Some of the "reds" are still arguing that Jimmy Darcy was entitled to a draw with Gibbons Tuesday night, but how they figure is more than one can tell. Darcy fought his fight, the only fight that he could, considering the situation he was in. Darcy was signed last week to meet Battling Ortega in Portland December 23. If he had gone in and mixed with Gib bons he would have probably receive a fine lacing, which would, of course have cut him out of a nice piece of change to meet Ortega.
