Many Causes for Thankfulness. has every American this year, but none more than the man or woman who has learned the habit of saving and investing. Liberty Bonds taught the lesson to hundreds, and today the demand for bonds of one hundred to five hundred dollars is insistent.

If you had during this year purchased several such bonds, and knew you were going to have a steady income entirely aside from your regular salary, you and your family would, we are sure, set it down as a special reason for thanksgiving.

Why not start now, and get ready for next year? Get out of the ranks of "happy spenders," and into those of "steady savers." This bank will be glad to talk with any who desire good safe investments.

Quiet, Serious Music Features Organ Recital

RENDERINGS BY Frederick W. Goodrich and Mrs. Herman A. Politz. Skilful; Attendance is Small.

Quiet, serious music, rather than gay and lively, marked much of the programme offered at the organ recital yesterday afternoon in the public auditorium, when the organist was Frederick W. Goodrich, organist of St. Mary's Cathedral, assisted by Mrs. Herman A. Politz, soprano soloist in the choir of the Temple Beth Israel.

Mr. Goodrich's solos included Audubon's overture to "The Bronze Horse" and "Coronation March," from Meyerbeer's "The Prophet." He played skillfully and with feeling, and sang with charming effect several solos, among them being "Ave Maria" (Donnod) and "Kyrie eleison" (Gardner). The latter was sung by Mrs. Politz, who received the greatest number of requests will be included in the programme. Three requests will be considered in arranging the programme for the next series of concerts.
