driven to his work, but once he startdriven to his work, but once he started he was a wizard with the baseball. And he would certainly be a tremendous asset to the Seals now that he has had a couple of years of bigleague training.

Pitcher Mike Prendergast of the Philadelphia Nationals has been pur-chased by the Salt Lake Coast league club, according to word received at Salt Lake from E. Johnson, team manager, who is in southern California. Prendergast once played with the Chicago Nationals.

Gavvy Cravath, manager of the Philadelphia National league club, and Wade Killefer will have a talk in regard to making deals for players. Killefer wants to grab a couple of the Philly athletes, Although that club finished last in the National league. Killefer believes Cravath may have some young fellows to help him.
