H. B. Franklin New Head of Oregon Association.

BANQUET CLOSES SESSION

Business Talks Are Made-Prize Medals Awarded and General Good Time Is Had.

H. B. Franklin is the new president of the Oregon Butter and Cheese-makers' association. Mr. Franklin is connected with the Mutual Creamery company and is well known throughout the state. P. C. Jorgensen is vice-president and V. D. Chappell vice-president and V. D. Chappell secretary and treasurer.

At the closing session of the association, held yesterday in the Portland hotel, C. L. Hawley of McCoy gave an inspiring address on "Getting Dairy Legislation," and J. D. Mickle spoke on "Oregon Dairy Laws." Mr. Mickle suggested the repeal of the imported meat and egg law. He suggested that the law on foodstuffs be amended and that section 61, relating to butter labels and stencils, be repealed. Mr. Mickle and Mr. Hawley both said that butter and cheeseboth said that butter and cheese-makers' licenses should be made per-manent. A legislative committee to look after the interests of the in-dustries will be chosen.
P. C. Jorgensen of Carlton won the first prize and gold medal for the fin-est butter shown at the convention exhibit. His score was 94. Hugh exhibit. His score was 94. Hugh Barber of the Fairview Dairy asso-ciation, Tillamook, won first place and a number of special prizes for cheese. His score was 96.

Mount Angel Man Wins. S. O. Rice of Mount Angel, scoring 9214, won the silver medal for butter, and Ellmer O. Root of Blatchley won third place and a bronze medal with a score of 91. Jens Therkeldsen of Umapine won a cash prize. His score was 90%.

W. T. de Boer of Coos county had a score of $5 ½, winning a medal and many honors for cheese. W. H. Thomas of Tillamook Red Clover creamery scored $5 and Frank Wilson of Tillamook $4½ for cheese. All cheese was of the cheddar type.

Butterfat and moisture standards, according to the federal and state law requirements, were discussed in a paper read by A. Jenson. He said that the federal government required not less than an $2½ per cent standard. but did not enforce it, and that many states are working under an 80 per cent standard, which he advocated.

Rigid Test Advised. S. O. Rice of Mount Angel said that all precautions were taken to keep all precautions were taken to keep down moisture content in butter, but once in a while something might happen. Oregon butter, he said, is excellent as a rule. W. E. Turner of Seattle advised testing every churning and never letting a single cube of butter of over 16 per cent moisture go out of the creameries.

Among the out-of-town men at the convention who took part in discussions were: C. W. Sly of Eugene, E. R. Stuller of Astoria, H. W. Thomas and Frank Wilson of Tillamook, Richard Willett of Roseburg, Martin Schadt of Seattle, P. C. Jorgenson of Carlton, H. G. Svart of Halfway, W. J. DeBoer of Coos county and W. E. Hollingsworth of Menasha, Wis. Helpful talks were given by Wis. Helpful talks were given by Professor E. B. Fitts and P. M. Brandt of Oregon Agricultural college. The latter told of the work of the Oregon dairy council and the butter and cheese men indorsed it unanimously. "Cleanliness is godliness," said S. O. Rice in a brief talk on butter making.

Referendum to Be Taken Soon to Decide on Indersement of Presidential Candidate.

It is the intention of founders to make the Roosevelt Republican club an "honest-to-goodness" republican club and they want to make it perclub and they want to make it perpetual, so they incorporated it. It is the hope of the club to open clubrooms in the near future and some day to have a Roosevelt Republican club building in Portland. The club will have its first luncheon tomorrow noon at the Benson, when Arthur L. Dundas, president of the organization, will speak on the policy of the club, and Lieutenant-Colonel J. J. Crossley will discuss party unity.

Under the charter of the organiza-tion, the club cap indorse a candidate n the presidential primaries, but the club cannot be used to aid other can-didates for other nominations in the primaries. In the general election the Rooseveit Republican club will go down the line for the entire ticket, from top to bottom.

Referendum to Be Taken. A referendum will be taken to as-certain whether the club will get behind anyone for president. Mem-bers will receive a card asking if they wish the club to make an indorsement, and if so to name the candidate, the member prefers. In this manner the sentiment of the club can be ascertained. Members of the club now appear to be scattered in their support of Lowden, Poindexter and Wood, and other presidential aspirants may and other presidential aspirants may
