PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 11 .- (Spe. cial.)—For the second consecutive time Oregon has been asked to do battle for the west against the east. It was the Oregon team that licked Pennsylvania 14 to 0 on the occasion of the last intercollegiate east vawest contest New Year's day, 1917. Shortly after a telegram was re-ceived this morning from Dean Le-baron R. Biggs, chairman of the Crimson Athletic council, in which Crimson Athletic council, in which it was said that the Cambridge school If was said that the Cambridge school had reconsidered the situation in view of improved fuel conditions and would come west to the Tournament of Roses. The football committee met, but it was not until 2 P. M. that Oregon was picked over the University of Washington.

Panadena is as follows:
"Tournament of Roses committee cordially invites you to send your best eleven to piay Harvard university New Year's day at Pasadena, on terms similar to those governing your previous contest here. Please notify us of acceptance immediately and a formal contract will be sent you."

The telegram was signed by W. L. Leishman, president of the Tournament of Roses committee.

has come during the past weeks of inactivity due to the prolonged in-decision of the Pasadena officials. Bill Hayward was doubtful this aftersoon as to whether or not Oregon would be in sultable condition as only three weeks of practice are left. He said, however, "if Harvard can do it,"

Shy Huntington was all for the big game. "The faculty is for it, the team is for it, and I am for it." he said.

Everybody Is Jubilant. Every member of the Oregon eleven was jubilant over their selection. Captain Everett Brandenburg voiced the sentiment of the ream this afternoon when he said: "I'm all for it." It is probable that the team will leave shortly for Pasadena in order to be in e south for training and practicing. here is almost an impossibility, as a beavy mantle of snow rests all over city and shows no signs of disap-

The Oregon campus was bilarious tonight following the receipt of the invitation. The decision is a popular one here, and it is assumed that Oregon's record for the season has left no doubt in the minds of the Pacific coast critics that it has the most logcal eleven to represent the west, and Oregon's record in 1816, when they defeated the much-tauted University of Pennsylvania eleven, substantiates that belief.

Campus opinion has it that Washington would probably have been favored as the opponent of have been favored as the opponent of an eastern team if energy had been di cted in that channel before. It was not until the night of the football banquet that real efforts were made to cinch the contest. Then influential alumni and citizens, in-cluding the mayor of Seattle, sent re-quests for consideration to the south-land.

Ted Faulk Elected Captain.

At the banquet given in honor of the gridiron heroes Ted Faulk, end star and choice of all coast sports writers for the mythical all-star Pacific coast team, was elected captain of the Northmen for the 1920 season. "Sandy" Wick, all-Pacific coast selection for center, won the Flaherty medal, given each year to the athlete who supplies the most inspiration to the team.

Oregon and Pennsylvania on New Year's day in 1916. He is agreeable to Oregon and there is little likelihood of the necessity of having an eastern or middle-western man brought out for the job.

It will be remembered that Walter Eckersail was brought from Chicago for the Washington State-Brown game on the first day of 1916. The Pasadena committee did not want to bring Eckersail to the coast, for it game on the first day of 1916. Hadley-Silvers Take Two From Wells Realty-Walter Woods Knocks Down 581 Sticks.

Marty Flavin was the shining light of all shooters in the City league last night when he amassed the round total of 600 pins for a 200 average. Flavin's shooting was a big help to Harry Green's Rialto five in winning two out of three games from the Board of Trade bagber shop.

The Hadley-Silver league leaders won their customary two games from the Wells Realty company. Bakkes' 248 was the feature of the match.

Walter Woods had the high average of this match with 581 pins.
The players of the Vogan Candy company and the St. Nicholas teams could not negotiate the snow drifts and the match was postponed. The scores follow:
