AMERICA'S WAR DAMAGE IS MORE THAN SHIPS' VALUE.

Indemnities Awarded by Reparations Committee.

United States entered the war, ship-ping board officials said today. I'nder the peace treaty the value of the vessels, estimated by board offi-cials at from $130,000,000 to $140,000,-000, will be credited to Germany on indemnities awarded by the allied reparations committee, but as the American claims before the commission will more than offset the value of the ships, officials asserted there took refuge in American ports before the United States entered the war and were interned, and their value will not be included with that of the ves sels which were purely peaceful merchant craft. Another item against the German ount is the damage inflicted on a pio vessels just prior to their being today en over by the United States. Mrs. Many of the ships, moreover, it was Mrs. pointed out, were old and in poor since 1889. Si condition, making their value low at the time America seized them. The Imperator and the six other German steamers allocated to the United States before the signing of the armistice, are not included in the group of ships concerned in the

STATE SURVEY PLANNED

Study of Dependents, Delinquents and Defectives Ordered.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene Dec. 9 .- (Special.) -- Work on a state survey of dependents, delinquents and defectives outside of state institutions is to begin early next year under the direction of a committee of University direction of a committee of University of Oregon men working at the request of the state legislature.

John C. Almack, acting director of the university extension division, is in Portland this week in connection with the work. Serving with him are Dr. B. W. DeBusk, processor of education; Dr. R. H. Wheeler, professor of psychology; Dr. E. C. Robbins, professor of committee and Dr. I. Frank. fessor of economics, and Dr. J. Frank-lin Thomas, head of the Portland school of social service, a branch of the university school of sociolog

"Oregon compares favorably with "Gregon compares favorably with other states in her small number of defectives," said Mr. Almack, "and conditions are not so bad as some may suppose. There is a close connection between defectiveness and illiteracy, and Oregon stood second among all the states in the army literacy tests. The percentage of illiteracy is lower in the western states than in the western states than in the
