LANSING IS LEFT ALONE

Responsibility for Action in Mexican Situation Placed Safety With Secretary of State.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU
Washington, Dec. 2, more news this week about the situation in Mexico, which promises to be a critical one. The possibility of an American invasion of that country is being discussed by the Mexican government, and especially with the United States government.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—The Mexican government has been informed by the United States government that it is prepared to send troops to Mexico if necessary. This information was conveyed to the Mexican government by the United States Ambassador in Mexico, who is now in Washington.

The United States government has also been informed by the Mexican government that it is prepared to send troops to Mexico if necessary. This information was conveyed to the United States government by the Mexican Ambassador in Washington, who is now in Mexico.

The situation in Mexico is critical, and the United States government is prepared to take whatever steps are necessary to maintain peace and order in that country.

TOO MANY MEMBERS OF WHITE HAINES BULLETIN

In a bulletin released today, the White Haines Bulletin announced the resignation of several members of its board of directors.

Among those who have resigned are:

1. William White
2. John Haines
3. Robert Johnson

These members were accused of embezzlement and fraud.

CRIMINAL CHARGES FILED

At International and States Leaders Held to Have Violated F. S. Court Orders.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—Criminal charges were filed today against several international and states leaders who are accused of violating the F. S. Court orders.

The charges include:

1. violations of the F. S. Court orders
2. embezzlement
3. fraud

The leaders were arrested and are being held in jail.

GERMANS WOULD MIGRATE

New York, Dec. 2—The Foreign Office has announced that it is preparing a plan to migrate Germans to other countries. This plan is being considered because of the growing unrest among the German population.

The plan would allow for the voluntary migration of Germans to other countries. This would include:

1. immigration to the United States
2. immigration to Canada
3. immigration to Australia

The Foreign Office is currently discussing this plan with other governments.

LUNCHEN, TREATY CLASH

The United States and the Soviet Union have reached an agreement on the terms of the treaty.

The treaty will include:

1. mutual recognition of each other's sovereignty
2. non-aggression pact
3. economic cooperation

The treaty will be signed in Washington on December 3.

CARLISLE WILL RECOVER

The Carlisle Indian School has announced that it will resume operations.

The school was closed in 1918 due to a epidemic of smallpox.

The school will reopen in January.

FRENCH PAINTER IS DEAD

Robert, born in 1841 at Limoges, was an influential French painter.

He was known for his realistic portrayals of the French peasant life.

He died in Paris on December 1, 1897.