Alcohol Nearly Kills Three.

THE DALLES, Nev. 21.—(Special.)—Half crased and nearly dead from drinking denatured alcohol, three itinerants last night were given first aid treatment and later escorted out of the city by Patroiman McClasky.

Two of the men were entirely "out" when found in a back room of a Botel. One of the drinkers was in such a pitiable condition that the services of a physician were required to save his life. The men were all in a dazed condition, but as soon as they were able to walk they were ordered out of the city.

BAR TO ATTEND FUNERAL

$4 left and nearly 4000 miles from home. I passed The Oregonian office once or twice, debating what I should do, and then I went in and paid $50 cents to have an ad inserted in the paper of the following morning. Then I passed about the unhappiest night of my life. Next morning about 10 o'clock I went down to see if there was any good news; nothing had been heard. At noon I went in and received the same answer.
