

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. FITZCOCK. Published by The Oregonian Publishing Co., 135 Third Street, Portland, Oregon.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance. Daily, Sunday included, six months, $4.20. Daily, Sunday included, one year, $7.50.

How to Remit—Send postage money order, express, check, coin or currency or cash. Give post office address at foot of remittance.

THE NEW RADICAL PARTY.

Formation of a new labor party was to be expected to result from the present state of acute agitation. There are always afloat on the sea of politics a number of people with extreme opinions.

THE DIFFERENCE.

A British subject, seized by Mexican bandits, is released immediately on demand of the Carranza government. An American subject, kidnaped by Mexican desperadoes, is set free only on payment of $150,000 ransom.

REBUILDING BELGIUM.

It was to be expected that two diverse schools of thought would result from discussion of the problem of rebuilding Belgium. There is one school who cling exclusively to the traditions of the past.

EDUCATION FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.

Another bill, more or less, proposing to reform the foreign service of the United States is unlikely to attract much attention in congress, but the one just offered by Representative Rogers of Massachusetts.

Public Lands in Texas.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 3.—(To the Editor.)—I have been told that when Texas applied for admission to the Union, she made a certain statement.

already done sufficient harm in the past. It is not to be expected that the future of miasma will be given them in the future.

Stars and Starmakers.

Walter Regan, once of the Baker, is playing in a new musical comedy called "Irene," written by James Montgomery.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS.

Solution of Presidential Problem Suggested by Champ Clark.

Thos. Who Come and Go.

"You people should advertise your scenery and your water," asserted B. M. Conn, hotel man of Oklahoma City.

More Truth Than Poetry.

Little troubled Toulis-head bent above your amiable smile. Time for me before the clock strikes.

It passes, it will open the way to an attractive profession to young Americans. Professions should be appointed.

VOTE SLACKERS.

In the recent Ohio election in which ratification of the national prohibition amendment was rejected by majority of 52, a few more than one million votes were cast.

SLAY UP.

Thirty thousand automobiles travel the streets of Portland daily, under the guidance of thirty thousand drivers.

THE COST OF THE WAR.

The Carnegie Endowment for Industrial Peace, in publishing its report on the cost of the war, observes that the world has been irreparably ruined.

THE DIFFERENCE.

A British subject, seized by Mexican bandits, is released immediately on demand of the Carranza government.

REBUILDING BELGIUM.

It was to be expected that two diverse schools of thought would result from discussion of the problem of rebuilding Belgium.

EDUCATION FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.

Another bill, more or less, proposing to reform the foreign service of the United States is unlikely to attract much attention in congress.

Public Lands in Texas.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 3.—(To the Editor.)—I have been told that when Texas applied for admission to the Union, she made a certain statement.

already done sufficient harm in the past. It is not to be expected that the future of miasma will be given them in the future.

Stars and Starmakers.

Walter Regan, once of the Baker, is playing in a new musical comedy called "Irene," written by James Montgomery.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS.

Solution of Presidential Problem Suggested by Champ Clark.

Thos. Who Come and Go.

"You people should advertise your scenery and your water," asserted B. M. Conn, hotel man of Oklahoma City.

More Truth Than Poetry.

Little troubled Toulis-head bent above your amiable smile. Time for me before the clock strikes.

It passes, it will open the way to an attractive profession to young Americans. Professions should be appointed.

VOTE SLACKERS.

In the recent Ohio election in which ratification of the national prohibition amendment was rejected by majority of 52, a few more than one million votes were cast.

SLAY UP.

Thirty thousand automobiles travel the streets of Portland daily, under the guidance of thirty thousand drivers.

THE COST OF THE WAR.

The Carnegie Endowment for Industrial Peace, in publishing its report on the cost of the war, observes that the world has been irreparably ruined.

THE DIFFERENCE.

A British subject, seized by Mexican bandits, is released immediately on demand of the Carranza government.

REBUILDING BELGIUM.

It was to be expected that two diverse schools of thought would result from discussion of the problem of rebuilding Belgium.

EDUCATION FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.

Another bill, more or less, proposing to reform the foreign service of the United States is unlikely to attract much attention in congress.

Public Lands in Texas.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 3.—(To the Editor.)—I have been told that when Texas applied for admission to the Union, she made a certain statement.

already done sufficient harm in the past. It is not to be expected that the future of miasma will be given them in the future.

Stars and Starmakers.

Walter Regan, once of the Baker, is playing in a new musical comedy called "Irene," written by James Montgomery.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS.

Solution of Presidential Problem Suggested by Champ Clark.

Thos. Who Come and Go.

"You people should advertise your scenery and your water," asserted B. M. Conn, hotel man of Oklahoma City.

More Truth Than Poetry.

Little troubled Toulis-head bent above your amiable smile. Time for me before the clock strikes.

It passes, it will open the way to an attractive profession to young Americans. Professions should be appointed.

VOTE SLACKERS.

In the recent Ohio election in which ratification of the national prohibition amendment was rejected by majority of 52, a few more than one million votes were cast.

SLAY UP.

Thirty thousand automobiles travel the streets of Portland daily, under the guidance of thirty thousand drivers.

THE COST OF THE WAR.

The Carnegie Endowment for Industrial Peace, in publishing its report on the cost of the war, observes that the world has been irreparably ruined.

THE DIFFERENCE.

A British subject, seized by Mexican bandits, is released immediately on demand of the Carranza government.

REBUILDING BELGIUM.

It was to be expected that two diverse schools of thought would result from discussion of the problem of rebuilding Belgium.

EDUCATION FOR FOREIGN SERVICE.

Another bill, more or less, proposing to reform the foreign service of the United States is unlikely to attract much attention in congress.

Public Lands in Texas.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 3.—(To the Editor.)—I have been told that when Texas applied for admission to the Union, she made a certain statement.

already done sufficient harm in the past. It is not to be expected that the future of miasma will be given them in the future.

Stars and Starmakers.

Walter Regan, once of the Baker, is playing in a new musical comedy called "Irene," written by James Montgomery.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS.

Solution of Presidential Problem Suggested by Champ Clark.

Thos. Who Come and Go.

"You people should advertise your scenery and your water," asserted B. M. Conn, hotel man of Oklahoma City.

More Truth Than Poetry.

Little troubled Toulis-head bent above your amiable smile. Time for me before the clock strikes.

Merely an Observation.

Today, when everyone but I was out Christmas shopping and the stores were so jammed that one had to wait for change one's mind.

In Other Days.

From The Oregonian of December 4, 1894. Twenty-five Years Ago. The Columbia River and Puget Sound Navigation Company intends to run two fast steamers on the Columbia.

Real Estate Transfers in Multnomah County.

Real estate transfers in Multnomah county for the past 11 months aggregated $1,228,000, which is considerably less than in previous years.

Flags of the several engine houses were at half mast yesterday, out of respect to E. J. Kireling, member of the fire department, who died yesterday at Millwaukie.

School of Architecture.

SILVERTON, Or., Dec. 1.—(To the Editor.)—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst. regarding the school of architecture in Portland.

Parkdale Hen Claims Record Egg.

PARKDALE, Or., Dec. 3.—(To the Editor.)—I have a year-old single-comb White Leghorn hen that has laid an egg weighing 1 1/2 ounces and measuring 8 1/2 inches by 5 1/2 inches.

Sam E. Van Vector, one of the oldest members of the Oregonian staff, is in the city and is at the Imperial.

W. W. Gage, an attorney of Coquille (or Ko-Kel), is among the arrivals at the Perkins.