VEAL GIVEN TO PRISONERS

Inmates of City Bastile Have to Go Without Turkey.

Roast yeal formed the piece de resistance at the Christmas dinner served to the prisoners in the city jail yes-terday. This was supplemented by dressing, brown gravy, mashed po-tatoes, cranberry sauce and apple

The old time custom of serving turkey to the prisoners was done away with. When the price of turkey is such that the majority of the people outside of jall cannot eat it, people outside of pair cannot cat it, the authorities took the stand that caxpayers should not be compelled to pay for turkey to feed to the prisoners.

The Salvation Army helped add a little Christmas cheer to the boys be-hind the bars, donating a crate of oranges and a 50-pound box of candy.
