GOING UP?—St. Peter—Late arrivals complain that the cost of living is soaring sky-high on the planet Earth.

Mr. Mentwell—High! That's mild, it takes at least $5,000.00 a year to reasonably maintain a home and family.

St. Peter—$5,000.00 a year; why that represents a capital of $100,000.00 safely invested at 5 per cent. Do you realize that?

Mr. Mentwell—Yes, I realized it, like millions of others, but—

St. Peter—Well, Mr. Mentwell, now that your earning power has stopped, did you leave a sufficient amount in cash to yield anywhere near $5000.00 to support your family?

Mr. Mentwell—No. For years I intended to arrange for a $20,000.00 estate—which I could have easily done without any difficulty—but I kept putting it off.

St. Peter—Intended to eh! Page, direct this gentleman to the place paved with good intentions. Going Down!

Greater love hath no man than that he leaves his family so situated that they will receive regularly at least 25 per cent of the amount he earned annually. And how simply this may be arranged!

THE first of the second series of Sunday afternoon pipe organ recitals, in the Auditorium for the present season was given yesterday, and 444 persons walked through the rain to hear it. There have been nine of these recitals this season, with an average of about 750 paid admissions. About 115 paid admissions would pay expenses, but the opinion is gaining ground among these concert patrons that these events should be continued in the interest of public musical education, whether the concerts pay expenses or not.

Richmond CLOSED CROTCH UNION SUITS PATENTED OCTOBER 8th 1912. "Just a few lines"—but very important! Tailors know the futility of trying to build a suit on a foundation of poorly fitting underwear. Their hardest job is righting a few lines that have been thrown out by baggy, bunched undergarments. Richmond Union Suits fit like cocoanut meat fits the shell. They trace each line and curve as accurately as the scroll-saw follows the lines of the picture-puzzle. Every Richmond has got to fit. And, by George, it does! Ask your dealer to tell you about the 8 exclusive features of Richmond Union Suits, or write us.
