The American people find their Interests as a nation in danger and themselves in an unenviable position in the eyes of the world through refusal of the senate to ratify the German treaty. The primary cause is President Wilson's refusal to compromise with those senators who were anxious to ratify, provided cerhim to break it. Nor should there be any long delay in ratification, for the condition of the world and of .. is too critical to permit it. The presi- nition, dent must bend his stubborn will and admit that some wisdom and patriotism is to be found in the mafority of the senate as well as in him-

Abstracts of Title. BROWNSVILLE, Or. Nov. 29.—(To the Editor.)—Does an abstract in any manner affect the title to property? An abstract is found to be defec-tive in that a certain transfer propery recorded on the county records, and been omitted. Can not the holder of the abstract make the necessary correction and the instrument be jus-as valid as though the correction had been made by an abstractor? H.C.

An abstract is but a condensation of official records and is essentially othing more than a letter of infornation. The title is not affected by missions from the abstract and these omissions may be supplied from the official records by anyone.

Unmasking the Real Trotzky-Arch

Hypocrite and Sybarite What manner of man is Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik leader of Russia? Is he humble as peasants are, dressed in rough garb and content with simple food and quarters? Not on your radical life, he isn't! In The Sunday Oregonian, with illustrations, is a special article written about the real Trotzky, posseur, by one who has just returned from Russia. Diamond-studded paper cutters, golden inkwells and other appurtenances of great wealth, surround this simple proletarian, whose table manners are as dainty as those of a hippopotamus. Read this. WHY I SOLD MY BABY-There isn't a mother, a genuine, yearning soft-eyed mother, who would part with her baby for any consid-Arises a chorus of agreement. Yet one girl widow, facing life alone, sold her baby for $10,000. The pathetic story of this bargain, and the drama that led to it, is told by Barbara Craydon, special staff writer, in the Sunday issue. Before the world condemns this pitiful little mother it ought to read her story. WHERE DID YOU THROW YOUR $20?-Americans are princes of extravagance and waste, says DeWitt Harry in a feature article appearing in tomorrow's issue, with illustrations. For example, every person in Portland tosses away $20 each year. That's what the junkmen say, who reap this crop of folly and become wealthy in the harvest. The estimated annual junk crop of the city is $8,000,000 annually, Mr. Harry discovered when he poked around the dingy salvage areas of First and Front streets. THE PRINCE OF WALES AS A LANDLORD-When your favorite dramatist a score of years ago sought to depict the depth of titled usury in landlordism, the duke, the earl, and all the rest of the noble brood were invariably referred to as "grinding." Times change. They say that the Prince of Wales is the most considerate of landlords, and that he collects rents on the basis of fairness rather than on the extent to which the tenant can be gouged. White blackbirds are plentiful by comparison with this peculiar case. In the Sunday issue, with pictures. THE "ROCKER," NEW DANCE OF THE SEASON-This latest word in waltzes, likened to a breath of fresh air after the somewhat hectic dances of the past few years, is described in the magazine section of the Sunday issue, with illustrations showing the steps, by Arthur Murray. The rocker waltz is a combination of pivots, twinkling steps and hesitation steps. It is some dance, say those who have tested it, and the special story in tomorrow's paper will lend light to those who haven't. CHAMPION STOCK FROM THE BIG SHOW-Space in the Sunday issue will be devoted to photographs of champion livestock, prizewinners in the various classes at the Pacific International Livestock exposition, held this week. The blue ribbon animals, whose blood tells in the bank account, will all be there; as regal as royalty.

WOMEN'S FEATURES, SCHOOLS, CHURCHES AND BOOKS-Here is a newly assembled feature section of The Sunday Ore-gonian, combining all the news of women's activities with the gossip of church and school, and with a page devoted to book reviews. Its appearance is in response to the steady growth of these departments and the section is replete with informative value.
