NEW BILLS AT THE THEATERS

Orpheum. BY LEONE CASS BAER. To have given to the world "Mother Machree" should be enough of itself...

It is one thing to know music and quite another to know humanity. To be on more than bowing acquaintance with such is to take the town of Ernest Ball over the minds and hearts of his audiences...

Somewhere I read an expression "to keep the fountain of sentiment flowing." That's what Ernest H. H. does. He plays on our heart strings and our memories...

They gave their newest song, "Let the World Go By," a melodious challenge to the world and his wife to disturb the happiness of a little home out west...

"Indoor Sports" is a capital idea, neatly worked out. By a clever partnership of the stage two acts are shown. One is Marie's and the other belongs to Bess. Their two swains come into the dividing line...

The vocalists are Susan Clough, Jesse Hill, Arthur Bowes and William Stitt, with Malcolm Johnson at the piano. The latter plays "The Road to Mandalay"...

Lyric. AN OPERATIC duet, sung by Olive Finney, prima donna of the Lyric Stock company, and Clarence Wurdig, baritone...

Carton Chase as a lieutenant on leave in Paris and Will Rader as a French cafe proprietor, have several amusing scenes. Rader's impersonation of the Frenchman being the best of many such which he has done at the local theater...
