

RECORD LIVESTOCK SHOW THIS YEAR

Large Attendance Expected to Mark Finale.

EXHIBITS KEPT IN PLACE

Entire Proceeds of Special Auction of Products on Display to Be Given to Red Cross.

What is generally conceded to be the best exhibit of purebred livestock ever assembled in the Pacific northwest...

That the present livestock show has gone more than any other one event to mark the Pacific International Livestock exposition...

Eastern States Have Entries.

The best of the stock world from many states east of the Rockies have pitched their wares against the Pacific coast herds...

Crowd in Holiday Mood.

The entire crowd at the pavilion all day yesterday was in a holiday mood. Show officials were happy because of the success in the judging rings...

Official Programme Closed.

The official programme of the western dairy products show was brought to an official close by the termination of the classes in dairy judging...

Special Auction to Be Held.

Several special auctions will be held today at the Red Cross. The auction of various classes of cattle which was to have been held earlier in the day...

DRAFT HORSE AWARDS MADE

A. C. Ruby of Portland is Winner of Grand Championship.

Official awards in the draft horse department, including Percherons and Shires, were announced yesterday by the judges...

Percherons.

Stallion, 4 years or over—First, Shelby, owner A. C. Ruby, Portland; second, Dimes, S. Metz & Sons, Pendleton, Or.

Shires.

Stallion, 4 years or over—First, Wilson, 1001 W. R. Leadbetter, Alton, Or.; second, Lucifer, A. C. Ruby, Portland; third, Carrie, J. H. Anderson, D. A. Brakeman, Ontario, Or.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS SUBSCRIBE TO SHOW

$4250 to Reduce Indebtedness, Given at Banquet.

300 ATTEND DINNER

Minnesota Stock Judge Urges Coast to Take Part in National Meeting at St. Paul.

Amid great enthusiasm, which testified to the unequalled success of the 1914 Pacific International Livestock exposition, Holstein breeders of the northwest last night reduced the indebtedness of the association by $4250...

While the banquet had been held merely for the pleasure of the Holstein breeders and not to raise stock, so enthusiastic were the breeders over the success of the 1914 show that when it was suggested that stock subscriptions be taken there was an immediate response...

Yakima Man Tommaster.

George Guy of Yakima, auctioneer at the exposition, acted as tommaster for the occasion and following a roll call in which each breeder presented gave him name, location of his farm and the number of registered Holsteins owned...

SEWER BID AGAIN ASKED

$203,891 TO BE EXPENDED IN PORTLAND PROGRAMME.

Council Also Calls for Offers on $67,584 of Hard-Surfacing of Streets of City.

Another call for bids on street and sewer improvement work for the city was issued yesterday by City Commissioner Barbur. The call is the second one this week and is a part of the contemplated $2,500,000 improvement programme outlined for 1920.

Stock Show Sidelights.

WHAT the success of the nightly horse shows has been due mainly to the untiring efforts of T. T. Strain, superintendent of the show, is the tribute of all stock show officials. Mr. Strain has worked day and night to make the horse show success, and that his efforts have met with success is shown in the statistics...

RECORD SALE PRICES RECEIVED

Record prices were received by stock growers in the regular association auction sales of purebred stock yesterday. The shorthorns brought even a better price than was expected...

Following were the sales Thursday:

Table with columns: Cattle, Hogs, Sheep. Lists various breeds and prices.

WIFE'S PLAN TO BE SISTER IS FAILURE

Man Asks Divorce From Spouse for 31 Years.

13 SEEK SEPARATIONS

Women Object to Being Slapped, Jerked and Abused; Men Resent Naggng and Relatives.

She never would return home to live with her husband in any other way than as a brother, is the assertion Robert C. Fielder says his wife made to him last June when she said she was going to Idaho. Fielder filed a divorce complaint last yesterday against Emma J. Fielder, to whom he was married on the fourth of July, 1883.

Mrs. Fielder apparently gave careful consideration to her declaration of independence after 31 years of wedded life. She stipulated in outlining her plans for departure that her husband could remain in Portland and send her his earnings, but that she would remain in Idaho.

Sergeant Yandle, in charge of the marine corps booth at the pavilion, received the surprise of his life yesterday when he was called upon to find a baby had taken possession of the "devil dog" exhibit.

SEWER BID AGAIN ASKED

$203,891 TO BE EXPENDED IN PORTLAND PROGRAMME.

Council Also Calls for Offers on $67,584 of Hard-Surfacing of Streets of City.

Another call for bids on street and sewer improvement work for the city was issued yesterday by City Commissioner Barbur. The call is the second one this week and is a part of the contemplated $2,500,000 improvement programme outlined for 1920.

Stock Show Sidelights.

WHAT the success of the nightly horse shows has been due mainly to the untiring efforts of T. T. Strain, superintendent of the show, is the tribute of all stock show officials. Mr. Strain has worked day and night to make the horse show success, and that his efforts have met with success is shown in the statistics...

WIFE'S PLAN TO BE SISTER IS FAILURE

Man Asks Divorce From Spouse for 31 Years.

13 SEEK SEPARATIONS

Women Object to Being Slapped, Jerked and Abused; Men Resent Naggng and Relatives.

She never would return home to live with her husband in any other way than as a brother, is the assertion Robert C. Fielder says his wife made to him last June when she said she was going to Idaho. Fielder filed a divorce complaint last yesterday against Emma J. Fielder, to whom he was married on the fourth of July, 1883.

Mrs. Fielder apparently gave careful consideration to her declaration of independence after 31 years of wedded life. She stipulated in outlining her plans for departure that her husband could remain in Portland and send her his earnings, but that she would remain in Idaho.

