent on developments. It is rumored that Mr. Evans has an ambition to be on the bench. Judge Littlefield would accept as he has re-established his law practice.

The Land of Last Chance
By G. W. OGDEN

A NOVEL of really epic proportions. The theme is the opening up to settlement of the last great reservation of the West.

How the city of Victory arose overnight on the plains, how people savagely defended their claims against the "sooners," how good men and bad men played politics, makes a strong story of growth and American initiative. Price $1.50.