Sergeant Yandle, in charge of the marine corps booth at the pavilion, received the surprise of his life yesterday when he was called upon to find a baby had taken possession of the "devil dog" exhibit.

SEWER BID AGAIN ASKED

$203,891 TO BE EXPENDED IN PORTLAND PROGRAMME.

Council Also Calls for Offers on $67,584 of Hard-Surfacing of Streets of City.

Another call for bids on street and sewer improvement work for the city was issued yesterday by City Commissioner Barbur. The call is the second one this week and is a part of the contemplated $2,500,000 improvement programme outlined for 1920.

Stock Show Sidelights.

WHAT the success of the nightly horse shows has been due mainly to the untiring efforts of T. T. Strain, superintendent of the show, is the tribute of all stock show officials. Mr. Strain has worked day and night to make the horse show success, and that his efforts have met with success is shown in the statistics...

WIFE'S PLAN TO BE SISTER IS FAILURE

Man Asks Divorce From Spouse for 31 Years.

13 SEEK SEPARATIONS

Women Object to Being Slapped, Jerked and Abused; Men Resent Naggng and Relatives.

She never would return home to live with her husband in any other way than as a brother, is the assertion Robert C. Fielder says his wife made to him last June when she said she was going to Idaho. Fielder filed a divorce complaint last yesterday against Emma J. Fielder, to whom he was married on the fourth of July, 1883.

Mrs. Fielder apparently gave careful consideration to her declaration of independence after 31 years of wedded life. She stipulated in outlining her plans for departure that her husband could remain in Portland and send her his earnings, but that she would remain in Idaho.

Sergeant Yandle, in charge of the marine corps booth at the pavilion, received the surprise of his life yesterday when he was called upon to find a baby had taken possession of the "devil dog" exhibit.

SEWER BID AGAIN ASKED

$203,891 TO BE EXPENDED IN PORTLAND PROGRAMME.

Council Also Calls for Offers on $67,584 of Hard-Surfacing of Streets of City.

Another call for bids on street and sewer improvement work for the city was issued yesterday by City Commissioner Barbur. The call is the second one this week and is a part of the contemplated $2,500,000 improvement programme outlined for 1920.

Stock Show Sidelights.

WHAT the success of the nightly horse shows has been due mainly to the untiring efforts of T. T. Strain, superintendent of the show, is the tribute of all stock show officials. Mr. Strain has worked day and night to make the horse show success, and that his efforts have met with success is shown in the statistics...

WIFE'S PLAN TO BE SISTER IS FAILURE

Man Asks Divorce From Spouse for 31 Years.

13 SEEK SEPARATIONS

Women Object to Being Slapped, Jerked and Abused; Men Resent Naggng and Relatives.

She never would return home to live with her husband in any other way than as a brother, is the assertion Robert C. Fielder says his wife made to him last June when she said she was going to Idaho. Fielder filed a divorce complaint last yesterday against Emma J. Fielder, to whom he was married on the fourth of July, 1883.

Mrs. Fielder apparently gave careful consideration to her declaration of independence after 31 years of wedded life. She stipulated in outlining her plans for departure that her husband could remain in Portland and send her his earnings, but that she would remain in Idaho.

Sergeant Yandle, in charge of the marine corps booth at the pavilion, received the surprise of his life yesterday when he was called upon to find a baby had taken possession of the "devil dog" exhibit.

SEWER BID AGAIN ASKED

$203,891 TO BE EXPENDED IN PORTLAND PROGRAMME.

Council Also Calls for Offers on $67,584 of Hard-Surfacing of Streets of City.

Another call for bids on street and sewer improvement work for the city was issued yesterday by City Commissioner Barbur. The call is the second one this week and is a part of the contemplated $2,500,000 improvement programme outlined for 1920.

Stock Show Sidelights.

WHAT the success of the nightly horse shows has been due mainly to the untiring efforts of T. T. Strain, superintendent of the show, is the tribute of all stock show officials. Mr. Strain has worked day and night to make the horse show success, and that his efforts have met with success is shown in the statistics...

When Mrs. Mae White adopted a daughter in the hope that the child's presence would iron out domestic difficulties she made a grievous error...

Being called a goose and a fool by her husband is resented by Nellie Johnson to the extent that she is suing Louis Johnson for divorce...

Unhappily in the home caused P. Polesky to sue for separation from Joale Polesky, whom he married in 1911. He asks custody of their 18-month-old child.

Just browsing around, with his eyes keenly focused upon every bit of fancy livestock in the northwest, Dr. Issa Tanimura of Tokio, Japan, is on his way to introduce sheep into Japan...

There is a species of sheep near to hand that Japan might adopt with success, but not from the financial standpoint. It is the Siberian animal, a shaggy, lean-quartered individual...

At a later debate in Gladstone Mr. Schubeel held the hand of the opposition upon their eleventh-hour tactics, used in their frenzied efforts to defeat the bonds...

There is a species of sheep near to hand that Japan might adopt with success, but not from the financial standpoint. It is the Siberian animal, a shaggy, lean-quartered individual...

No notification was sent to the local committee, and when the time for the advertised meeting arrived and none of the bond advocates had put in an appearance, the word was passed among the large crowd assembled that the pro-bond people were afraid to meet the opposition...

For further information and an appointment to see this place, address Estate of Martin Winch, 424 Abington Building, Portland, Oregon.

Advertisement for Crimmon Rambler Syrup, featuring an illustration of a jar and text describing its benefits.

Advertisement for Road Bond Hoax, discussing the proposed road bond issue and the opposition.

Advertisement for Splendid Farm to be Sold, detailing the features of a 155-acre farm near Gresham.